PRESENTS HONOR SCROLL

The American Institute of Chemists presented an Honor Scroll to Ernest H. Volwiler of 2472 N. Deere Park drive on Friday night at a Testimonial dinner given in his honor at the Furniture Mart, 666 Lake Shore Drive. Abbott Laboratories, where Mr. Volwiler is associated, were in charge of the reception.

WALLIS-MORRIS WEDDING

A wedding of interest to many Highland Parkers is that of Miss Elizabeth Jane Wallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Earl Wallis of 529 So Linden avenue and Julius Alphin Morris, son of Mrs. O. L. Morris of New Orleans, Louisiana, which took place in the chapel of the Canal St. Presbyterian church in New Orleans on Friday, September 26, at 6:30 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. J. R. Stevenson heard the exchange of nuptial vows before an altar banked with yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a russet brown silk suit complemented by a corsage of chrysanthemums in harmonizing colors.

Miss Alice Monero of New Orleans, maid of honor, wore dark blue and her corsage was of gardenias. James Bradford, also of New Orleans, served as best man.

The bride attended the University of Mexico and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and Mr. Morris is completing his senior year at the Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallis and their son, George, attended the wedding, and gave a wedding dinner at Arnauds' in New Orleans following the ceremony. About thirty guests attended.

After a short wedding trip to Napoleonville, Louisiana, Mr. Morris and his bride are now at home in Baton Rouge.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY DINNER

On Saturday, October 25, Mrs. Baldwin Newman of 359 Hazel avenue, will be hostess at a dinner party in honor of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Strecker of N. Linden avenue. About twenty-five guests will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Stevenson of St. Louis, Missouri, will be here for the occasion.

TO LIVE IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Gladys Markell and daughter, Miss Shirlee, of Oakwood ave., left on Tuesday for San Pedro, California, to make their home there. Mrs. Markell's son, Richard, has been residing in San Pedro since his release from the service and they will reside with him.

Miss Markell plans to enter U. C. L. A. in February.

DOROTHY BANKER, A BRIDE

Gowned in white satin and wearing a fingertip veil which hung from a tiara headdress worn by her sister Mrs. J. R. Gallagher of Berwin, Illinois at her wedding, and carrying white roses, Miss Dorothy Banker became the bride of James A. Smith on Saturday, October 11, at nuptial high mass at 10: o'clock in the morning, the Rev. O'Connell reading the service. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Miss Betty Kelly, who attended as maid of honor, wore purple velvet with a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Alex J. H. Smith, father of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride's mother chose a gray dress complemented by black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a coffee colored suit, and her corsage, also was of gardenias.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Banker of 676 Deerfield avenue were hosts at breakfast at the Deerpath Inn in Lake Forest, following the ceremony. About 100 guests were present.

Mr. Smith and his bride are now on a two weeks honeymoon in Hayworth, Wisconsin, and will reside on their return at 278 Beech street with his parents temporarily.

BACK HOME

Mrs. Roswell B. Swazey of 540 Hawthorne lane returned on Sunday from Syracuse, New York where she went to welcome her new granddaughter, Nancy Christine Egan born on July 23.

Mrs. Swazey spent two weeks at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Egan, II, in Syracuse. The Egans are also parents of two sons, Ray Calkins, 4½, and William C. II, 2½.
