

Deeps and Shallows

THE LONDON DERRIERE

Stop your grieving, my lovelies of old Piccadilly,
For the rare carbo-hydrates your bill-of-fare lacks.

Such a diet is thinning your curves, willy-nilly—
With the men in the background approving your slacks.
—Marmalade

WHEN YOU ARE TWO . . .

I don't believe I had much fun
When I was one;
I walked a bit and talked a bit,
And then was done.
But, oh—the things that you can do
When you are two!

I'm glad I'm two, this year, because
I caught a glimpse of Santa Claus;
And Santa was so very kind,
And left so many things behind,
That everything is so much fun.
I don't have time to walk—I run.

I listen to each nursery rhyme,
And know what's coming, every time;
I love to run and play outside,
Or take my dolly for a ride;
And while, at times, it's nice to hike,
At other times, I ride my bike.

I think life is such fun — don't you—
When you are two?

TO MY VALENTINE

1948 A. D. (Atomic Diversion)
My electronic darling, I love you,
My isotope, my chemical twin;
In the physicists' world no love fission occurs—
Let us fly there, my Uranium Queen;
There's a nuclear chain reactor
To slow down the betatron;
So the high cost of living, and also of loving,
We'll solve with a good cyclotron.
—Uncle Molecule

WE WONDER . . .

And then there's Percy Prior,
The photographer—an excellent young man.
But the question is—who was prior to Percy?
—Ponderous

Step Up, Amateurs—Your Services Are Needed At Center

"Amateurs are needed for the Amateur show to be presented at the Highwood Community center, February 21st at 8 p.m.," was the announcement made by Mrs. Ira Breakwell, chairman of the event. "Children from grade school through high school who can tap or ballet dance, sing, play any musical instrument, imitate, or give dramatic readings are eligible to participate," said Mrs. Breakwell.

The following were out for tryouts last Friday: Betty Calderelli, Janet Calibri, Yones Rabattini, Carol Ronchetto, Bill Altmann, Walter Benson, Merrill Feiker, Barbara Perry, Margaret Loesch, Leonore Bernardi, Nane Debellis, Leona Franzese, Clarence Baldine, Mona May, Virgil Ritaeca, Joyce and Don Dati, Cesare Calderelli, and Lou the comedian.

Tryouts will also be held February 13th at the Community center at 4 p.m.
Cash prizes will be given to all participants, as well as larger cash prizes to the first, second and third winners. Judges will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jensen of Lake Forest and Mrs. Glenn Watkins of Waukegan.

The master of ceremonies will be Mr. J. Jasper of Waukegan, who is well known for his dramatic abilities and who can give a great deal of life and fun to any kind of entertainment. He will have several tricks up his sleeves, one being a demonstration of a Woman getting up in the morning from the first "tch" to the last "tuck".

This Amateur show is being sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Wesley Methodist church, Highwood. The committee serving with the chairman, Mrs. Breakwell, are Mrs. Ruben Olson, Mrs. A. Baracani, Mrs. L. D. Fuller on advertising, and Mrs. Ray Suzzi, on tickets and publicity.

Any further information about the show may be had by calling any one of the above committee members.

Serves On Staff Of Stanford Daily

Among those serving on the staff of the Stanford Daily, of Stanford university, California, is Sandra J. Meitus of Highland Park. Members of the new staff began their duties on February 9.

Wisconsin Girl To Wed Grover Q. Grady, Jr.

Dean and Mrs. Mark H. Ingraham of Madison, Wisconsin, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Winnifred, to Grover Q. Grady, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Grady, of Eagle River, Wisconsin, and of Highland Park.

Miss Ingraham was graduated in 1946 from University of Colorado, where she studied labor economics. She is now employed by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal employees. Mr. Grady, a veteran who served with the army air corps during the war, is now a student in the Agricultural college at University of Wisconsin.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Ravinia Gardeners To Learn Of Witchcraft In Plants

Members of the Ravinia Garden club will hold their first meeting of the year on Friday evening, February 13, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Braeside school. Their husbands will be their guests.

A teatable of unusual beauty, decorated in the red and white colors of St. Valentine's Day, with a profusion of red carnations, is being planned by a number of hostesses, headed by Mrs. G. J. Frelinger, and including Mesdames C. Longford Felske, George Hadlock, C. Ray Phillips, Hamilton Winton and John Wilbor.

For the evening's speaker, Mrs. Wyatt Jacobs, program chairman, has secured Dr. Paul Voth, department of Botany of the university of Chicago, who will illustrate with colored slides his account of work being done in the growth regulation of plants. So remarkable are some of the results of their work that previous listeners are convinced that had he and his associates lived in Salem in olden times, they would have been burned as witches.

Campbell Chapter To Meet Feb. 18

A short business meeting of the Campbell chapter, OES, will be held on Feb. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic temple, to be followed by entertainment, a social hour and refreshments. Members are to be reminded of the membership contest.

Woman Journalist To Address Woman's Club Tuesday, February 17

One of the nation's outstanding women journalists, Genevieve Forbes Herrick, will appear before the members of the Highland Park Womans Club, Tuesday, February 17, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to present her interesting and informative lecture titled "A Newspaper Woman Looks at Her World."

Mrs. Herrick, past president of the Woman's National Press Association, is a product of the middle west having been born in Chicago and graduated from Northwestern University as well as having secured a Master's Degree in English from the University of Chicago. As a cub reporter with one of Chicago's largest daily newspapers she was sent to Ireland to pose as an Irish immigrant, returned in the steerage, was detained at Ellis Island and wrote a series of articles "exposing" conditions as she saw and experienced them. As a result of these stories she testified before Congress and was instrumental in bringing about needed revisions of Immigration laws and procedures.

