Rabbi Weinstein Guest Speaker at Temple

This Friday evening at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Rabbi Charles E. Shulman will exchange pulpits with Rabbi Jacob J. Weinstein of K. A. M. temple, Chicago. The guest speaker is well known in progressive circles throughout the country as a keen analyst of social trends. He is vice-president of religious associates of P. A. C. and a contributing editor of the National Jewish Monthly, Jewish Frontier and Reconstructionist. His sermon will be of interest to all. "Prophets in Modern Dress" promises to be a stimulating discussion on the themes of our times. Regular services are held at the temple on Fridays at 8:15 p.m. All visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Sisterhoods Sponsor "Institute on Judaism" For Church Women

An institute on Judaism for Christian church women, designed to interpret Judaism to non-Jews, will be held Tuesday, March 18, at Temple Shalom, 3489 Lake Shore drive, under the auspices of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods in cooperation with the Council of Church Women of Greater Chicago.

At a luncheon session, presided over by Mrs. Milton J. Klee, of Highland Park, chairman of Inter-faith activities for the Illinois State Federation of Temple Sisterhoods (a state unit of the National organization), an address will be delivered by Rev. Ray Freeman Jenney, president of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago. Another speaker will be Mrs. Howard S. Bechtolt, president of the Council of Church Women of Greater Chicago. The opening prayer will be delivered by Mrs. James A. Bray, first vice president of the Council of Church Women of Greater Chicago; the closing prayer will be delivered by Mrs. E. Howard Marshall, second vice president.

The institute will open at 10:30 am, and be concluded, following the luncheon, about 3 pm.

ARTHUR JACOBS IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Arthur Jacobs, 56, was found dead on Tuesday in his home at 2287 Pierce road. His failure to keep an appointment with his wife in the downtown loop alarmed her, and caused her to telephone a neighbor, who investigated.

An architect, with offices at 160 N. La Salle street, Chicago, he had been despondent for some time because of ill health and inability to work.

Besides his widow, Hortense, he is survived by two sons, Lawrence and Arthur, college students. Arrangements for the funeral rites have not been completed at this time.
