

Socials

By ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

DATE-HAWES NUPTIALS SATURDAY

The Highland Park Presbyterian church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Beverly Date, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Date of Rice street, and William Davidson Hawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hawes of Briarhill road, Deerfield, on Saturday, June 14. The ceremony will be performed by the grandfather of the bridegroom-to-be, Dr. William J. Davidson of Deerfield, assisted by the pastor, Dr. Louis W. Sherwin.

Mrs. Hawes launched the party season for Miss Date at a tea given on May 3. Others who have entertained for the bride-to-be are Mrs. Earl Gsell, Mrs. Stanley Strong, Mrs. Earl Wallis and daughter, Betty, all of Highland Park; Mrs. Richard Welch of Deerfield, Mrs. Albert Tippens and daughter, Constance, of Hubbard Woods, Mrs. Donald Kline, Mrs. Harold Hawes, Mrs. Bradley P. Williams and daughter, Priscilla, and Mrs. William Roberts of Evanston, Miss Chorale Cook of Winnetka, and Mrs. John Turner of Glencoe.

The bachelor dinner will be given tonight (Thursday). William Pomper and John Wagner, both of Ravinia, will be co-hosts.

Both Miss Date and her fiancé are graduates of Highland Park high school. She bride-to-be attended Denison university, Granville, O., and received degrees from Northwestern university and Katherine Gibbs school. Mr. Hawes is completing a year of graduate work this month in the field of accounting at Northwestern university and will be employed by a Chicago accounting firm, starting in July. He holds a degree in business administration from the University of Michigan. Last August he returned home a 1st lieutenant after 3½ years in the army, two years of that time duty in the Pacific.

ARRIVED IN SHANGHAI

A cable from Shanghai, China, notified the Charles B. Crains of Dell place that their daughter, Gloria, had arrived there, and that arrangements are being made for her marriage to Edwin J. Barthen, son of the G. H. Barthen of Bronxville, N. Y.

Miss Crain left San Francisco June 3, aboard a pan-American clipper. She and another girl were the only passengers besides air line officials, as this was a maiden voyage, the first of regular trips direct to Shanghai since before the war. They took off amid decorations of Chinese flags and lanterns, and were similarly greeted at stopovers of Honolulu, Okinawa, Wake, Midway and Guam.

TO BE SEEN IN NEWSREELS

Highland Park and Highwood friends of Miss Marie Lawler, well known stage and radio entertainer, will see her shortly in the news reels, in "The Train of Tomorrow." Pictures of her were taken in Lansing, Mich., last Friday by five different news reel companies, on the observation and dining cars.

Miss Lawler, daughter of Mrs. Grace Lawther of 128 Pleasant avenue, Highwood, had just returned to Chicago from a singing engagement in French Lick, Ind., for two weeks before going to Lansing.

BRIARGATE COMMUNITY CLUB DINNER

The Briargate Community club held their final meeting of the year at a dinner on Tuesday evening at the Briargate Country club. New officers for the coming year were elected. Henry Stein is the retiring president of the group.

MISS JANE MORRIS A BRIDE

Gowned in white lace with a fingertip veil which hung from a satin crown, Miss Jane Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William West Morris, became the bride of Sydney Makepiece Wood, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Lake Bluff, in St. Andrews Episcopal church, Madison, Wis., last Saturday. Rev. E. P. Habin performed the ceremony. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Mary Morris, daughter of the Sidney D. Morris of 268 Laurel avenue, at whose home the Summer clothing; 8-pc. mahog. dining rm. set (round table); antiques, etc.

Highland Park Trading Post
47 South St. Johns Avenue
H. P. 2744

bride resided, was her cousin's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Virginia Bordner of Madison and Hazel Ann Drake of Parkersburg, W. Va. Junior bridesmaids were Susan Jordan and Nancy Nickels of Madison. Attendants were all gowned in embossed nylon in pastel shades. Little Ann Marcy Lautzenheiser, of Chicago, daughter of the former Elizabeth Morris, acted as flower girl.

Robert Duensing of Champaign served as best man, and the ushers were Edward Mawman and Thomas Shaughnessy of Lake Bluff.

A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. Wood and his bride left for a wedding trip to Door county, Wis. In September they will reside in Champaign, where Mr. Wood has two more years at the University of Illinois.

