BACK HOME

The W. P. Heins of Bronson lane have returned home from a month's vacation on the west coast. Their trip was shortened by the return of their son, Don, from overseas duty.

They visited Boulder dam, the Grand Canyon, and spent New Year's Day in Los Angeles. They also spent some time at Carmel, the Red Wood forest, and San Francisco. In Santa Monica they phoned their daughter, Mrs. Jack Clavey of Clavey-lane, as their son, who had returned to Fort Sheridan from Germany, was driving in her driveway. Needless to say, they hastily returned, flying from Phoenix.

Don, who will receive his discharge from the service on the 20th of the month, has been in the army for 18 months, a little over a year, in Europe.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Fred Moon and her daughter, Miss Marion, of Homewood avenue, returned from a few days visit with Mrs. Moon's sister and brother-in-law, the Henry Christmans of New York City. They made the trip especially to be present at Town Hall, New York, on Sunday evening, when Mrs. Moon's nephew, Arthur Christman, made his debut as a conductor of a symphony orchestra.

After a month's vacation at Pompano, Fla., the E. James Fucik's of S. Deere Park drive returned home this week.

The Fred Tuckers of Oakwood avenue returned home on Sunday from a three weeks conducted tour of the west. While in Los Angeles, they visited with their grandson, Richard Markell, and their
