WHAT'S COOKING

"Tis said, "A woman always feels better after a good cry, because it either gets a lot of pent up emotion out of her system or whatever it is she wants out of her husband."

Of course, it takes no weeping to get father to buy a new Servel Gas Refrigerator. His good judgment of things mechanical tells him that the SERVEL stays silent, lasts longer.

PROVERB DEPT . . .

"Even a turtle cannot go anywhere until he sticks his neck out." — H. E. Sawyer.

Following each visit by our service man we mail a service inquiry card which solicits your suggestions. Yes, that is "sticking our necks out," and occasionally some one really "lands" on us. However, we are willing to take the occasional "hay-maker" to get the benefit of many good suggestions (and compliments).

YOUR suggestions are welcomed.

YOU CAN DO something ABOUT IT . . .

Millions of Americans are always asking: "Why doesn't somebody do something about it?"

They are referring, of course, to such things as food and other shortages, soaring costs of living, lack of housing for veterans, and all of the other discomforts and annoyances that they thought would be over once the war had been won.

The answer to this question of "doing something about it" will be written at the polls on November 5 if you—and enough other good Americans—vote Republican. That is the one sure way you can do something to get this country back to real Americanism.

Be sure you vote Republican on November 5, and get your relatives and friends to do likewise.
