Lutheran Hour Starts 14th Season Oct. 6 Over Two Stations

Sunday, Oct. 6, marks the beginning of the fourteenth Lutheran Hour season, as the Lutheran church's mission of the air is privileged to embark on another cycle of Scripture-founded, Christ-exalting broadcasts.

This same Sunday also marks the return to the air of Dr. Walter A. Maier, regular Lutheran Hour speaker since the beginning. Dr. Maier's return to the air will be broadcast over WGN at 11:30 a.m. with a rebroadcast over WIND at 7:30 p.m.

As the Lutheran Hour enters upon its 14th season, it broadcasts over a mighty system totaling 905 stations in the United States, Canada and foreign countries. Seven fine stations have been secured in the Philippine islands, two in Shanghai, and one powerful station in Chungking.

The Lutheran Hour is entirely a laymen's enterprise.
