(SPECIAL TO THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS)

Repeat: Never Underestimate the Power of a Woman . . .
And
We're Off to the Waa-Mu Show!

Nope, you surely shouldn't underestimate the power of a woman . . . I thought I'd start off the column this week with some comments on the international scene.

But, no . . . The Lil' Corporal, (most folks know her as the former Pat Will), my new bride, and, incidentally, one of the best press agents I know, insists I write about her fine old alma mater, National Park College.

It seems the alumnae, members of the National Park Alumnae Foundation of Chicago, and their guests from the North Shore, are planning a big social event.

It's slated for Wednesday, May 12th, at 1 p.m. It's to be a luncheon and fashion showing. It'll be held at the beautiful Robert Jerome Cerny estate (you folks know it as the former Lasker estate), 196 Old Mill Road in Lake Forest.

TICKETS ARE SCARCE . . .

Now, in the writer's opinion, there's a new twist to this announcement.

Most affairs like this usually end up with more unsold than sold tickets.

But, not National Park's.

The charming National Park women, I'm told, have already sold most of the tickets and I hear hundreds are clamoring to attend.

But, says National Park, only 200 may come.

That's all. No more.

So, the event will be "exclusive" . . . but right nice, I guess.

Mrs. Bolter Holabird, likeable president of the foundation, tells the PRESS Angela Bartenbach is benefit chairman. Mrs. Alfred G. Kling is co-chairman.

Hostesses will be Mrs. John M. Bailey, Mrs. W. Keith Hofer, Mrs. George W. Harper, Mrs. Gerald William Bruce, Mrs. Ralph Van Petten and Mrs. Whitt Northmore Schultz.

DID YOU KNOW? . . .

Our pleasant society editor, Mrs. Alice Zabel, tells me there are two identical chapters in the Bible.

They are II Kings 19 and Isaiah 37.

Wonder how this happened? Any Biblical students out front who can clear up this matter?

ON BYRD . . .

"What a man!" "Imagine, 70 medals, including the Congressional Medal of Honor!"

"What thrilling experiences he has had!" Those are just a few of the words heard last week after the pictorial-lecture of Adm. Byrd.

Antarctica is 10,000 feet high. It's 50 degrees colder there than it is at the North Pole. There are vast, untouched resources in this great, uncharted land. It's bigger than Europe and the United States combined.

No woman has ever set foot there. "And, therefore, it's the quietest spot in the whole world!" (Quotes are Byrd's!)

Continuing in a serious mood,
