Women Voters To Hold Candidates Meeting March 25th

On March 25th Highland Park residents will have the opportunity to hear many of those men seeking nomination for national, state, and county offices on both the Democratic and Republican tickets. Under the auspices of the Deerfield branch of the Highland Park League of Women Voters a candidates meetings will be held at the Deerfield Grammar School, Deerfield Road east of Waukegan Road.

The meeting will open at 7:30 p.m. promptly with short talks by Adlai Stevenson, unopposed Democrat nominee for governor and Paul Douglas, unopposed Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate. Others who will speak are John Nuveen Jr., Stephen A. Day, and R. J. Whitehouse all Republicans running for Congress from the 13th District, and Willard C. Walters Democratic candidate for Congress. Acceptances have been received from most of the candidates for the State Assembly and for the county offices.

Mrs. J. L. Bayard Jr. will preside. Working with Mrs. Bayard on arrangements have been Mrs. Merritt H. Barnum and Mrs. Duane Swift. This will be the only opportunity that the public will have to hear and see the candidates prior to the primary elections. Everyone is invited and urged to attend.

Second Crossing Accident Within The Week

Last Saturday, at 6 p.m., Arthur J. O'Connor, 58, a civilian employee at Ft. Sheridan, while attempting to board a moving North Shore train at the Highwood avenue crossing, Highwood, suffered the loss of his right leg below the knee, and compound fractures of his left leg, when he fell under the train. He also suffered cuts about the head. Rushed to the Highland Park hospital, his condition was described as "satisfactory".

A veteran of World War I, O'Connor is a warehouseman at the Quartermaster-supply depot at Ft. Sheridan.

Last week's victim, Pvt. Daniel R. Tafelski, who was seriously injured on March 8, when struck by a train while crossing the tracks, is said to be improving. Although the gates were said to be down, and a warning whistle sounded, Tafelski evidently was unaware of the approaching train.

"Latin American Hour" At Ravinia Woman's Club

Members and guests of the Ravinia Woman's Club attending the twilight tea, Sunday March 21st at five o'clock, will find themselves momentarily transported to Latin America. The Arts committee headed by Mrs. Wyatt Jacobs and Mrs. C. Longford Felske who are in charge of this event will appear in costume and the Village House will be decorated to suggest a typical market square.

Kodachrome slides of Guatemala to be shown by Dr. Francis M. Yager will highlight the afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Yager visited Guatemala just a year ago during the Lenten season. Their slides depict not only the beauties of the country but many of the religious rites and festivals so characteristic of the Latin American people.

Two groups of amateur musicians have agreed to become strolling troubadours for the occasion and are busy practicing under the direction of Mrs. George Straub. Those counted on to appear in costume and provide incidental music are: Messrs Carl Herbst, I. S. Riggs, Charles Sprowl, Carl Howard, Judson Cross, James Barton, Joseph Bulmer and John Romer. A number of Spanish dances have been arranged by Miss Marjorie Keeny and will be presented by some of her students. In keeping with the Latin American theme the tea tables will be decorated with Mexican Callalilies and will abound with enchiladas, tortillas, and other Mexican food.

Members of the Arts Committee who will assist are: Mesdames William Alderman, Arthur Beldauf, John Barbee, Carl Bridgman, Herbert Carlson, Judson Cross, J. A. Davis, Leslie Delhaye, E. B. Elmore, James C. Ewell, Robert Farrell, Alfred Geigerich, Hugh Hemmingway, Haydn Jones, Lorenz Knouff, Paul Kuhn, Kenneth Kraft, V. E. Lawrence, Gordon Parkes, Byron Perreault, D. B. Robinson, Alain St. Cyr, George Spiel, H. J. Van Ornum, J. M. Watkins and Dudley Crafts Watson.

Deerfield Women To Hear Author On Botany

The speaker will be Mr. John Nash Ott, Jr. noted botanical authority. His subject will be "Flowers in Action" and it will be one of the most unique motion picture lectures. The picture is the result of a technique developed by Mr. Ott, over a period of twenty years.

Tea will be served following the lecture.

Mrs. Paul Pagett is president of the club.

Troop 324

By Life Scout Bill Cunyham On Tuesday night, March 9, Troop 324 met at the Presbyterian church for its weekly meeting. The troop held troop first aid meet to decide which patrols will represent 324 in the North Shore council first aid meet. The decision will be announced at a future meeting.

On Sunday afternoon, February 29, the troop held a day camp in the woods in the western part of Highland Park. About 25 Scouts attended this hike. The boys cooked their own lunches and then played several Scout games before hiking back to town. The troop hopes to have quite a few overnight hikes this spring.

Pi Deltas To Celebrate Twenty-first World Observance Day

The Pi Delta Business and Professional Women of the Highland Park Young Women's Christian Association, will attend the "Coming of Age" dinner meeting celebrating the 21st Anniversary of their World-Wide Observance Day program on Monday, March 22 at the Waukegan Y.W.C.A. This event, marking the 21st Anniversary of the one day set aside each year for special observance by white collar girls in the YWCA's of the world, will be celebrated simultaneously by the 60,000 members in the U.S.A. and those in 69 foreign countries where the organization is at work. Mrs. Jack Febel, chairman of the local Business and Professional Council, announced today.

This year's theme for World-Wide Observance program is "Growing-Up". In explaining the theme, Mrs. Febel said, "Growing Up" is of special significance to white collar girls in the YWCA of the world today. Twenty-one years ago we inaugurated our first World-Wide Observance. Today, twenty-one years later, we can point with pride to improvement of the status of the white collar girl and to her record as a responsible, contributing member of society.

Boy Boxers End Season With Farnsworth Bout

The Highland Park Boys' Boxing Club will display their Championship form the last time this season Saturday night at the Highland Park Gym against the "Farnsworth boys" club, with the first bout getting under way at 8:15 P. M.

From all indication this will be one of the finest exhibitions of boxing to be seen in the local arena this year, as both teams have been training daily, according to their coaches. Highland Park has not lost a bout this year but expects to be extended by the strong Farnsworth Club.

As an added attraction of the evening Gene Shea of Waukegan and local baton instructor will put on a baton twirling exhibition with his students who have been outstanding in the nation in their age groups.

Next Wednesday the local club will travel to Waukegan for their final bout of the season where they hope to conquer the championship of the 10th District American Legion Conference with an undefeated record.

Midwestern Writers' Conference To Fete First-Time Author

A party will be held by the Midwestern Writers' Conference at 8 p.m. on March 23 in Suite 833, 410 So. Michigan, Chicago, honoring a new book, "The Earth Is Ours", which will make its appearance on that day.

This book was the direct result of one of the prize contests of the Writers' Conference on "The Book I Should Like To Write." Receiving honorable mention in the contest, Mrs. Teal, a busy farm wife, completed her book, which was accepted by the Thomas Y. Crowell Company.

Guests of honor will include Mr. and Mrs. Teal, Robert Crowell, representing the publishers, and several other authors of this year's books.
