Home Wedding For Lois Ann Heiser

Miss Lois Ann Heiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Heiser, and Caryl Ralph Reaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Reaver of Lancaster, Ohio, were married Saturday, Dec. 6 at five p.m. in the home of the bride's parents at 22 Oak Lane by the Rev. Earl Lusk of Lincolnwood, Ill. The candlelight ceremony was followed by a dinner and reception at the Villa Moderne.

Miss Lila Heiser, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and Martin Christiansen, of Libertyville, was best man.

Miss Heiser attended the University of Iowa and Mr. Reaver served with the Navy Air Corps for three years.

Following a honeymoon in the south, the couple will make their home in Chicago.

Out of town guests included Mrs. J. P. Reaver and Miss Muriel Reaver, mother and sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fishaux of Milwaukee.

DEERFIELD WEDDING

In an off-the-shoulder gown, made from white eyelet satin which the bridegroom brought back with him from Japan at the close of the war, and designed by Irvin Stephens of Deerfield, a former school friend of the bride, Miss Ruth Elaine Visoky, daughter of the John J. Visokys of Deerfield became the bride of Glenn E. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller of Prairie View. The candlelight service took place at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, December 6, at the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Deerfield, the Rev. Hugo Lineberger performing the double ring ceremony before an altar of evergreen bows and chrysanthemums. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Ray Miller, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, attended as matron of honor. Her gown was of gold velvet and she carried gold colored chrysanthemums. There were four bridesmaids, the Misses Elaine Brum of Wheeling and Alice Clavey of Waukegan in red and the Misses La Verne Halverson of Prairie View and Betty Somel of Deerfield, in green. The bride's young sister, Marilyn, and her cousin, Alvina Sticken, were junior bridesmaids. Marilyn was in Christmas red, also, and Alvina in green. All six girls carried white chrysanthemums.

The flower girl, Charlene Keulman of Antioch, and the ring bearer, Mildred Visoky, little sister of the bride, were dressed alike in white satin. Charlene carried a basket of rose petals and Mildred carried the ring on a satin and lace pillow, down the aisle of white chrysanthemums and ribbons.

Best man was Clarence Zerner of Libertyville, Ray Miller, brother of the bridegroom, Cpl. William Visoky of the Marine corps, stationed in Quantico, Virginia, and S1/c Robert Visoky of the U. S. Navy stationed in Philadelphia, brothers of the bride, and John Jaeger of Libertyville, ushered.

George Johnson, accompanied at the organ by Helen Enstrom, sang "Because" and "All My Love".

The bridegroom, a former captain in the army, served three years during the war in the Pacific theatre.

About 350 attended the reception at the Wheeling school following the wedding.

After a honeymoon trip, Mr. Miller and his bride will reside in Wheeling.