VISITING HERE

Here one a month's visit from their home in Santa Monica, Cal., are Col. and Mrs. Ralph H. Woolsey. A retired army officer, Col. Woolsey was at one time stationed at Fort Sheridan. They are dividing their time here with their son and his wife, the junior R. H. Woolseys of Walnut street, and relatives and friends in Waukegan, Chicago and Kockford.

Mrs. Alva King, of Kew Gardens Long Island, N. Y., mother of Mrs. Woolsey Jr., is expected this week to spend two weeks with her son-in-law and daughter.

BACK HOME

After a six weeks' vacation in Miami, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slayback of S. Sheridan road, have returned home.

Back from a winter spent in Florida, are Mrs. Leslie Delhaye and daughter, Joan, of S. St. Johns avenue and Mr. and Mrs. George Delhaye. Mrs. Leslie Delhaye and Joan have been home for almost a month. They accompanied the George Delhays as far as Cincinnati. They went on to Cleveland for a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Spencers (Phyllis Delhaye) before returning to Highland Park.

While in Florida, Joan graduated from the Aiken Outdoor school in St. Petersburg, Fla.

LEAVING SOON FOR ALASKA

Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Friedman and son, Jim, of Glenview avenue, are planning a visit this summer with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jack Flax (Sally Friedman) of Anchorage, Alaska.

MOCOGNI-VANNI WEDDING

On Saturday, June 7, Miss Angelina Mocogni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giosue Mocogni of Oak street, Highwood, and Hannival Vanni, son of Sam Vanni, were united in marriage at 9:30 am at St. James church, the Rev. Arthur Douaire reading the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with lace insertions. Her fingertip veil was of french imported lace and hung from a beaded crown. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Marjorie Pfister, talented young pianist, class of 1947. She was featured in the high school spring concert, rendering Mendelssohn's "Concerto No. 1 in G Minor."

Miss Rita Vanni, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a pink dress made with a lace bodice and full voile skirt. She wore a matching blusher veil and carried blue carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Mocogni, sister of the bride, Miss Marietta Mocogni, cousin, and Miss Norma Bernardi of Chicago, wore blue dresses and matching veils like those of the maid of honor. Their bouquets were of pink carnations.

Louis Mocogni, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Angelo Vanni, brother of the bridegroom, Arthus Guerri, cousin, and Joseph Mocogni, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was in gray crepe and her corsage was of pink roses.

Maria Santi and Anthony Biagi sang, accompanied at the organ by Miss Marie Bernardi of Chicago, cousin of the bride.

A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The bridal party and immediate families attended. Later 40 relatives and friends attended at dinner at the Masonic temple. Father Sam Bartolai of Italy, who is spending a month at the home of his brother, Domenic Bartolai of North avenue, was a guest at the dinner. He is a friend of the bride's father. In the evening about 500 attended a reception at the Masonic temple.

VISITED HERE

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Tjaden of W. Park avenue drove their nephew, Edward Ficken, to his home in Peoria. Edward visited for a week with the Tjadens following his recent release from the navy. The Tjadens remained a long enough to visit with Edward's mother, Mr. Tjaden's sister, who is ill in the hospital.

OFF TO CAMP

Following a year at Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., Henry Date, son of the Paul Dates of Rice St., arrived home last Friday. After his sister's wedding on Saturday, at which he will be an attendant, he will leave for Camp Minewanco, Shelby, Mich., where he will be a counsellor of younger boys this summer, at the American Youth Foundation camp.

His sister, Marilyn, who will attend the girls' camp there, will leave the following week.

RELEASED FROM SERVICE

Jerry Sheahan, a former corporal in the army air force, recently received his release from the service at Fort Richardson, Alaska. He served for a year and a half, most of that time in Alaska. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sheahan of 675 Central.

ATTEND GRADUATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Einbecker of Park avenue attended the graduation exercises at the University of Illinois on June 8. Their daughter, Kathryn, was a member of this year's graduation class from the school of business management.

Mr. Einbecker has returned home, but Mrs. Einbecker and Kathryn have remained for a visit with Mrs. Einbecker's parents, who reside in Champaign.

On Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Riggs and daughter, Marcia, left for Massachusetts to attend the graduation of their daughter and sister, Nancy, from Miss Hall's School for Girls.

HAYES-DEVER MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Hayes of Carmen avenue, Chicago, announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty, to William H. Dever, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dever of Waukegan avenue, on May 3 at Our Lady of Lourdes church, Chicago at 11 am at nuptial high mass.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Clarence Knigge of Highland Park and the bridesmaids were Miss Carol Williams of Chicago and Miss Dorothy Dever, sister of the bridegroom.

