

IT'S SMART TO WEAR FLOWERS IN YOUR HAIR

Demure and youthful is this dainty spray of delicate odontoglossum orchids ranging from creamy white to the palest lavender which outlines the ever-popular page boy style.

Helen Hunt, chief hair stylist of Columbia Studios, demonstrates how to wear roses with Grecian hair-do.

A hair corsage of carnations entwined with ivy makes an unusual and interesting hair ornament... suitable either for afternoon or evening wear.

Yellow Fuji mums accentuate the gracefulness of this upswep hair-do... and give a distinctive and dashing touch to the coiffure.

CARNATIONS

Oh you lovely, lovely beauties
With fragrance so entrancing,
I gaze on you in awe, as I
Inhale your spicy sweetness!

And I know that some good angel
Must have come to earth and
Touched you with divine perfume,
As God fashioned you from clay!

Wendell Wilkie once said, "Many reasons may be assigned for the amazing economic development of the United States. The abundance of our natural resources, the freedom of our political institutions, and the character of our population have all undoubtedly contributed. But in my judgment of the greatest factor has been the fact that by the happenstance of good fortune there was created here in America the largest area in the world in which there are no barriers to the exchange of goods and ideas."

Speaking of an exchange idea... If you plan to build, get in touch with Paul Runnfeldt who is our New Building Specialist. Perhaps he can help you.

Don't worry—every one's as baffled as you are.
