A VALENTINE DAY WEDDING

Miss Helen Eitel will be a valentine bride tomorrow when she and Alexander Winkler Bealer III, are united in marriage at 4:30 o'clock at St. Chrysostom's church, Chicago. Miss Eitel is the daughter of the Edmund H. Eitels, formerly of Highland Park and now residing at E. Division street, Chicago. Mr. Bealer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bealer Jr. of Atlanta, Ga.

The bride will wear her mother's ivory satin wedding gown with an overdress of embroidered Brussels lace, which was also worn by her sister when she became Mrs. Theodore Bersbach. The veil she will wear has been loaned for the occasion by Mrs. C. Colton Daughday of Winnetka.

Attendants for Miss Eitel will be her sisters, Mrs. Bersbach and Miss Jane Eitel.

Leslie Thompson of Tulsa, Oklahoma, will serve Mr. Bealer as best man, and the bride's brother, Herbert Eitel, and Robert Mitchell of Atlanta, who like the bridegroom, is engaged in business in Chicago, will usher.

The bridegroom's parents, his sister, Mrs. Ewing Sloan Humphrey, and his ten year old brother, Walter, arrived recently for the wedding. The Bealers will give the bridal dinner tonight at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Following the wedding, a reception will be held in the apartment of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Talbot, also of Division street, Chicago.

After their wedding trip to Canada, Mr. Bealer and his bride will reside in the Junior Roger Vail's Ravinia apartment while they are away.
