BACK FROM HONEYMOON

After a month's honeymoon in northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. John Evans Lidicker, returned to Highland Park Wednesday. Mrs. Lidicker is the former Eva Verga of Chicago, and Mr. Lidicker's parents are the John J. Lidickers of Deerfield road.

The Lidickers' wedding took place in October at the Church of the Redeemer in Chicago. The Rev. Edward S. White read the service.

The bride wore an old fashioned white brocaded gown, made with a bustle. Her veil was fingertip length and she wore pearls. The bouquet she carried was of stephanotis and two white orchids.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Natacha Verga. Her gown was of blue-green velveteen, with flesh colored lace bodice. The ostrich feather head dress she wore was of the same blue-green, and her gloves were trimmed with velveteen like her dress. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Lola Tullio, was dressed identically like the maid of honor.

Best man was Hubert Lidicker, brother of the bridegroom, and his cousin, Richard Evans of Highland Park, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a gown of black crepe, trimmed with sequins. The cerise hat she wore matched the bow on her dress. The mother of the bridegroom was in teal blue. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception at the Windemere East hotel for 150 guests followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lidicker will make their home in Highland Park.
