Young Man About Town

Pleasant Mary A. Egan, likeable librarian, cooperating fully with the Friends of the Highland Park Public Library, tells this column that if Highland Parkers want to give books to the library, they're surely welcome to. Miss Egan suggests the following:

The Brazilians by Tavares de Sa. Pleasure of Peacock by Peacock. The American Farmer by Fryer. Psychology of Rumor by Allport. Illustrators of Children's Books by Mahony. Complete Poetical Works by Longfellow. Dahlias, What to Know About Them by Riley. Pilgrims, 4 volumes, by Richardson. Forsyte Saga by Galsworthy. Forty Illustrators by Watson.

STRIKING WINDOW
Isn't that a good-looking window display at Lucile Hilborn's nice dress shop, 18 N. Sheridan Rd?

Yep, merchants are making our town more attractive every day. ARE THEY ALLOWED? Are slot machines, or "one armed bandits," permitted in Highland Park?

THANKS, FELS
We're a bit late with this, but we surely want to thank Abe, "Red" and Fred Fell for taking such splendid care (Summer Formal Dept.) of newlywed Dick Higgins and this onlooker at a beautiful wedding about three weeks back.

'TIS TRUE
A menu. In a rather bleak eatery in Edgerton, Ohio. "SANDWICHES "On bread, 5c extra."

OVERHEARD
In Chicago. On a crowded bus, nearing the loop. The weather—hot, muggy. First Stranger: "Lot of humidity in the air, isn't there?" Second Stranger: "That ain't humidity, Bud. That's humanity!"

"LOT OF WORK"
"How'll the team be this year?" we asked popular Dave Floyd, H. P.H.S. grid coach. "Can't say yet. Lot of work to do. Think we'll have a good club, though." We'll be cheering, Coach.

SPECIAL COMMUNIQUE
The postal, sent from Mont Tremblant Lodge in Quebec by newlyweds, the Richard D. Higgins, reads: "Special Communique No. 3 to Best Man (Quaint Canadian Division):

"Arrived here late this afternoon—and talk about your 'tweedy' (Betts' word—Ed.) spots. This place is really it. Very brisk out this evening but our knotty pine quarters quite cozy. Everyone here more than friendly—thought you'd like to know. "Best to family and Pat." (Signed) D & B"

WORTH NOTING
"The surest way to be dull is to say it all," so reads a French proverb.

FFRIENDLY, COURTEOUS SERVICE

The writer recently opened an account at Sheahan's Service Station, 27 N. St. Johns Ave. This spic-and-span station features friendly, courteous service. We've yet to go into the station when our windshield hasn't been scrubbed, our oil, tires and battery checked.

If you want good service, fast service, courteous service, we recommend Sheahan's Standard station, directly south of Dick Purnell's Ford garage. Keep up the good work, men! It's a pleasure to buy from you!

WHAT'S WRONG, COLONEL?
Are ye olde eyes deceiving me, or is the Tribune's circulation dropping monthly? Seems to me it used to be 1,040,000. Now it's 1,015,000. How come?

PARTING THOUGHT
Greenbay road is getting to be a high-speedway . . . and we don't like it one bit. It's a miniature Skokie . . . and it's right dangerous, too. Speeders seem to step on it around the most crowded area east of the hospital. Something should be done about this . . .

H. P. High School Player of the Week

Bob Fiore last year's only all-suburban junior has been nominated player of the week. Two pounds heavier this year, he weighs 137.

Bob's favorite sport is football, followed by track. He is also interested in photography of almost all types. The pint-sized guard will start against Argo next Saturday, the 27th. Maintaining a high "C" average in his studies, in spite of his interest in sports, he hopes his football will help in obtaining a scholarship.

Frosh-Soph High School Team Shows Promise

The Frosh-Soph football squad, under the direction of Mr. Grover, has been working hard, and according to the coach, has good possibilities. First game at Argo, September 27. Outstanding players are: Zagnoli, center; Santi, tackle; McKenna, fullback; Coleman, quarterback; Carlson, Duffield and Roscoe, halfbacks. The team is sorely in need of replacements and needs hard work to get in shape. Last year the Frosh-Sophs won 4, lost 2 and tied one, placing third in Suburban League.
