"Make Christmas Last!"

If you're like a lot of other folks, you're probably taking down your Christmas tree now.

And you've probably thrown away all the pretty wrappings . . . and you've exchanged some of your gifts.

The Christmas spirit, which was so fine this year, is probably leaving you and your home.

The spirit of giving wanes. Smiles come more slowly. Little pleasantries which make life smoother at Christmas are, for some reason, harder to give to friends as we all ease up to challenging 1948.

Now there's one man I know who believes in making Christmas last—certainly a positive approach to a happy life.

He is the Reverend Benjamin Martyn Will, beloved minister of "The Country Church of the City", one of the most beautiful churches I have ever seen.

BRIGHT, BRISK MORNING. . . . It was a bright, brisk morning when I visited this all white and delightful places of worship, located on Chicago's Granville Ave. at Lakewood.

It was a day when you felt good . . . and you wanted everyone else to feel the same.

And it surely seemed like the fine folks I met at this Methodist church felt as I did that morning. Never have I met friendlier people.

Never before have I witnessed such sincere praise as that bestowed on Rev. Will by Dr. Glenn H. Moore, spokesman for the devout and attentive congregation whose members that day were giving their minister a much deserved gift . . . a new automobile for use in his church work.

GOD IS THERE . . . Now, being an Episcopalian, I thought it would be difficult to become used to the Methodist way of worship.

But, it isn't. And the reason it was easy, I believe, was because you feel at home in Rev. Will's church.

And you feel close to God. You feel God is there all around you, welcoming you into His home.

WELL-TRAINED CHOIR . . . Perhaps it's the well-trained women's choir under the able direction of Richard T. Luke.

Perhaps it's the warm spirit which abounds in the impressive church.

Perhaps it's the people who are so willing to be guided by God's light, willing to know and to do His will.

But, most of all, it's Rev. Will who makes you feel at home in his church. His kindness and admirable modesty makes you feel that he, too, wants to learn with you the way of God.

FIRE NEARLY DESTROYS . . .

Just about one year ago, after Rev. Will had spent 13 years in the early fall of his life building his country church in the city, his church was gutted by fire.

But being the type of man he is, and believing so deeply in his congregation, Rev. Will began at once to rebuild his church.

Gifts from all over the nation came to him.

And now, less than one year later, his church stands again—whiter and prouder than ever before.

And his congregation has increased.

And the spirit of giving and building stands majestically on that Chicago corner.

MAKE CHRISTMAS LAST! . . .

Christmas has passed yet there's no reason why we can't make the wonderful Christmas spirit last throughout the remaining hours of each year.

Yes, I received a spiritual stim-

HOLIDAY WEDDINGS

A very lovely wedding took place on Saturday, December 27 at St. Patrick's church, Lake Forest, when Miss Molly Smith, daughter of the Paul R. Smiths of 379 Cedar Avenue, became the bride of Robert G. Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Hart of Sheahan Court, at a candlelight ceremony at 4 p.m., the Rev. Daly reading the service, before an altar of poinsettias.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was crowned in ivory lace with a veil of ivory illusion. The spray of flowers she carried was of white carnations, sweetpeas and ivy.

The bride's three attendants, Miss Gale George, maid of honor, and the Misses Joan Perrizo and Patricia M-Kay, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in Christmas green. Miss George carried a spray of red carnations, while the bridesmaids' flowers were white carnations.

Best man was Benjamin Grota, college roommate of Mr. Hart, and the ushers were David Smith, brother of the bride, and Patrick Moran.

Mrs. William R. Bangs, III, (Florence Donnersberger) sang "Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus."

A reception at the Deernath Inn, Lake Forest, followed the ceremony.

Following a northern honeymoon Mr. Hart and his bride will reside in Rion, Wisconsin, where he is a student at Rion college.

Miss Elizabeth Nonna Weddell, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton C. Cummings of 355 Hazel Avenue, and Arthur W. Seidenhartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Seidenhartz of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Trinity Episcopal church on Saturday, December 27 the Rev. Harlowe having the exchange of nuptial vows before an altar of Christmas decorations and greenery.

The bride was lovely in a white satin dress made with net inserts at the shoulders and neck, long pointed sleeves and a short train. Her fingertip veil hung from a satin Juliet cap, and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Joan M-Latchie, of Glenview, maid of honor, wore a pink maroon-ette gown complemented by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls and pink half gloves. The shower bouquet she carried was of pink and white carnations.

Bertram R. Roome Jr. of Arlington, New Jersey, served as best man and the ushers were Russell Moerl and Marvin Zoerb, both of Milwaukee.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Illinois School of Architecture.

About 75 attended the reception at the Parish House which followed the ceremony. The young couple will reside in Milwaukee.

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Jean Prindeville Green, daughter of the Edward A. Greens of 360 Ravine drive, and

Taken By Death

On Tuesday of last week funeral rites were held at the Immaculate conception church for Jack Frigo, gardener, of 501 Elm Place, who passed away at the Highland Park hospital the preceding Monday.

Born in Italy 64 years ago, he came to this country in 1912 and had lived in Highland Park since 1927. Two sisters survive in Italy.

Also surviving are his widow, Olga; two sons, Richard and Nicholas and a daughter, Lena, all of Highland Park.

Interment was made at Ascension cemetery.

Charles Allen Clark, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Webster Groves, Missouri, on Saturday, December 27, at 11:00 o'clock in the morning, Monseigneur Joseph Morrison performed the ceremony.

Gowned in ivory satin with a long train and wearing a hairloom veil of rosepoint lace and tulle, which belonged to her great grandmother, and carrying a bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums and carnations, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's sister, Elizabeth, attended as maid of honor and another sister, Mary Jo, and the bridegroom's sisters, Miss Alice Clark and Mrs. Bert Killinger (Mary Clark) were bridesmaids. The four attendants were gowned alike in Christmas green faille and they all carried red poinsettias.

Walter Clark of Webster Groves served his brother as best man, and William Clark, another brother, Bert Killinger, Bert Lange, all of Webster Groves, Jack De Celle of River Forest and Harry Green of Chicago, cousin of the bride, ushered.

The bride's mother was in grey with an orchid corsage and the bridegroom's mother wore black net. She, too, wore orchids.

About two hundred guests attended the reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents. Following a Wisconsin honeymoon Mr. Clark and his bride will reside in Webster Groves.

CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

In celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Peterson of 1291 Broadview Avenue were hosts at dinner to forty-eight friends on Saturday evening, December 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Husenetter of Manitoba, Canada, who have been visiting their Highland Park relatives this Christmas, were among the guests. The Husenetters, who arrived on Christmas eve, left for Manitoba on Monday. Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Lottie Husenetter, also of Broadview Avenue, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey D. Husenetter of 1886 Burton Avenue were also present, as were their daughters, Miss Patsy Peterson a student at Highland Park high school, and Miss Joy Peterson, a sophomore at Wheaton college, who is home for the Christmas vacation.

Miss Joanne Mitchell of San Francisco, Calif., college roommate of Miss Peterson, is a house guest of the Petersons during the holidays.

LOIS ROSS BETROTHED

The betrothal of Miss Lois Ross to Melford Brickman of Tucson, Arizona, has recently been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Ross of 2161 Pine Point drive. Mr. Brickman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brickman of Tucson.

Both Miss Ross and her fiancé.
