VISITED HERE

Enroute to her home in Oakland, Florida, Mrs. C. F. Mather-Smith spent a day here visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Turner of Central avenue. Prior to her Highland Park visit, Mrs. Mather-Smith spent a few days with her granddaughter, Jan-Ann Turner, in Warrentown, Virginia, where she is a student at the Warrenton Country school.

WEEK-END IN IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. Nafey B. Larson of 620 Laurel avenue, and Mrs. Larson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atteridge of Lake Forest, spent the week-end in Mount Pleasant, Iowa. They visited with the Atteridges' other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Wells (Jean Atteridge), a bride and groom of six weeks.

CELEBRATES 91st BIRTHDAY

Friends and relatives gathered on Sunday to celebrate the 91st birthday of Mrs. Justine Garbolet, who resides with her grand-daughter, Mrs. Robert Aynsley of 980 N. Green Bay road. Mrs. Garbolet is the mother of Mrs. Grace Braune of the same address, and great grandmother of Helen Aynsley, a sophomore at the Highland Park high school.

BETTY RISER, A BRIDE

The chapel of the First Methodist church in Evanston was the scene of the wedding of Miss Betty Suzanne Riser and Arthur Grant Hansen, Jr., on Saturday, November 15, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Riser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Riser of Braeside rd., and Mr. Hansen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hansen of Skokie. The Rev. Jerome Newcomer, assistant pastor of the First Congregational church, Evanston, a friend of the bridegroom, heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown trimmed with seed pearls. Made with long sleeves, it had a marquisette yoke with a two inch bertha of satin and a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion hung from a crown of seed pearls, matching the trimming on her dress. She carried a bouquet of white baby carnations formed around an orchid.

Miss Marjorie Riser, a sister of the bride, was in rose colored moire with matching plumed poke bonnet. She carried a large old fashioned bouquet of rose colored chrysanthemums and matching heather, edged with white tulle.

Wayne Hansen, brother of the bridegroom served as best man, and the ushers were Harold Anderson and Charles Eulo.

The bride's mother chose a dark green dress complemented by a corsage of sweetheart roses, and the bridegroom's mother was in beige with an orchid corsage.

Miss Patricia Paulick sang "At Dawning—I Love You" and "Because", accompanied by Mr. C. Christiansen.

The bride graduated in June from Northwestern university with a bachelor of arts degree. Mr. Hansen received a master's degree there in mechanical engineering, also in June. He is a graduate of Armour Technical college. During the war he served as a lieutenant with the army air corps. He is now a Captain in the reserve air corps.

Only relatives attended the ceremony at the church, but 150 guests were present at the reception held in the French Room of the Georgian Hotel, Evanston, at 5 o'clock.

Mr. Hansen and his bride are now honeymooning in Texas, Louisiana, and Mexico for three weeks. When they return, they will be at home at the Beach View Hotel, N. Sheridan road, Rogers Park, after December 15.

HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

Following three months spent in Norway and a short trip to Sweden, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Norvik of Broadview avenue, are expected to return home on Thanksgiving Day. They left Bergen aboard the Stravangerfjord on Sunday. Their visit to their homeland was their first in 26 years.

Their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Norvik of Waukegan, and their daughter and her husband, the Woodrow Dills of 50 Oak avenue, Highwood, have planned a family dinner for them on Sunday, November 30.

RETURNED HOME

After a six weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Picker of Ravinia, Mrs. Picker's mother, Mrs. Harry T. Tatz and sister, Miss Genevieve Tatz of Beverly Hills, California, have returned to their home.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Giorgi, uncle and aunt of Ray Molendy of 1007 Ft. Sheridan avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Frin-desconi, his cousins, returned to their homes in Yerington, Nevada, after a ten day visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Molendy.

CHRISTENED SUNDAY

Joyce Louise was the name given to the month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Albert of 229 Evolution avenue, Highwood, on Sunday, Nov. 16, at St. James church, Highwood. The Rev. Arthur Louaie performed the Christening ceremony. Sponsors for the baby were Miss Lorraine Pascucci of Chicago, cousin of Mr. Albert, and Rudy Scassellati of 1941 Northmoor road, cousin of the baby.

Forty guests were present at the celebration which followed at the Albert home. The Alberts are also parents of a daughter, Barbara Ann, 4½.