For ten years while in Washington as a correspondent for a Chicago newspaper she wrote about national policies and personalities and became president of the Women's National Press Club, composed of more than 200 women writers from all parts of the country.

After working with the War Department during the recent war she was sent to Europe to observe and report on conditions in the American Zone of Occupied Germany and in England and France. She interviewed the "brass" and the "GI" and visited all of the Army installations having WAC Detachments. Her report on this trip has received Congressional consideration.

Mrs. Herrick's presentation before the Womans Club was arranged through the program committee of which Mrs. Sidney Frisch is chairman.

The Club's morning program on February 17 will feature Michael Bertolini in a series of impersonations. Bertolini is a graduate of Highland Park High School and has earned an enviable reputation for his abilities as an actor and was featured in one of the leading roles in "As The Night—The Day" given by the Highland Park Community Players in the auditorium of the Woman's Club on Wednesday and Thursday nights, February 11 and 12.

The Drama Committee of the Womans Club, Mrs. William Gooch, Chairman, is in charge of the morning session beginning at 10:15 A. M.

Junior Craftsmen Busy At Center

Activity in the junior craft club at the Highland Park Community Center is keeping children busy making bracelets, rings, pins of plastic, wooden bread boards, lamps, leather purses and pocketbooks. Three of the leading members of the class who are trying to outdo one another are Shirley Page, Bill Lowenthal and Buddy Kohler, all are outstanding craftsmen according to Ella Rasmussen their adult leader.

This class meets regularly each Saturday morning from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and is open to all grammar school children in Highland Park.

"Crib" Session For Oldsters and Partners

Cribbage will be featured tonight at the Highland Park Community Center for the oldsters. All interested (the "missus" too) are asked to be on hand for a "Crib" session that will start at 7:30 p.m. An instructor will be on hand for those who wish to learn the game.

Cards will be furnished but players are asked to bring their own boards.

Each Thursday will rotate with different card games such as pinocle, bridge, Gin Rummy and yuker, etc. with a tournament in the future if the interest warrants itself. Registration and information may be had by calling The Community Center, H. P. 2442.

Adult Art Classes Meet On Thursday

The adult art class for beginners as well as advanced artist is being held each Thursday morning at the Highland Park Community Center from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

All who are interested in painting, sketching in oils, water colors and pastels are invited to join. Information may be had by calling H. P. 2442. Miss Ella Rasmussen well known art instructor leads this group.

LEAP YEAR VALENTINES

Quincy Schryler
Head for the storm cellars, fellows! Valentine's Day's about here, and—Cupid help us hunted males, it's Leap Year!
How the gals feel today can be expressed by some of the following:

CAVE GIRL VALENTINE

I bin a love-starved female
Jest a-glowerin' in my den
For three long years, but brother—

HAPPY LEAP YEAR'S HERE AGAIN!

LITTLE GIRL APPROACH

Be my Valentine, doggone it!
Pretty please?
With sugar on it?

FROM THE HEART

Although some say it's puppy love
I know that isn't true;
Cuz I don't love no puppy!
DOGGONE IT, I love you!

CORNER DRUG STORE

You're sweet as a chochit soda,
Jist the nicest thing about,
But if you won't be my Valentine—
THEN TAKE YOUR DURN STRAW OUT!

Highland Parkers To Serve Social Agencies

Two Highland Park residents have been nominated for offices in the Chicago Council of Social Agencies. The formal election will be held at the council's thirty-third annual meeting to be held at noon Tuesday, February 17, in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Stevens.

The Highland Park residents who have been nominated for office are Mrs. Edwin J. Kuh Jr., of 134 Ravine drive, who is slated to become chairman of the nominating committee for the coming year, and William W. Hinshaw Jr., of 1408 Dean avenue, who has been nominated as a delegate-at-large for a three-year term on the council's board. Werner A. Wieboldt of 700 McDaniel avenue, another Highland Park resident, retains his membership on the council's board.

Highland Park Girls Win At Basketball

In an exhibition game played in the main gym at Fort Sheridan Sunday, February 8, the Highland Park girls basketball team defeated Deerfield girls by a score of 21 to 18.

Dorothy Berube high point scorer with 4 field goals and Barbara Britton followed with 2 field goals. Margaert McEwen scored 2 field goals for Deerfield.

Girls basketball is played each Thursday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at Lincoln School gym under the sponsorship of the Playground and Recreation Department. More girls teams are invited to play in these games.

Queen (King) For a Day

Hey kids, there's still time to compete for the titles of "King and Queen of Illinois Junior Conservation" and win a three-day trip to the International Sports, Travel and Boat Show at Navy Pier in Chicago during Feb. 27-March 7.

Here's all you do. Write a 200-word essay entitled "Why I believe in Conservation;" send it to Ben F. Luetz, 2111 North Western Ave., Chicago 47, not later than February 14. An extra two days have been allowed since the original Feb. 12.

The contest, open to all school children of Illinois between the ages of 13 and 17, is sponsored by the Cook County Council of the Illinois Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

Friday Meeting "For Men Only" At Wesley Methodist

"For Men Only" is the meeting which has been called for Friday, February 13th at Wesley Methodist church, on Highwood Avenue and Everts place, Highwood at 6:30 p.m. The purpose of this meeting is to organize a club for the men of the church. "While the women of the church have their ladies aid, the men just have nothing to do," stated the pastor, Mr. John Fisher. "This will afford an opportunity for the men to do something worthwhile also for the church and at the same time have fun doing so," Mr. Fisher further stated.

The meeting will start with a dinner, followed with a program and plenty of entertainment. The feature of the program will be the speaker, F. P. Fisher, the father of the pastor.

All men of the church are urged to attend and have an evening of fine fellowship.
