Comdr. John Richard Mayhen will be an event of Dec. 7, many parties have already been given. On Saturday a tea and miscellaneous shower honored the bride-to-be, Mrs. Joseph M. Graffis and daughter, Marion, of Glencoe, aunt and cousin of Miss Vaughan, were the hostesses. A tea was also given on Monday for her by Mrs. Raymond Hahne of Chicago. Also in her honor a dinner was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Melvin Barker at her home at Ravine Manor road.

Seventy-five guests attended the recent bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Alice Boyack of Chicago in honor of Miss Irene Benkowski, whose marriage to Guido Tazioli took place Nov. 9. Co-hosts with Mrs. Boyack was the sister of the bride-to-be, Miss Alice Benkowski, also of Chicago.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Woodrow Dill of Highwood will entertain at a household shower in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Verne Anderson (Juanita Dill), whose marriage to Mr. Anderson took place last Saturday.

Mrs. Bruno Bertucci and Miss Mary Rosalini, attendants at the Baldini-Crocker marriage on Saturday, gave a personal shower recently, prior to the wedding, at Mrs. Bertucci's home on Livingston avenue, Highwood. Thirty guests attended.

GUIDO TAZIOLI TAKES A BRIDE

Gowned in white crepe with a long train and bustle, and fingertip veil, Miss Irene Benkowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Benkowski of Chicago, and Guido Tazioli, son of Mrs. Veronica Tazioli of West Park avenue, were united in marriage Nov. 9 in Our Lady of Mercy church in Chicago. The bride's bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

The bride's three attendants, Mrs. Marion Peterson, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Betty Benkowski, her sister, and Lucille Nathanson, were dressed alike. Their dresses were of Nile green and they wore yellow and burnt orange chrysanthemum head dresses and carried bouquets of the same flowers.

The little flower girl, Andrea Benkowski, cousin of the bride, was in yellow, and her flowers, too, were of yellow and burnt orange chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother, Sam Tazioli, served as best man, and the bride's cousin, Edwin Benkowski, and Harry Hall of Highland Park, ushered.

The bride's mother was in black crepe, and the bridegroom's mother chose a black wool suit for the occasion. Both wore corsages of red roses.

A reception for 250 guests was held in Chicago following the ceremony. After a honeymoon at the Moraine hotel, Mr. Tazioli and his bride are now at home in Highland Park.

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

A daughter, Louise Ann, arrived November 11, at the Highland Park hospital, for Mr. and Mrs. John W. Vander Bloomen Jr. of Ravine drive. Mrs. Vander Bloomen, the former Emma Louise Christensen, is the daughter of John Christensen of Deerfield place. The paternal grandparents are the John W. Vander Bloomen of North avenue.

Elizabeth Mae Crouch, named for her maternal grandmother, arrived Nov. 15 at the Highland Park hospital. The baby, and her sister, Catherine Elizabeth, 3, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Charles A. Crouch (Pauline Davis) of S. Linden avenue. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Davis of Richmond, Ill., formerly of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Crouch of Topeka, Kans.

The little boy who arrived on Nov. 16, at the Highland Park hospital for Mr. and Mrs. George Bock of Laurel avenue, has not yet been named. The Bocks are also the parents of another son, George III, 11, and three daughters, Audrey, 10, Ruth Ann (Mitzi), 6, and Ann Louise, 5.

Mrs. Bock is the former Louise Ritter, whose parents reside in Winnetka. The late Mr. and Mrs. George Bock are the paternal grandparents.

Local Girls Attend Monticello College

Enrolled at Monticello college, a two-year liberal arts college for young women, this year, are Mary McPhee of Hillside drive, Sandra Meitus, Ravine drive and Carolyn Wible, Cedar avenue.

Monticello is now in its 109th year of continuous operation.

Former Pastor Will Occupy Presbyterian Pulpit Sunday

The pulpit of the Highland Park Presbyterian church will be occupied Sunday morning by the Rev. R. Calvin Dobson, D.D., now minister of the First Presbyterian church of St. Louis. Dr. Dobson was the minister of the Highland Park church from 1910 until 1918 and it was during his pastorate that the present church building was erected and dedicated. It is a great privilege for this church to have Dr. Dobson as the guest preacher this Sunday when he will speak upon the theme, "The Challenge of the Years." Dr. Dobson is remembered with affection and gratitude by those who were members of the church during his pastorate.

His visit to Highland Park is to participate in the celebration of the diamond jubilee of this church. It was in June, 1871, that the church was organized and so has just completed 75 years of its life and work.

The Highland Park Presbyterian church is one of those fortunate institutions whose earlier days were so governed by a sound cooperative spirit as to give strong assurances for the future. The movements toward unity in the church today have been all the time anticipated by the experience of this church.

In 1869 a group of men and women from many different religious backgrounds met and formed the Highland Park Religious association.

Two years later this group, feeling the need for a more compact organization and a regular ministry, upon vote decided to become a Presbyterian church. The whole history of this church is reflected in the generous action of that farseeing group. In the first group were 33 people. Steady growth, never spectacular, has brought the church through the years to the place where its membership is 1250 but its ministry is to a much larger number.

Meeting at first in a small room called Central hall in the midst of the village, after three years the congregation moved to the church building on the site of the present edifice. Here the church worshipped until 1912 when the present structure was built and dedicated free of debt. The dedication of the church in 1940 marks a step ahead in the beautifying of the sanctuary, the enrichment of our worship and the consequent deepening and enlarging of our congregational life.

The church numbers among its ministers, Dr. Samuel M. Johnson, later the designer of the Christian flag, and among its respected members and elders Prof. Elisha Gray, whose inventive genius and study were largely responsible for the telephone.

The present building which has been in use for 34 years, was a more than adequate structure, splendidly conceived when it was erected, but with the growth of the church and the church school, it has become increasingly inadequate. This diamond jubilee occasion is being used to secure funds to arrange for a splendid addition to the present plant when building conditions permit.

Faced by the challenge of life in the world today, and undergirded and sustained with faith in the adequacy of the Christian gospel to meet that need, the present generation in the Highland Park Presbyterian church have a great opportunity to emulate the faith, the foresight and the devotion of the founders of this church.

It will be 15 years on Dec. 21 since the Rev. Louis W. Sherwin, D.D., was installed as the pastor of this church.

Junior Welfare Group To Meet on Monday

Infant Welfare members of the junior group of the Highland Park-Ravinia center will attend their final meeting of the year on Monday, Nov. 25, at the home of Mrs. Albert Y. Bingham, 1237 Judson avenue.

The report of the nominating committee will be given by Mrs. Ralph Trieschmann, chairman. Other members of her committee are: Mrs. Paul Jester, Mrs. Earl Wallis, Mrs. Robert Heck and Mrs. George W. Ross, Jr.

Assistant hostesses in the morning will be Mrs. George Hadlock and Mrs. Gustavus Babson; in the afternoon, Mrs. Edward Loevenhart and Mrs. C. W. Smith.

Religious Celebrity to Visit Highland Park

Mrs. Ma Sunday, widow of the late Billy Sunday, world famous evangelist, is scheduled to visit Highland Park, next Sunday, Nov. 24. She is listed to speak at the First United Evangelical church, Laurel and Green Bay, at their regular evening service at 7:45. Mrs. Sunday will come from her home at Winona Lake, Ind., where she assists in the work of the noted Winona Lake Bible conference. Although she is in demand as a speaker in various parts of the country, she is able to take only a limited number of engagements. She will be a guest at the home of Mrs. Arnold Peterson of Broadview avenue, and then will visit her sister in Chicago on the following day.
