

Let's Take a Look

By
WHITT NORTHMORE SCHULTZ

(SPECIAL TO THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS) All Things Considered

These are full, busy weeks
Marital life surely is different from bachelordom.
Decidedly different.
Time seems to rush by.
As a single man, time sorta ambled along
Take now for instance. It's 5 A.M. on a rainy Sunday—the first chance I've had all week to sit down and have a chat with you folks out front

My bride sleeps soundly in her very feminine bedroom dreaming, no doubt, of a new dress she bought . . . or is about to buy!
Or about San Pedro's wonderfully tasty French dressing she's trying to duplicate.
Or, perhaps, about the good bread she bakes me bi-weekly.
Or, perhaps, she's dreaming about how she can re-arrange my study

ASSEMBLES THOUGHTS
At any rate, it's now time to collect nebulous thoughts and assemble them into column form

So, let's take a look at the week, beginning last Sunday
Honored indeed was I when informed I'd be god father to a cute new baby, Marjorie Jean Rees, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rees of Winchester, Ky.

Mrs. Rees, a pretty and vivacious young mother, is the former Marjorie Jean Weber, younger daughter of the Peter J. F. Webers, of Ridgewood Dr.

Bill Rees, her talented, hard-working husband, and an ex-Army officer, owns a successful printing business in Winchester.

The whole junior Rees family—Marge, Bill, "Mitch" and baby Margie—were up here for about one week, visiting friends. And the Sunday before last was picked as christening day for Marjorie Jean, junior grade.

JUNE WAS GODMOTHER
June Weber was godmother. The Reverend Charles U. Harris officiated.

Briefing us before "Operation Christening," Rev. Harris told of the god parents' responsibilities, extremely important, in my opinion, to the proper growth of a child.

God parents, I learn, are charged with the duty of seeing to a child's spiritual growth—and can you think of a more important job?

We speak for her now. We make certain she attends church school as she grows older. And we see that she's confirmed. Each a highly responsible duty, don't you think?
