MARY CASSEDY WEDS.

Maria Santi sang at the wedding of Miss Faustina Mary Cassey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cassey of Highwood, and Austin J. Nizzi, son of Mrs. Theresa Nizzi of Bevier, Mo., which took place October 17 at the Immaculate Conception church. The Rev. Edmund Skoner performed the ceremony. The bride wore a turquoise gown with brown accessories, and a corsage of stephanotis and an orchid. Her sister, Miss Helen Cassey, attended as maid of honor. She was in brown and her corsage was of tea roses.

A cousin of the bride, Leo Bernardi of Chicago, served as best man.

A dinner followed the ceremony at the Chateau, and a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents that evening.

Mr. Nizzi and his bride will reside in Bevier.

HERE FOR WEDDING

On Saturday, Clarence F. Jenkins of Magnolia, N. J., arrived for his wedding to Miss Arlene Genevieve Mett, which will take place on Nov. 2.

BRIDAL SHOWERS

Many pre-nuptial parties were given before the Day-Creigh wedding last Saturday. Among them was a cocktail party which was given Oct. 12 by Mr. and Mrs. Roger S. Vail and Mr. Bloss Vail. The bridal party were the guests of the bridegroom's parents Oct. 26, the wedding day, at luncheon at the Exmoor Country club, and on the 24th, the bridegroom's brothers and sister honored the couple at a party at their home on Prospect avenue. The party was also in honor of Connor Creigh, and his fiancée, Miss Jo Everly of Garden City, Kans., whose engagement was recently announced.

Two miscellaneous showers were given in Miss Shirley Peck's honor prior to her wedding to John Marshall Kelly, recently. Mrs. A. Kloos and Mrs. I. H. Nemeroff entertained in her honor at Mrs. Kloos' home on Forest avenue, and Mrs. Michael Beaudin and Mrs. Richard O'Brien were co-hostesses also at the Kelly home on Roslyn circle.

The former GSO bridge group, which used to meet at the USO on Tuesday nights, and now meet at Fort Sheridan, gave a surprise shower at the home of Miss Barbara Ashman of Deerfield, in honor of Miss Arlene Mett, who will be married Saturday to Mr. Clarence Jenkins. Miss Mett was presented with a set of dishes.

KELLY-PECK WEDDING

The Rev. Edmund Skoner heard the exchange of nuptial vows last Saturday, when Miss Shirley May Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles John Peck of Winnetka, became the bride of John Marshall Kelly, son of the John Kellys of Roslyn circle at the Immaculate Conception church.

The bride wore the white faille wedding gown of her sister, Mrs. William N. Lowe of Chicago. Her fingertip veil hung from a Juliette cap of lace, and she carried a cascade of gardenias and ivy.

Miss Mary Schwalbach, maid of honor, wore emerald green faille with matching ostrich plumes in her hair. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Lowe and Miss Barbara Peck, sister of the bridegroom, wore chartrreuse gowns with plumes of the same color. Their bouquets of chrysanthemums and philodendron were alike.

Richard Kelly, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and William Lowe and Charles Parsons ushered.

The bride's mother was in yellow and the bridegroom's mother wore aqua. Their corsages were of orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony at Michigan Shores club in Wilmette.

Mr. Kelly and his bride have returned from a week's honeymoon in Milwaukee and are now living at 880 Roslyn circle.
