WEDDING DATE CHOSEN

February 7 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Joan Florence Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Holt of 1330 Judson avenue, and Richard Charles Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace of Gilmore City, Iowa. The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Nancy Holt, a senior this year at the University of Michigan, will attend her sister as maid of honor. Bernard Shimon will serve Mr. Wallace as best man.

Miss Holt was graduated from the University of Iowa last June. Besides her degree in liberal arts, she received a B. A. in Journalism. Mr. Wallace, a sergeant during the war, spent three years in the service. He attended the University of Iowa for two years, and plans to enter a school of commerce next semester.

PARTICIPATE IN DETROIT BONSPIEL

The Exmoor curling team which consists of Elmer W. Freytag of 825 S. Sheridan road, Robert K. Belt of 1919 S. Sheridan road, Robert C. Brown of 942 Lincoln avenue and Alan R. Kidd of 2159 Lakeside place, participated in the Detroit Bonspiel last week-end. They were defeated only after the semi-finals. They returned home Sunday night.

MARIE DENISE LAVEDAN, A BRIDE

Down an aisle of white blossoms and satin streamers to an altar decorated with tall candelabra and white flowers, Miss Marie Denise Lavedan, walked with her father, who gave her in marriage to John Frederic Scott, Jr. on Saturday, January 10. The ceremony took place at 12 noon at the Immaculate Conception church, Monksignior Morrison hearing the exchange of nuptial vows and the Rev. Skoner saying the mass. The bride is the daughter of the Pierre F. Lavedans of 195 Laurel avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott of St. Paul, Minnesota.

The bride was lovely in an ivory satin gown made with long sleeves, a drop shoulder neckline of net embroidered in seed pearls and a long full train. The veil she wore was of heirloom rosepoint lace over tulle, made the full length of the train on her dress. For "something old" she wore a pair of gold earrings belonging to her great-grandmother. She carried an ivory satin bound prayer book embroidered in seed pearls, marked with Eucharist lilies and satin streamers to which were attached white blossoms.

Miss Genevieve Lavedan, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore an ice pink satin gown made with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt over crinoline. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Scott of St. Paul, sister of the bridegroom, the Misses Madeline Bose of New Orleans, Ann Finigan and Mary Rose Schreiner of St. Paul, cousins of the bride, and Miss Marion Mulqueen of New York City, classmate of the bride at Kenwood, Convent of the Sacred Heart in Albany, New York, were in ice green satin gowns the same style as the maid of honor's. The attendants all wore head dresses of ostrich feathers which matched their gowns. They wore silver lace mitts and carried Johanna Hill roses tied with matching ribbons. George Diehl of Minneapolis served as best man, and the ushers were Andrew Scott of St. Paul, cousin of the bridegroom, Heidi Brandt of Kansas City, Missouri, David and Stanley Donnelly of St. Paul, and Harvey McNair of Lake Forest.

The bride's mother wore a gown of beige lace and brown crepe. Her accessories were brown, and green orchids were attached to the bag she carried. The bridegroom's mother was in a dress made with a silver and blue lame bodice and black skirt, complemented by black accessories and white orchids. A reception for three hundred guests at the Exmoor Country club followed the ceremony. For travel the bride wore a black broadcloth suit trimmed with white ermine. Her corsage was of gardenias. The young couple are now on a month's wedding trip in Bermuda. On their return they will reside in Minneapolis.

PARTICIPATES IN FLORIDA SWIMMING MEET

Back home after a month in Florida, where they were the guests of Mrs. George W. Hall of Fort Lauderdale, are Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Weber of 1885 Grove-land avenue. Their daughter, Dorie, a freshman at Purdue this year, joined them for the holidays.

Representing Purdue, Miss Weber won the event in which she was entered in the National Intercollegiate swimming forum, an annual affair at Christmas time. The country's leading swimming coaches met at Fort Lauderdale once a year for lectures, demonstrations, movies, etc. In charge of this year's exhibition were Coach Dick Papenguth of Purdue and Coach Riley of Rutgers University.

Enroute to Florida the Webers stopped at Purdue to witness the annual aquacade there.

WEEK-END GUEST

A week-end guest of Miss Mirth Durbahn was Miss Billie Kolb of Appleton, Wisconsin. Miss Kolb and Miss Durbahn were Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters at the University of Minnesota.

Miss Durbahn, who was home from New York for the holidays, will be in Milwaukee until January 23, when business will take her to Texas. She is the daughter of the Walter Durbahns of Beverly place.

The Highland Park Presbyterian church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Dorothe Marie Bletsch, daughter of Mrs. William Bletsch of 1438 Pleasant avenue, and Gordon R. Frisbie, son of Mrs. Florence Frisbie and C. O. Frisbie, Jr. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening on Saturday, February 7. Charles E. Bletsch of Ravine drive will give his niece in marriage.

Mrs. Roland E. Griffis (Betty Bletsch) of Lake Forest will attend her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Georgianna Frisbie, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Benjamin F. Carter, Jr. (Joyce Bridges) of Forrest City, Iowa, and Mrs. Richard Wood of Chicago. Little Wendy Blume, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Blume of 155 Lakeview place, will act as flower girl.

C. O. Frisbie, III, will serve his brother as best man, and William Hennings of Chicago, Elroy Langill Jr. of Lincoln avenue, Highland Park, and Roy Zander of Chicago will usher.

Miss Bletsch attended Lake Forest college. Mr. Frisbie is a graduate of Northwestern university. During the war he served four years in the army, three years of that time in the European theatre.

CELEBRATE 55TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, January 11, Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst of 460 Ridge road celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary.

CAROL PASQUESI BRETROTHED

The betrothal of Miss Carol Pasquesi to Daniel Michael Murphy, son of Lyman Murphy of 447 Glencoe avenue, has recently been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Pasquesi of 1013 Fort Sheridan avenue.

Both Miss Pasquesi and Mr.

Murphy are graduates of Highland Park high school. Mr. Murphy, a former Signalman 3/c in the navy, served two and a half years during the war; most of that time in the Pacific theatre. After his release from the service he attended Illinois Normal for a short time.

The wedding will probably take place in the fall.

IN NEW ORLEANS

Nafey Bud Larson, (Butch), son of the Nafey Larsons of 624 Laurel avenue, and Billy Spellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Spellman of 687 Central avenue, left the day after Christmas for New Orleans. They will probably be gone most of January.

VISITING HERE
