

SOCIALS

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hunt and daughter, Patty, 13, are the new owners of the home at 804 Princeton avenue, where they are residing. Formerly of Topeka, Kansas, Mr. Hunt is executive secretary for the American Society of Anesthesiologists, Chicago.

In their recently completed home at 1357 Broadview avenue, are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Picker, former Chicagoans. Mr. Picker is a salesman for Tabin-Picker company Chicago. There are two children, Bobbie, 3½, and Pamela, 10 months old.

Recently of Chicago, and now living at 1873 Krenn avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Racine and daughters, Jane Ellen, 10, Sally Ann, 7, and Ruth Marilyn, 3. Mr. Racine is sales engineer of Magnaflux, Chicago.

Now living at 868 Lincoln avenue, the home they recently purchased, are Dr. and Mrs. Walter Reich and sons, Ronald, 11, and Lawrence, "Woodgie", 10, and daughter, Susan, 7. The Reichs formerly resided at 3730 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago. Dr. Reich is a Chicago physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chelius and son, Terry, who will be 8 on October 14, are now residing at 1918 Greenwood avenue. Mr. Chelius is a metallurgist at Pfanzstiel's. They formerly lived in Golden, Colorado.

New residents at 635 Vine Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. James McIntyre and 3 month old daughter, Diane Beverly.

While Mr. McIntyre, formerly of Glencoe, was serving overseas during the war, he met his bride in a London music store where each was buying some sheet music, "The Warsaw Concerto". Mrs. McIntyre, a former member of the British W.A.C., is from Scotland. Mr. McIntyre, also originally Scotch, came to Glencoe with his parents at the age of nine. He is now production manager of The Schreiner Bennet Art Studio, Chicago.

HELEN IRENE DOWSE ANTON FRAUENHOFFER WED IN KENOSHA

On Wednesday evening, September 10, at the St. Matthew's Episcopal church, Kenosha, Helen Irene Dowse, daughter of Mrs. John Dowse of Russell, Ill., formerly of Kenosha, exchanged vows with Anton Frauenhoffer, son of the Anton Frauenhoffers of Highland Park.

The bride was gowned in trailing white satin with veil, held in place by beaded cap and temple of flowers. She carried a bouquet of orchid surrounded by white roses and pompons and was given in marriage by her uncle, Richard Dowse of Kenosha. Rev. Kenneth D. Martin read the marriage lines.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Torrence Fossland, of Russell, who was dressed in rose taffeta and carried a cascade of pink roses, mums and glamelias. Another sister, Kay, and Evaughn Humer of Highland Park, as bridesmaids, wore blue taffeta and carried similar bouquets.

Acting as his brother's best man was Harold Frauenhoffer, and the ushers were Byron Dowse, brother of the bride, and Gaylord Wahl of Highland Park.

Barbara Voigt, of Highland Park, flower girl, wore a dress of white nylon with veil, and wreath of pompons, and carried a white colonial bouquet. Terry Fossland, of Russell, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother was gowned in pale blue, with a corsage of white pompons and pink roses, similar to that worn by Mrs. Frauenhoffer, who was dressed in royal blue.

A reception and buffet supper for 200 guests at the Torrence Fossland home followed the ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of University of Wisconsin, is a dietician at Lake Forest hospital. Mr. Frauenhoffer, veteran of World War II, formerly associated with the Public Service company of Highland Park, will continue his studies at Lake Forest college.

The young couple will honeymoon in Wisconsin and make their home in Lake Forest.

Ravinia Woman's Club Announces Program For the Season

Mrs. A. C. Heimerdinger, program chairman of the Ravinia Woman's Club, has submitted an interesting and varied list of lecture topics for the coming year. Meetings are held regularly the second Wednesday of the month at the Ravinia Village House.

Following the opening luncheon on October the eighth, Aloha Baker, recognized as the world's most traveled woman, will present a color saga of the west, "Explorers of the Purple Sage". In November, Mary Hastings Bradley, noted author and lecturer, is scheduled to address the club. "Many a Wilderness" is the topic she has chosen for this lecture. A tea for new members will also be held in November with Mrs. Bowen Stair serving as chairman.

December will bring Mrs. Irwin Burger and Mrs. William Kelly to Ravinia. These two housewives demonstrate with great ingenuity, simple and unusual Christmas decorations for use in the home. Roma Lind, former director of charm and professional modeling schools will discuss "Personality and Happiness" at the January meeting.

In February the Philanthropy Committee under the leadership of Mrs. John Kuiper, will again sponsor a benefit card party. Jeanne Welty, a young monodramatist, will entertain club members in March when she reads "The World and Nellie Bly", a unique one-woman play.

A. A. Suppan, professor of English and philosophy, will speak at the April meeting. His topic will be "What the Great Books Say to Our Age". "Behind the Scenes in Radio" is the subject chosen by Martha Caris for the final luncheon meeting in May. Mrs. Caris, a resident of Highland Park, is heard daily as Martha Crane on Radio Station WLS.

Mrs. Albert J. Bushey is the new president of the Ravinia Woman's Club. Other officers serving with Mrs. Bushey include: Mrs. H. Bowen Stair, first vice president; Mrs. A. R. Schramm, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Leonard, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Spahr, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William C. Wenninger, treasurer.

