JUNE WHITWORTH WEDS

Gowned in a white brocaded satin period dress, made with a berth collar, drop shoulders, long sleeves and a train three yards long, Miss June Theobald Whitworth became the bride of Russell Dale Parmenter on Oct. 26, at the Presbyterian church. The heirloom rosepoint fingertip veil she wore was 150 years old. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. The Rev. Louis Sherwin heard the exchange of vows before an altar of white flowers, ferns and candelabra. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rupert Whitworth of Deere Park drive, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Parmenter of Corvallis, Oregon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Howard Hamilton (Alison Phillips) and the Misses Helen Brittenham, Virginia Nelson of Glencoe, and Jane Moist of Chicago were the bridesmaids. The four attendants were dressed alike in blue velvet, with three quarter length sleeves and bouffant skirts. Their blue velvet poke bonnets were trimmed with shocking pink ostrich feathers, except for the matron of honor whose feathers matched the bonnet's blue. Their roses were of shocking pink. Harold Parmenter of Eugene, Ore., served his brother as best man, and Robert Haller, Kenneth Larsen, Harold Meyers and Hubert Rawlins ushered.

The bride's mother wore an ermine wrap over her watermelon pink chiffon dress. She wore pink feathers in her hair, and her corsage was of orchids.

A reception at the Exmoor country club followed the ceremony.

The bride chose a gold colored suit and hat, complemented by a corsage of gold chrysanthemums, as her "going-away" attire.

Mr. Parmenter and his bride will make their home in Salem, Ore.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore white velvet with a long train, and a fingertip veil, which hung from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bride's cousin, Miss Dorothy Grosse, was matron of honor. She wore a fuschia velvet gown and matching Juliette cap. Her bouquet was of American Beauty roses and pom poms. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Alice Nevins of Chicago, a cousin of the bride, and Joan Sheahan. Miss Nevins wore green velvet and Miss Sheahan was in gold velvet. Both wore matching hats and carried old fashioned bouquets of chrysanthemums.

William Dechambre, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Eugene Dechambre, another brother, and James Nevins, brother of the bride, ushered.

VOTE REPUBLICAN
DO IT WITH Ballots
In this country ballots take the place of bullets. If you don't like the way things are going in this country, speak up at the polls on November 5 and get yourself a new set of officials who will run the country as you want it to be run. That is your right — your duty — as an American.
Under our Constitution the people of the country are expected to express at the election booth their wishes as to government policy. If they fail to do so, they fail to do their duty by their country and themselves.
If you are against the idea of having veterans homeless, if you are against food shortages and high living costs, if you want lasting peace, high production, and the privilege to live your own life your own way.

Her voice has never lost its smile
Quite often the telephone switchboard is the busiest place in town. Sometimes we have more calls to answer than we have equipment to handle them.
We wish you could watch our operators when the volume of calls climbs up. Their hands move with amazing speed and skill. Our switchboards literally buzz with activity.
Yet, even when the flood of calls reaches its peak, our operators continue to give you cheerful, courteous service. It's still the voice with the smile.
The day is coming when all the new equipment we have ordered will arrive. Until then, you can count on this—they'll do their best with what we have.
