PARTY TIME TABLE

The simplicity and charm of today's informal entertaining is expressed in this decorative party table setting, designed by Miss Ann Martin, nationally known hostess authority. Miss Martin says, "If you've been keeping your grandmother's cut glass punch bowl in the storeroom all these years, now's the time to bring it into the parlor because parties with punch are high in fashion favor."

Refreshments are served buffet style and may be attractively set up on a card table, decorated with garlands of ivy. In keeping with the grape harvest festivals now being celebrated, clusters of varicolored grapes may also be used. Then, the punch bowl serves as a centerpiece, with punch cups or glasses set in a ring around the bowl. Side dishes hold thin-cut sandwiches, small cakes or cookies. Here's a favorite fruit-and-wine punch that's appropriate, refreshing and easy to prepare:

WHITE GRAPE PUNCH
3 cups unsweetened pineapple juice
3 cups Cresta Blanca California Claret

1 cup sparkling water
1/2 cup lemon juice
White seedless grapes

Chill pineapple juice, wine and sparkling water. Combine in a punch bowl or large water pitcher. Add lemon juice and sugar to taste. Garnish with lemon slices and grapes. Serves 6 to 8.

Cincinnati Peace League, Rabbi Heller has served as Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, Chairman of the Administrative Council of the Zionist Organization of America, and a member of its Executive Committee. For many years he has been an active member of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, and its President from 1941-1943; he has also served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Hebrew Union College.

Along with his community and religious activities, he is an eminent musician and composer. His noteworthy contributions include an oratorio: "Watchman, What Of The Night?" This was given its premier performance by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra in 1941.

Temple Services begin at 8:15. The public is invited to attend.