D.A.R. Plans Benefit Bridge September 23

Final arrangements have been made for the North Shore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution dessert bridge for members and friends on Tuesday, September 23, at Exmoor Country club.

Mrs. Kellogg Patterson, chairman, assisted by a large committee headed by Mesdames Elmer W. Freytag, John C. Wilbor and Jerry C. Leaming, has done everything to make this party a successful social event. Attractive door prizes will be an innovation this year.

This chapter is the oldest in this state and was formed soon after the National society was organized and all through the years has stood for the best in patriotic education, contributed in money and service to community projects and has significant part in the work at Ellis Island. Benefits received from the party this year will be used to further the chapter's philanthropic and patriotic obligations.

Emblem Club Plans Busy Season

Highland Park—Plans for a penny social to be held following the business meeting of the Highland Park Emblem club on Wednesday Oct. 8, at 8 p.m., in the Elks hall were made at last Wednesday's meeting. Twelve new members will be initiated into the lodge at the meeting.

Members are reminded to bring articles for the rummage sale scheduled for Friday, Sept. 26, to the Elk's clubhouse Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24 and 25.

Mrs. Raymond Sheahan, president of the club, presided at this week's meeting, when a gift club was inaugurated. Mrs. Archibald Abercromby was named chairman of the gift club and Mrs. Edward Dostalek co-chairman. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Eric Carlson, president of the Waukegan Emblem club, and Mrs. Kenneth Cornish, assistant marshal of the Waukegan lodge.

Mrs. Sheahan has been named a delegate to the 21st annual convention of the Supreme Emblem club of the United States to be held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass. Sept. 28, 29 and 30. Mrs. Sam Bernardi is an alternate to the convention.

The next social meeting of the Highland Park club will be held Wednesday, Sept. 24, in the Elks clubhouse at 2 p.m.

Infant Welfare Intermediate Group Resumes Meetings

The intermediate Group of Infant Welfare will have their first meeting since June at the home of Mrs. Robert S. Cushman, 549 Kimball, on Monday September 22.

Mrs. Ralph Archer, luncheon chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames J. T. Griffith, George Hadlock and Arlen J. Wilson.

Mrs. John B. Martineau, president, discussed plans for the coming year at a meeting of the Board members in her home Tuesday morning. Mrs. Martineau said she expected full attendance at the meeting on Monday.

Last Rites for Emil Weiler, Winnetka

Funeral rites were held on Wednesday morning at St. James church in Highwood, for Mr. Emil Weiler, 46, of Winnetka, who succumbed to a sudden attack Sunday morning at the Evanston hospital. He was the brother of John Weiler, 337 Orchard lane, Highland Park.

Born in Luxembourg, in 1902, he came to Winnetka in 1927. Besides his brother John he is survived by brothers Paul of Winnetka and Christ of Glencoe.

Burial was made in the Sacred Heart Cemetery, Glencoe.

William H. Gartside Taken by Death

William H. Gartside, 708 Ridgewood drive, Highland Park, an insurance man in Chicago for 50 years, died September 11th in his home. Private services were held Saturday afternoon, September 13th, the Rev. Dr. Louis Sherwin officiating. For the last 10 years Mr. Gartside had been a broker with Fred S. James & Co. Surviving are his widow, Florence T.; a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Gorrell; a son, William T.; and a sister, Mrs. William J. McDowell of Evanston.

Tom Wilder To Teach Outdoor Painting Class

A series of four Saturday afternoon outdoor painting classes will be taught by Tom Wilder, beginning Sept. 27. The class will meet at the YWCA on Sept. 27 at 1:45 for payment of fees, and go from there to the spot selected by Mr. Wilder. Members without cars can ride with those who have them.

Anyone interested may enroll at the YWCA, Highland Park 675. Enrollment is limited.

Schools of District 107 Observe U. N. Week

September 14-19 has been designated United Nations Week. During this week special emphasis is being placed on international understanding as a basis for permanent peace. Plans for the proper observance of this week were made under the direction of Miss Jones, social studies teacher at Elm Place School.

Mr. Miller to Address Faculty and Patrons

On Monday, September 15, Mr. Ryland Duke Miller, Chairman of the Board of Directors, Collegiate Council of the American Association for the United Nations, spoke to faculty members and patrons. The need for greater understanding among people of different nations was stressed.

Boundary Lines of Friendship

A special assembly program has been arranged for Friday afternoon at 2:35. At that time children and parents will see the film "Boundary Lines." This film is a plea for greater understanding for all peoples; a plea for boundary lines measured by friendliness and understanding rather than boundaries measured by fear and suspicion. Anyone interested in attending the assembly program on Friday afternoon will be welcome.

United Nations Organization

The work of the United Nations organization will be followed closely by all social studies teachers during this and subsequent weeks. Events of current interest and concern will be considered in the weekly discussion periods of the upper grades.

Father Wishes Hard; wo-fold Returns

When Walter J. Carey, 1335 Broadview, put in his order for a baby boy, he wished hard, but evidently didn't realize the pull he had with the stork.

Therefore he was quite surprised, on September 7, to learn that he was the father of—not one boy, but two. However it has been decided to keep both.

The family now consists of Lynette, aged six, and David and Richard, practically new.

The children have two grandmothers, Mrs. A. W. Peard, 1344 Broadview, and Mrs. George Martin of Evanston.
