Dr. Albert G. Minda
At Congregation Israel
This Friday night the North Shore Congregation in Glencoe will be honored by the presence of the distinguished Rabbi of Temple Israel in Minneapolis, Dr. Albert G. Minda. His topic will be "How to Get the Most out of Life."

Earlier this year the Hebrew Union College conferred upon Dr. Minda an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. Among other honors awarded him was the Citation for Service from the Minneapolis Urban League and the Minneapolis Round Table for Christians and Jews, and the Minneapolis Inter-Racial committee.

Dr. Minda has not only authored such brilliant pageants as "Let There Be Light," and "Peace Fellowship - Religion, Common Quest", but also a book of prayers entitled "The Sanctuary of the Home."

Services at 8:15. Public invited.

Chicago Livestock Show To Begin November 29
Officials predict that the International Live Stock Exposition and Horse show at the International Amphitheater in the Chicago Union Stock yards Nov. 29 - Dec. 6 will be the largest in its history. Among the 12000 head of beef cattle, draft horses, light horses, ponies, sheep and swine are entries from Wadsworth, Mundelein, Libertyville and Lake Villa. Daily horse shows will be a feature.

Rip Van Winkle Opens Children's Theatre At Goodman Memorial

Rip Van Winkle is the first show of the season at the Goodman Memorial Theatre in the Children's Theatre series, dramatized and directed by Charlotte B. Chorpenning. Rip Van Winkle will play currently on Saturdays at 2:30 through December 13, and on Sunday afternoons at 3:00 during November. Additional performances have been added as benefit performances taken over by P.T.A. organizations and Clubs for Fund-raising purposes.

Frances Allis has directed the dancing which is an important part with Old Hendrick Hudson's crew men and the game of ninepins. The settings have been designed by Richard von Albrecht and the Costumes by Rita Dhu Wray.

The Children's Theatre is scheduled for four productions during the season with opening dates for the next three plays on: December 20, January 31, and March 27. Each production will be preceded by a special Preview for the P.T.A. Presidents, visual Education Chairmen and Teachers of Chicago.

Shadow and Substance Goes Into Rehearsal At Goodman Theatre
In the Adult series the play for November is Shadow and Substance by Paul Vincent Carroll. This Drama was one of the unqualified successes of the New York season a few years ago, and received the Critics' Award as the best play written by a foreign playwright. The play is a work of great theatrical power and although the subject matter deals largely with the church, it poses a universal human appeal.

The production opens at the Goodman Memorial Theatre on Thursday evening November 6, and plays nightly (except Mondays) through November 22 with a Thursday matinee on November 20. The production has been directed by David B. Itkin.

Cub Scout Pack 85 Meeting

Wolf - Silver Arrow: Richard Westgard.

Bear: Richard Adler, Billy Goldberg, Tommy Johnson, Richard Westgard.
Bear - Gold Arrow: Richard Adler, Billy Goldberg.
Lion: Neal Weed, Charles Harms.

Den No. 3 was presented with the American Flag in recognition of their achievement record in Cubbing since the last Pack Meeting.

Den No. 7 was presented with the Pack Flag for their excellent and outstanding work on the Cub project of the month.

Don Treischmann was presented with the award signifying his transfer with merit into the Boy Scouts. The next Pack meeting will be held on December 16; all Cub parents are cordially invited to attend.

Teachers To Address Interfaith Group
The regular monthly meeting of the local Inter Faith Group will be held Tuesday, November 18th, at ten a. m. at the Y. W. C. A. on Laurel Avenue. Mrs. Benedict Goodman, Chairman of the Program Committee promises a lively discussion on what is being done in the local public schools to further racial and religious understanding. Many of our progressive school teachers have been quietly performing an inestimable service in this vital field among impressionable young people.

Miss Sinkler, of School District 108, Miss Kitzinger of District 107 and Miss Bredin of the High School will tell of their interesting and satisfying experiments in combating prejudices among school age boys and girls. Open discussion and a question and answer period will follow the program.

Interested members of the community welcome.
