To Present Program To Other Schools

The Ravinia School tumbling team made up of girls in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades presented a program at West Ridge School on Thursday, April 22nd and at Elm Place School on Tuesday, April 27th. Mr. Dudley Dewey is the leader of this group.

The girls presented their excellent show for the Ravinia School students on Friday, April 2nd. They are presenting it at other schools as a means of developing a better spirit between the schools of Highland Park. Exchanging assemblies gives children at the elementary school level an opportunity to give to one another, rather than to make the only contacts between the schools those of competitive sports.

The girls, who form the team, are:

8th—Carol Secrest, Joy Stein, Fillis Schaffner, Barbara Simon, Naomi Cassel, Zana Willison, Lois Rae Limberg, Donna Engelbrekt and Jacqueline Hawley.

7th—Toni Murphey, Sheila Sheridan, Gail Porges, Judy Easton, Nancy Dinelli, Kathleen Skidmore, Cathy Stair, Lynn Elliott, Terry Hamm, Margerie Ellman, Winona Bell, Frances Cimbalo, Lila Hedlund, Terry Loevenhart and Nancy Behr.

6th—Sue Leonard, Jeanette Stuppel, Doris DeVlieg and Audra Furrow.

Flowers Plentiful For Mother's Day

One could hardly avoid knowing that Sunday, May 9, will be Mothers' day, and that for something personal and flattering Mother wants flowers that day.

Local flower shops are particularly well stocked, and the prices are lower than at Mothers' day last year.

Flowers never fail to please Momma, whether red roses, lovely miniature roses a carnation corsage, orchids or gardenias.

Lavender orchids are reasonably priced this year, although the luscious hybrid orchids run into a little more money.

For a party reasonable varieties are snapdragons, double-flowering sticks, sweet peas and gorgeous tulips.
