ARCHER-FIELDS NUPTIALS

In the presence of only the immediate families, Miss Margaret Ann Archer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis Archer of 193 Roger Williams avenue, became the bride of William Stanley Fields, son of Nathaniel H. Fields of Pomona, Calif., on Saturday, June 28, at Trinity church chapel. The Rev. Robert Clinkman, pastor of St. Francis in the Field, Harrods Creek, Ky., performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in an ivory satin gown, made with a long train. Her Brussels lace veil hung from a Juliette cap. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white gladioli.

Only attendant of the bride was bridegroom's young niece, Barbara Ruehle. She wore a white brocaded satin dress and a crown of white flowers in her hair. She carried a basket of white flowers. Barbara's little brother, William, acted as ring bearer. They are the children of the Gene Ruehles of Cleveland, O. Mr. Ruehle served his brother-in-law as best man.

The bride's mother chose a gray dress complemented by a corsage of white tubera begonias. The bridegroom's mother was in a dress of melon shade and her corsage was like that of Mrs. Archer.

Miss Archer is a graduate of Roycemore and attended Scripps college in Claremont, Calif. Mr. Fields attended Case School of Applied Science at Cleveland, O., and the University of Southern California. He served for two years during the war.

A reception at the Skokie Country club followed the ceremony. About 225 guests attended. Mr. Fields and his bride will reside in Claremont, Calif.

JENSEN-McALLISTER WEDDING

Christ Church, Winnetka, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Gloria Betty Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Jensen of 746 Braeside road, and Herbert S. McAllister, son of Mrs. Sidney McAllister of the Moraine hotel, and the late Mr. McAllister. The McAllisters formerly resided at S. Deere Park drive. Dr. Gerhardt read the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore her sister's wedding gown of ivory satin made with a train. Her chantly lace veil which was fingertip length, also was a part of the wedding ensemble of her sister, Mrs. Richard T. Lochry of Rogers Park. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and falcans.

Mrs. Lochry attended as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Margaret Emmert and Martha McGowan, and Mrs. Peter Hawxhurst, all former classmates at Braeside school and Highland Park high school. Miss Emmert also attended Northwestern and the University of Missouri with Miss Jensen. Miss Jensen also attended the Katherine Gibbs school. Attendants were dressed alike in pale yellow, except that the dress of the matron of honor was made with a train. The blue delphiniums she carried and the garland of the same flowers in her hair, were a shade deeper than the dark blue ones carried by the bridesmaids. They, too, wore garlands of the same flowers in their hair, and short veils of the same shade of blue.

The bride's mother was in coral, and her corsage was of brown orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore blue, and her corsage was of magenta colored orchids.

Best man was Peter Hawxhurst, and the ushers were Syllas Fralich, Richard T. Lochry and Lee Simpson.
