MARY LOU TJADEN, A BRIDE

A very pretty wedding took place at the Immaculate Conception church on Saturday, November 29, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, when Miss Mary Lou Tjaden became the bride of Robert James Schwall, before an altar of palms and white flowers, the Rev. John O'Connell officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig R. Tjaden of 607 W. Park avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are the Joseph A. Schwalls of 89 Clifton avenue.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin and chancilly lace, made with a slight train. Her veil, of the same lace, was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, and white baby chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. Melvin D. Young (Betty Tjaden), was in a gown of crimson faille, while the bridesmaids, the Misses Jeanne Connorton and Gloria Schmidt, were in identical gowns of jewel green faille. All three carried white baby chrysanthemums and poinsettias, with matching flowers in their hair.

Emmett Moroney served the bridegroom as best man, and John Clavey and David Olson ushered. The bride's mother chose a sequin trimmed dress and feathered hat for her daughter's wedding. Though not at all similar to Mrs. Tjaden's dress and hat, the bridegroom's mother, too, wore a dress trimmed with sequins, and her hat was feathered, also. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

The bride attended the University of Illinois and the bridegroom, who served two years overseas with the marine corps, attended the Northern Illinois State Teachers' college at De Kalb.

A reception at the Highland Park Woman's club, followed the ceremony. After a three weeks' honeymoon in Florida, Mr. Schwall and his bride will reside in Highland Park.

FAMILY REUNION THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Tuerk of 2744 S. Deere Park drive were Mrs. Tuerk's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heckendorn and sons, Philip, John and Fred, of Huntington, Indiana, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds, Jr., and daughter, Vicky, of Chicago, and Mr. Tuerk's father, George Tuerk of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The Tuerk's daughter, Barbara, and sons, Fred and George, and Mrs. Tuerk's mother, Mrs. Reynolds Sr., who reside with them, were also present.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Berg and son, Bob, a sophomore at Purdue University in Lafayette, Indiana, and daughter, Marilyn, a senior at Highland Park high school, spent the Thanksgiving Day week-end with relatives of both Dr. and Mrs. Berg in Grand Forks, North Dakota. They travelled both ways by plane.

MARY ANN MAJOR MARRIES

The Rev. Louis W. Shriver of the Highland Park Presbyterian church heard the exchange of nuptial vows in the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Karl A. Meyer of 229 Prospect avenue, on Saturday morning, November 29, when Mary Ann Major and Dr. August F. Daro were united in marriage.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of royal blue and a mink hat. She carried an antique purple and gold prayer book marked with two white orchids. Miss Micki Daro, sister of the bridegroom, attended as maid of honor. She was dressed in navy blue and her hat was crimson. Her corsage was of orchids.

Jess Daro served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother chose a dark blue suit trimmed with mink and matching mink hat, complemented by a corsage of purple orchids.

The bride gave the orchids she carried, to her grandmother, Mrs. James A. Hart, who is seriously ill in the Meyer home, and wore her mother's corsage when she left on her honeymoon.

Following a reception at the Exmoor Country club, Dr. Daro and his bride left by plane for Mexico. They will return about December 15 and plan to reside in Highland Park.

FAREWELL PARTY

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bortas of Naida Terrace, formerly of Burton avenue, who are moving soon to Highland Park, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston L. Hurst of 1316 Burton avenue and Mr. and Mrs. John Jefferson of 1307 Burton avenue were co-hosts at a farewell party on Saturday night at the Hurst home. Thirty-two guests were present.

SALLIE WENNBERG WEDS

Gowned in heavy white satin, fashioned after an eighteenth century bustle effect dress with sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls, leg o' mutton sleeves, peplum also edged in seed pearls and long train, wearing a fingertip veil of French mist which hung from a halo of pearls, and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with a removable orchid corsage center, and petals from her mother's wedding bouquet, Miss Aileen Marie (Sallie) Wennberg became the bride of Richard W. Anderson on Saturday, November 29, at a candlelight ceremony at the Bethany Evangelical church.

The Rev. Lester Laubenstein performed the ceremony before an altar of palms and candelabra. Her father gave her in marriage. The bride's attendants were all dressed alike in white faille. Their Juliet caps were of gold sequins. Their slippers, too, were gold, and they carried yellow chrysanthemums. The little flower girl was a miniature of the other attendants. Miss Gwendolyn Anderson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and the Misses Eleanor Johnson of Highland Park and Dorothy Yonker of Chicago, and Mrs. Eric Anderson of Chicago, were bridesmaids. Lynn Grombei, five year old cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl.

Jack Peterson of Chicago served as best man and the ushers were William Engdahl, cousin of the bridegroom, and Eric Anderson of Chicago and Nels Johnson of Highland Park. Richard Schreiber, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Lisle R. Hawley, sang "One Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer". The bride's mother wore a champagne dinner gown with silver and rhinestone accessories and a purple orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was in deep purple with silver accessories and a light orchid corsage.

A reception at the Highland Park Woman's club followed the ceremony. About 400 were present.

After a few days at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago, the young couple left for a western honeymoon. When they return they will reside temporarily with the bride's parents until the home they are building on S. Ridge road is completed.

Mrs. Barr was here to attend the Wennberg-Schwall wedding on Saturday.

SMITH-DETMER NUPTIALS

On Saturday, November 29, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Gertrude Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garritt Smith, and Howard F. Detmer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Detmer of 555 Bob O' Link road were united in marriage in the Evanston home of her parents.

The bride's ballerina length wedding gown was made of white silk faille and her veil was of heirloom lace. She carried a bouquet of cabbage roses.

The three attendants of the bride, Mrs. Samuel Taylor of Lak Forest, aunt, matron of honor; Miss Francigene Sheridan of New York, daughter of the Thomas H.

Sheridans of 820 S. Linden avenue, maid of honor; and Lynn Fetters, niece, daughter of Mrs. Paine Fetters of New York, flower girl, were dressed alike in ballerina length dresses of cornflower blue, made with fitted bodices and off-the-shoulder necklines. Their headdresses were haloes of blue cornflowers and small yellow rosebuds and their slippers were blue. They, too, carried cabbage roses.

Edward Corboy served as best man and the three brothers of the bridegroom, Eugene, Martin, and John, ushered.

The bride's mother was in a gold colored dress with a corsage of orchids. The hat she wore was trimmed with bird of paradise. The bridegroom's mother was in a wine colored dress and matching hat, and her corsage was of green orchids.

Following a reception at the Woman's Athletic club, the young people left for New Orleans, Louisiana, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside in Ecuador where Mr. Detmer is engaged in business.

You KNOW this isn't safe . . .

And neither is defective wiring!

You wouldn't think of giving a child a loaded gun for a plaything. But you may have electrical appliances in your home that are equally dangerous. You can't always see the defective wiring in lamps, toasters, irons, or grills—the danger may lie in faulty inside wiring.

Be sure that appliances you buy are top quality. Have a qualified electrician check the appliances and electric cords in your home today. When you see a frayed extension cord—discard it and replace it with a new one of good quality. Watch for broken sockets and wall plugs.

Have an electrician inspect your appliances—be on the alert yourself—and be safe!
