ROCKWELL-SEYFARTH WEDDING SATURDAY

On Saturday, May 24, Miss Paisley Ann Rockwell, daughter of the Theodore G. Rockwells of Winnetka, will become the bride of John Martin Seyfarth, son of Robert E. Seyfarth of S. Sheridan road, in the children's chapel of the Winnetka Congregational church at 4:30.

Miss Rockwell has chosen Miss Margaret Wohlgenuth of Indianapolis, Ind., as maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Frances Badger of Wilmette and Miss Gretchen Ahlswede of New York City.

Robert Seyfarth will serve his son as best man, and the ushers will be Hugh Seyfarth, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Rockwell, brother of the bride, James Garnett and Amory O. Moore.

Miss Rockwell was graduated from Wells college and served with the American Red Cross in both Africa and Europe during the war. Mr. Seyfarth attended Telurid college in California and is a graduate of Northwestern university.

ON TRIP EAST

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Olmsted Jr. and daughter, Suzanne, of 2367 Pierce road left this week to motor east to visit their daughter and sister, Mary, who is a student at Skidmore college in Syracuse, N. Y. Before returning home they plan to visit many interesting places in the east. They will be gone about two weeks.

Mary will not accompany her parents and sister home as she plans to visit at the home of her room-mate, Jane Stotz of Pittsburgh, Pa., until the middle of June.

MORRIS-WOOD NUPTIALS JUNE 7

St. Andrews Episcopal church in Madison, Wis., will be the scene of Miss Jane Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William West Morris of Madison, and Sydney Makepiece Wood Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Lake Bluff, on Saturday, June 7, at 4 pm. The Rev. E. P. Sabin will hear the exchange of nuptial vows. Her father will give her in marriage.

Miss Mary Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney D. Morris of 268 Laurel avenue, at whose home the bride-to-be resides, has been chosen to attend her cousin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be the Misses Virginia Bordener of Madison and Hazel Ann Drake of Parkersburg, W. Va.

Little Ann Marcy Lautzenheizer, daughter of the former Elizabeth Morris, of Chicago, will act as flower girl. Junior bridesmaids will be Susan Jordan and Nancy Nickels of Madison.

Best man will be Robert Duenning of Champaign, and the ushers will be Edward Mawman and Thomas Shaughnessy of Lake Bluff.

A reception at St. Andrews Guild church will follow the ceremony.

Mr. Wood and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Door county, Wis. They will reside in Lake Bluff until fall when they will go to Champaign to live, as the bridegroom has two years more at the University of Illinois.

BACK HOME

After a six weeks trip aboard a ship of the Royal Netherlands line, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman D. Clough and young sons, Bruce and Stuart, of 2348 Lakeside place, recently returned home. Leaving from Mobile, they sailed to Curaçao and Aruba in the Netherlands West Indies. Other ports where they stopped for four days each time, were La Guaira, Caracas, Puerto Cabello and Maracaibo, all Venezuelan ports. Twice they visited Trinidad in the British West Indies. On their return they came down the Surinam river to Paramaribo, and then on to New Orleans.

Recently home from a vacation at Hobe Sound, Fla., where they have a home are the Ralph Clearys, their son, John, and daughter, Charlotte, of 428 N. Sheridan road. Guests of theirs were Mr. Cleary's brother-in-law and sister, the Edw. Roaches and daughter, Patsy, of Chicago, former-Highland Parkers. The Roaches have remained in Florida for a few more weeks.

After a year's absence from Highland Park, Mrs. Louis N. Berube has returned. She is residing with her son-in-law and daughter, the Lloyd Eberts of 114 Michigan avenue. Mrs. Berube had been with her daughters, Mrs. C.G. Duffy of San Diego, and Mrs. A. H. Frederickson of Alhambra, Calif.

Back from a trip to the Ozarks is Miss Ethel Larson. She accompanied Mrs. Harvey Reber to the Rebers' Missouri home. The Rebers reside at 391 North avenue.

Miss Larson, for many years an employee of the First National bank of Highland Park, is now with the new Glencoe bank.

FRANCES BERUBE A BRIDE

Gowned in white net over taffeta, and carrying a bouquet of white roses and gardenias, Miss Frances Jean Berube, daughter of Francis Berube and Mrs. Carl Gerstner, became the bride of Ernest Giarelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Faust Giarelli of Highwood, at St. James church, on Saturday, May 17, at 10:30. Rev. James Gleeson read the service. The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her fingertip veil hung from a crown of seed pearls.

The maid of honor, Miss Velma Cioni, wore an aqua lace gown and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Rosemary Fallor, also in aqua lace, carried yellow roses. Richard Baldrini served as best man, and Peter Costello ushered. The bride's mother wore a light gray suit, and her accessories were pink and blue. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was in blue and her corsage, too, was of gardenias.

Mrs. Virginia Garino, violinist, directed a quartette consisting of Mrs. Lloyd Ebert, Mrs. John Witten, Anthony Biagi and Enea Picchietti, which sang. Mr. Picchietti, assisted by the choir, sang "Panus Angelicus." Mr. Biagi sang the solo part of "Ave Maria," and Mrs. Ebert and Mrs. Witten sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" as the bride brought her bouquet to the Blessed Virgin's altar. Mrs. Edith Ehrens was organist.

A dinner for 125 followed the ceremony. After a honeymoon in the Ozarks the young couple will reside in Highland Park.

RELEASED FROM SERVICE

After twenty months of army duty, Donn Heinrichs, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinrichs, of 595 W. Park avenue, received his release on April 14, at Fort Lewis, Wash. A sergeant, he was stationed at Fort Lewis most of that time. He arrived home a week ago. Donn plans to return to college in the fall. Prior to his army service he attended Michigan college of mining technology.

After a honeymoon in the Ozarks the young couple will reside in Highland Park.

GLADER WICKLANDER NUPTIALS

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Margot Hartman Glader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hartman, of 510 Ravine Manor road, and Robert Eugene Wicklander, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Radonsky of 418 Glencoe avenue, on May 17, at Bethany church. The Rev. Lester Laubenstein read the service.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. John Kelleher (Betty Hartman). Edward Moroney served as best man.

GARDEN PARTY JUNE 29

On June 29, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. O'Reilly will introduce their daughter, Jeanne Marie, to their friends at a garden party at their home at 633 N. St. Johns avenue. Miss O'Reilly, who is completing her first year at Rosemont, will bring a few of her college classmates home at the close of school, to be her assistants, among them her roommate, Miss Sheila McDonnell (sister of Mrs. Henry Ford), Miss Patricia Hogan and Miss Virginia Vaughn, all of New York City. Also assisting will be her sister, Rosemary Anne, Miss Virginia Vanderbie, and Miss Sally Howell. Before coming to Highland Park, the Rosemont students will attend a house party which Miss McDonnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. McDonnell, will give at their summer home in Southampton.
