North Shore Cong. Israel

North Shore Congregation Israel proudly announces that our pulpit will be occupied by six great Jewish leaders of national reputation for the next six Friday evenings.

We extend a cordial invitation to our members, neighbors and the Chicago Jewish community, to attend these Friday evening Services and enjoy the rare thought-provoking sermons of our famous guest Rabbis.

The next six weeks at North Shore Congregation Israel will be remembered as one of the outstanding series of sermons presented from one pulpit in the Country.

Rabbi Alvin I. Fine was chosen to open the important guest-rabbi season on September 26, because he is one of the few young men who has attained the status of national leadership during the past decade.

Much of the pattern of Reform Judaism will be set in the future by Rabbi Alvin Fine, who is to serve as assistant to the newly elected President of the Hebrew Union College, Dr. Nelson Glueck.

Services begin promptly at 8:15 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Presbyterian Church School Re-opens On Sunday, September 28

The Highland Park Presbyterian Church will re-open its Sunday Church School September 28 at 9:30 a.m. There is an enrollment of more than five hundred children whose ages range from three years through seniors in high school.

Because there is not sufficient space to accommodate the entire school at one time the Nursery, Beginners, Primary and Junior children will meet in the Parish House at 9:30. At eleven o'clock the Intermediate Department will meet in the Parish House. At the same time the high school department will convene in the Church sanctuary with the congregation and will pass to their classes later as they have done in previous years.

The supervision of the Church School is under the direction of Miss Sallie Lee, the church's director of religious education.

Prominent Highland Park Citizen Taken By Death

Last rites were held on Sunday at the Bethany Evangelical church for William Guyot, 598 Glenview, who succumbed to a heart ailment the preceding Thursday at the Highland Park hospital at the age of 72.

A native of Noble, Illinois, he had been a resident of Highland Park for 40 years, coming here as district superintendent of the local branch of the Public Service Co. Acting as service manager for the power utility in Waukegan from 1929 to 1932, he retired in 1936 after serving the company in Northbrook.

A member of the Bethany Evangelical church and of the A. O. Fay Masonic lodge, he was active in local Red Cross and community work.

Surviving are his widow, Clementine; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Louise Umbach of Springfield, Mass., two sons, William of Lombard, and Charles of Highland Park; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Megdith of Farmer City, Ill., and Mrs. Nell Morton of Noble, Ill.; one brother Charles, of Noble, Ill., and five grandchildren.

Masonic graveside services were held at Northfield cemetery.

Rites On Saturday For David T. Sanders

Funeral services were conducted on Saturday at the Trinity Episcopal church for David T. Sanders, 5 Woodridge lane, who passed away suddenly the preceding Thursday at his summer home at Mason Lake, Wisconsin.

Born in Greenfield, Maine, 52 years ago, he was later a resident of Deerfield, moving to Highland Park in 1934.

A partner in the Chicago firm of Vance, Sanders & Co., he was a member of the Attie club in Chicago and of the Exmoor Country club.

Surviving are his widow, Margaret, three sons: Robert, Stephen and David, and a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, all of Highland Park; three brothers: Harry and Paul of Greenville, Maine, and Robert of Highland Park.

If at first you don't succeed try, try again. Then stop. No use being silly about it.

Business Week magazine tells us that telephone service for railroad passengers is off to a flying start. Shortwave radio beams the voice to the nearest receiving station of Bell's mobile telephone service. From there, land wires transmit it to the telephone called.

Among other things, modern are the new Automatic Gas Ranges with clock controlled oven. Seeing is believing....

As vacation season ends, here's one last fish story... "Why does a woman say she's been shopping when she hasn't bought a thing?" "Perhaps, for the same reason a man says he has been fishing when he hasn't caught a thing."
