GILBERT PANTLE TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, July 5, at 4 pm, in a Chicago Presbyterian church, Miss Gloria Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. Edith Reynolds of Chicago, and Gilbert W. Pantle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pantle of Deerfield road, were united in marriage, the Rev. Cox reading the service.

The bride wore an eggshell linen suit with matching hat. Her gloves and accessories were navy blue. She wore a corsage of yellow rose buds and stephanotis.

Miss Shirley Reynolds, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her cocoa brown suit was complemented by a white hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Jack Rettig of Highwood served as best man.

The bride's mother wore a pink suit with a corsage of gardenias, and Mrs. Pantle chose a dress of coral with white accessories for her son's wedding. Her corsage also was of gardenias.

Mrs. Pantle, of Glencoe, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a blue flowered dress, and her corsage too was of gardenias.

Mr. Pantle, who served for four years in the army, spent 1½ years of that time in the European theater.

A buffet dinner for the immediate families and a few close friends at the home of the bride's mother, followed the ceremony.

When Mr. Pantle and his bride return from a Wisconsin honeymoon, they will reside at 1045 Deerfield road.
