Notes About Some Highland Parkers

If you don't mind, folks, we'd like to go through our "Column Subjects" file this week and kind of clean it out. It's inventory time anyway, so our action is timely at any rate.

Let's see . . . the first note says:

"Write a bit about Percy Prior and his photo work. Okay.

Percy Prior, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Prior, 1026 Wade St., now vacationing in Florida, did some rush photographic work for our company the other day and the results were splendid.

Because it's one of our policies in this space to pass along praise where it's due, here's a "thanks" to Percy.

And, by the way, should you folks want some excellent photo work done, might we recommend that you call Percy, H. P. 3199.

Percy, an ex-sergeant, has been in his own business for about one year.

He deserves credit for starting out on his own.

SHORELINE . . .

Bill Cope, good-looking fellow PRESS worker, showed us a Shoreline the other day, the first since high school graduation.

Now the Shoreline, H. P. H. S.'s weekly, was an anxiously-awaited publication when the writer was a teen-ager.

The sheet always had the latest school news and some right interesting gossip about our friends.

Well, we studied the Atomic Age Shoreline that Bill gave us and we found it just as readable as those we read in the olden days.

So we'd like to send a written slap-on-the-back to editors Charles Gillette, Norene Harrison, Burt Wells, Jim P. . . . Henry X. Arenberg, Naomi Madson and Jo Anne Meyer.

You're doing well, Teen-Agers.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND . . .

A friend of ours, a highly respected minister whose name we'll withhold, suffered a tragic experience recently, and we can't understand why.

This gentleman is kind, considerate, beloved by all who know him. He has dedicated his life to doing good and helping others.

Twenty years ago he came to Chicago and was given a small church, badly run down and desperately in need of an inspiring leader.

He was the man needed to guide that church to great heights.

WORKED DAY AND NIGHT . . .

He worked hard, from early in the morning until midnight most every day. Gradually his congregation grew. He was in demand for christenings and his beautiful church made an ideal setting for a memorable wedding.

Highland Parkers?

ATTENTION, NEW HIGHLAND PARKERS . . .

Newcomers are joining the ranks of Highland Parkers more and more nowadays, and we're told that these folks aren't finding it too easy to become acquainted with us old-timers.

This column surely extends its greetings to all of you. We'll be happy to meet you and introduce you to some of our friends, if you wish.

And, incidentally, if you're church-goers, and we assume you are, please get to know our 11 churches in town. We know you'll be welcomed at the church of your choice.

You see, it's the custom of Highland Parkers to go to church on Sunday. After all, we figure it's the least we can do to pay our tremendous debt to Him.

And we kinda think that He should have priority on our time. Our Sunday time, by all means.

PARTING THOUGHT . . .

There is always good in people. Why not look for that good?

National Boat Show Again at Navy Pier

Chicago's long-established National Boat show will return to Navy Pier Feb. 1 to Feb. 9, inclusive, it was announced today by all types of pleasure craft and accessories in the show's history, will be on display.

Hubbard Erickson, founder and manager of the exposition.

More than 100 exhibitors have already been allotted space, he said. The Chicago boat show has been an annual event since 1929, except for three war years. The war which limited this area's thousands of fresh water sailors in their supply of boats and equipment, will bring them this season its war-born developments in boats, marine engines and nautical equipment.
