As Summer Wanes

This was a short, interesting summer...

It was a summer that saw a lanky flier take off from Chicago, only to hurry back—cracking the world's record on his return trip.

It was a summer of extremely cold weather... and hot; a summer of investigations; a time when women did too much talking about hemlines when they should have been thinking how they could better raise their children; a time when there was plenty of chatter about prices going down while they stayed up and up.

Yes, and it was a summer when there was too much glib talk about the atom bomb... and a future war.

And it was a period, too, when Russia said as many "No's" as she could...

It was a summer, too, like all others when you left a lot of things undone which you should have done. And, if you're like this writer, you didn't do the things you wanted to do...

EXMOOR...

For example, we wish we had taken more time off to enjoy Exmoor's cool and delightful pool. And the tennis courts, too.

And we wanted to learn to play golf this summer. But, we didn't. Too busy.

And we wanted to take a trip. By car, preferably. We don't like long train rides—reminds us too much of the Army troop train days.

And everytime we've tried to take an airliner anywhere, the weather's been bad... and we've ended up on a slow Pullman.

WANTED TO READ...

And we wanted to read so many books during June, July and August.

We've just scanned Gunther's "Inside U.S.A." and Ernie Pyle's "Home Country."

We'd like to spend many hours with Pyle as he roams the States—a top assignment for a writer.

We like the way Pyle wrote—simply, humorously, colorfully...

We wish we could have spent more time with friends up and down the North Shore.

Y.W.C.A. Nursery School Opens September 8th

Mrs. Mary Ann MacFadden, executive director of the Y.W.C.A. in Highland Park, has announced that the Nursery School will open this year on September 8th. Mrs. Ellen Jane Floriani, who has carried on the school at the Y.W.C.A. for six years, will again be in charge. She is a graduate of the Pestalozzi-Froebel College, which has long been famous in the field of child education. Pestalozzi and Froebel, the Swiss educators who originated the methods used by the college, were among the first to recognize the importance of training the young child through play. In fact it was Froebel who opened the first "Garden of Children", or Kindergarten, in a Swiss village in 1837.

Anyone interested in registering a child for Nursery School, which is conducted in the Y.W.C.A. building at 374 Laurel avenue, may call the Y, Highland Park 675, any time between nine and five. As the registration is limited in order to give full opportunity for proper supervision of each child, parents are urged to make reservations promptly.

Chinese Doctors Expected Soon At Lake County Sanitarium

Dr. Peter T. Kuo and Dr. Victor Tyau, graduates of the Pennsylvania Medical School of St. John's University in Shanghai, plan to come to Lake County Sanitarium as resident physicians in the near future.

Dr. Kuo is now studying internal medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. Before coming to the United States he studied cardiology at Rockefeller Hospital in Peking and served on the teaching staff of St. Luke's Hospital in Shanghai.

Dr. Tyau is now a resident physician at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Shanghai. Two other members of his family are doctors and graduates of the University of Pennsylvania. His brother is head of the TB service at St. Elizabeth's and his father is professor of Tropical Medicine at the medical school in Shanghai.

It is still uncertain when the doctors will arrive. Dr. Tyau plans to leave China in August, but may be delayed by difficulties in arranging for passports. Dr. Kuo will probably begin work here in August or September.

In the spring a young man's fancy but a young woman's fancier.

Mr. Y: Doctor, my son's got the measles, and he caught them from kissing the maid.

Dr. Z: Young people do some foolish things, don't they?

Mr. Y: But, Doctor, I've been kissing the maid myself!

Dr. Z: Too bad.

Mr. Y: And what's more, I kissed my wife.

Dr. Z: Oh my gosh, now we'll all have it!
