WEEK-END VISITS

Mayor and Mrs. Joseph B. Garnett and son, James of S. Linden avenue, spent the week-end in Ann Arbor, Mich., visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Newton, Jr., (Jane Garnett) and children, Charles III, David, Billy and Mary.

Brigadier General and Mrs. W. H. Wilbur of 1540 Judson avenue attended the Army-Michigan football game recently in Ann Arbor, Mich. Before they returned home, they went on to Detroit, where Gen. Wilbur spoke on the following Sunday.

Visiting at her home in Streator over the week-end, was Miss Ruth Riss, art teacher at the Ravinia school. Miss Riss resides on Broadway avenue.

BEVERLY FRISBIE A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss F. Beverly Frisbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Frisbie Jr., of Lakeside Manor road, and Robert Hill Carruth Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carruth of Winnetka, took place Oct. 18 at the Winnetka Congregational church.

The bride's dress was of gold colored satin, and a corsage of stephanotis and gardenias was attached to the fur muff she carried.

Miss Georgianna Frisbie, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a suit of brown satin, complemented by a corsage of baby chrysanthemums and mixed fall flowers, attached to the muff she carried. Mrs. Ralph Lang (Joan Nash) was in a flame colored crepe dress, and her corsage and muff were like that of the maid of honor.

Mason Gaffne of Wilmette served the bridegroom as best man, and Ross Edwards of Chicago and Frank Underwood ushered.

The bride's mother chose a silk dress of varied shades of dark blue, and the bridegroom's mother wore brown. Both wore corsages of fall flowers.

About one hundred guests attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents, which followed.

After a week-end wedding trip to Lake Delavan, Wis., Mr. Carruth and his bride are temporarily residing at the home of his parents in Winnetka.
