

Let's Take a Look

By

(SPECIAL TO THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS)
Notes About Town

BRAESIDE, ILL.—
We've been able to sneak away from our pre-marital chores (sink, stove, floor, window, et al, washing) for a few minutes, so while the "little corporal" (to ease a description away from the late Howard Vincent O'Brien) isn't looking, we'll draw up a typewriter and have a chat with you all.
(Note that "you all." Well, Braeside is a bit south, you know, Yankee.)
Hold everything!
Stop the presses!
The "li'l corp" is callin'.

LIBRARY LECTURES . . .
Yes, Dear, those organdy curtains look beautiful. Sure, I'll help you put 'em up."
"When?"
"In just a few minutes."
"Okay?" (Great American expression, right?)
"Okay."
Let's see, where were we.
O, yes, we were going to remind you about the excellent lectures planned by the alert Friends of The Highland Park Library—an organization, incidentally, we wish we could assist more.

BOOK SPECIALIST . . .
"The Family And Its Books" is the subject for the first lecture slated Sunday, Feb. 15, at 4 p.m., likeable Harry Sellery Jr., Friends' President, reports.
Speaker of the day is Mrs. Annis Duff, nationally known writer and specialist in children's books.
Attend these gatherings, Highland Parkers.
You'll be well rewarded . . .

THERE'S THAT CALL AGAIN . . .
"What's that, Pat?"
"Did I scrub the living room floor?"
"Yes."
"Did I wax it, too?"
"Uh, huh."
"Just a few minutes and I'll help . . ."
"MEN OF THE HOUR" . . .
It's a pleasure, Republican Club

Highland Park Ties
L. Forest Hockey Team 4-4
The Highland Park Intermediate Ice Hockey team came from behind to tie the fast Lake Forest Winter Club team Saturday morning at the Sunset Park rink. In an earlier game played at Lake Forest the Recreation Department team lost by a score of 2 to 0. At the end of the first period in this game Lake Forest was leading 2 to 0. In the second period Highland Park scored, followed by a score by Lake Forest to make the score 3 to 1. In the last period Highland Park scored twice in succession to tie the score. The Lake Forest team went ahead 4 to 3 with Highland Park scoring the tying goal with three minutes to go. Day, Harris, Bowles and Martin starred for the local team and Betts for the Lake Foresters. If the ice holds out, these two teams will meet February 14th at the Lake Forest rink.

Hospital Auxiliary
The Auxiliary of the Highland Park hospital met on Wednesday, February 11, in the parish hall of Trinity Church. A luncheon was served by Mrs. Harry Van Ornum and her committee.

Local Insurance Man Active At Conference
Charles Kluss, 337 Woodlawn Road, Highland Park, was a member of an 11-man committee of insurance executives which planned and directed the fifth Annual Economic Conference sponsored by the Chicago Chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters at the Knickerbocker hotel last week (Tues., Jan. 27).
700 business and professional men and educators attended the conference.
Kluss is with Edwin Shields Hewitt & Associates.

R. B. Olson, Editor.

Members, to help you tell the folks about your "Men of the Hour" series.

Your next speaker is Karl E. Mundt, Congressman from South Dakota, we note.

He speaks this Sunday, Feb. 8, on the challenging subject, "Must We Have Another War?"

We assume Congressman Mundt will be as able a speaker as the other men—and women—of the hour.

By the way, when will Clara Booth Luce be here?

In these never-underestimate-the-power-of-a-woman days we're gliding through now, it'd be right wise for us menfolk to listen to what spokeswomen for the dainty sex have to say.

"JUST A LITTLE BIT MORE" . . .
"Now, Pat?"
"Right now?"
"Just a little bit more. We've only a few sentences to go."
"Please?"
"Thanks, Dear."

WILL PRAISE TOWNSFOLK . . .
You know, there are several persons around town who are doing a swell job and we surely want to tell you more about them before the jonquils peak their heads through the Spring soaked ground.

But right now we're being paged again, so here's the signoff . . .
"I'm comin', Pretty . . ."

Great Books Foundation
Highland Park Library is among the more than 150 organizations in the Chicago area that have joined with the Great Books Foundation to help sponsor adult groups; reading and discussing today's basic problems through the medium of the great books, according to a survey revealed here today.

The groups, which meet twice a month, drew about 6,000 adults from the Chicago area. Lawyers and doctors team with housewives and factory workers to discuss duty to the state as they read Plato's Apology, duty to the family as they study Shakespeare's Hamlet, and the problems of war and peace as they mull over Thucydides' History of the Peloponnesian War.

Waukegan Philharmonic Sponsors Annual Student Contest
The Waukegan Philharmonic Society is sponsoring its annual student contest to be held Saturday, March 27th in the Senior Building of Waukegan Township High School. As in previous years this contest is open to all music students in Lake County High schools. The two winners and four runners-up will receive cash awards, and will be given the privilege of appearing on the program of the fourth Philharmonic Concert, Sunday, April 25th, with the Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Ennio Bolognini, and the Concert Chorus directed by Leslie Gilkey.

It will be awarded to a student of high scholastic standing who would not be able to attend Smith College without financial assistance.

"Calling School" At Community Center

The Playground and Recreation Department of Highland Park announce the opening of a square dance "calling school" as soon as registration has been completed.

Plans are under way to have the group practice calling over the Public address. Age will not make too much difference. Old and young are invited to take part. Phone the Community Center to register. Classes will begin about the middle of February.