Frank Mahen of Highland Park was best man and ushers were Bruno De Bartolo of Highwood and John McClernan of Highland Park.

Seventy guests attended a wedding breakfast at the Edgewater Beach hotel, Chicago, following the service, and open house was held in the evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a week's honeymoon in Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Dever are now at home at 1110 Prairie avenue, Highland Park.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Bruce Anderson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Chester Anderson of High street, Highwood, was host at a party recently in honor of his 5th birthday. Twenty of his little friends were present.

CLUB MEETING

The "500" club met Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Larson of S. St. Johns avenue. The Fred Tuckers of Oakwood avenue will be hosts to the group on June 21.

GRADUATION DINNER-DANCE

The annual dinner-dance at the Ravinia school was held last Thursday evening for the graduation class.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

New Highland Parkers are the Cory Castertons of 625 S. St. Johns avenue. They formerly resided in Waukegan. Mr. Casterton is owner of the Highland Park and Highwood newspaper agency. They are the parents of a son, Michael, 4½, and a daughter, June, 2.

Recently of England, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jessop are new residents of 522 N. Linden avenue. They arrived in this country from Europe in December. Mr. Jessop is director of the U. S. Sanitary Specialties Corp., Chicago.

Formerly of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Peachin and young sons, David, 6½, and Paul, 4, are the new residents of 2318 Lakeside place. Mr. Peachin is with Sher and Peachin, hardware wholesalers, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Massin, formerly of Glencoe, are now residing at 526 Walnut street. Mr. Massin is a Glencoe postman and Mrs. Massin is a nurse.

Former Highland Parkers, who spent the war years in Chicago, while their sons were in service, the H. L. Canmanns have returned to their home at 1845 Kincaid St. Mr. Canmann is president of the Chicago Guarantee Survey Co. Their sons, all released from the service, reside with their parents. They are graduates of Ravinia grammar school and Highland Park high school. Mark, a pediatrician, has opened an office in Highland Park. David is a lawyer in Chicago, and Harry Jr. is an engineer connected with his father's company.

Newcomers to Highland Park are Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coash of 2318 Indian Tree drive. Formerly of Clayton, Mo., they are the parents of two sons, Carl Jr., 15, and Tommy, 11. Mr. Coash is with the McGraw Hill Publishing Co., Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buhai are new Highland Parkers residing at 1410 Marion avenue. Mr. Buhai, originally from Winnetka, has recently received his release from the navy after 3½ years service, stationed at Washington, D.C. Mrs. Buhai is from Detroit. Mr. Buhai is connected with the Buhai Publishing Co., Chicago.

TO CAMP MANITO-WISH

On Monday, Chan Hatcher, son of the junior Charles C. Hatcher of Ridgelee road, and John Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip N. Gould of 1510 Westview road, will leave for a 3½ weeks stay at Camp Manito-Wish, at Boulder lake, Boulder Junction, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher plan to go to Boulder Junction at the end of their son's camp session and take him along with them to Monocqua, Wis., for a vacation.

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Burke Jr. (Patricia Flynn) of S. Ridge road became the parents of a son June 5 at the Highland Park hospital. The little boy has a sister, Patricia Michele, 2½.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Flynn of Briar lane and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burke of Buffalo, N. Y.

A third daughter, Dolores Mae, (Continued on page 6)

PORTRAITS of Distinction

SEVERI

571 Central Ave.
Tel. H.P. 5128

Mr. Merchant!

MEET THE PEOPLE WHO ARE MOVING INTO HIGHLAND PARK

JOIN

- An organization dedicated to welcoming Newcomers to the community.
- Learn how you, too, can participate with the Community Building Organization serving your city.

For Complete Information, write or telephone

The Welcomers

1518 FOREST AVENUE, WILMETTE, ILLINOIS
PHONE WILMETTE 2598
MRS. CARRIE BAKER BUCK, President at camp...

-or in your own back yard

Wear those ever-popular, tough blue jeans... the pants that can really stand the gaff. Remember, too—that at most camps, blue jeans are standard equipment.

TUFFIES

OUT OF THE WEST

Blue Denims For Boys

Made of tough Sanforized LANE Blue Denim, copper riveted, double-stitched with heavy orange thread, and inside swinging pockets.

IN SIZES 1 to 22
20" to 32" Waist

$2.09

FELL'S

Open Monday nights, 7 to 9

COWBOY PANTS