BACK IN NAVAL AIR CORPS
"Bill" Cope, son of Mrs. Walter Cope of 645 Vine avenue, has returned to service in the Navy Air corps with the rank of Lieutenant (j.g.), the same rank he held at the time of his release from three years' service, following the war. A navy pilot, "Bill" will be an instructor, stationed at Glenview. He is the fiance of Miss Shirley Brown, daughter of Mrs. Richard Bond Curry of 709 Ridgewood drive. He recently was employed at the Highland Park PRESS.

HOME FROM VASSAR

Home from her studies at Vassar college, where she has just finished her freshman year, is Miss Lillian "Lee" Florsheim, daughter of the Leonard S. Florsheims of 888 S. Green Bay road. The Florsheims have just recently opened their home for the summer, after four weeks spent in Honolulu, and two weeks, in Los Angeles.

BENEFIT BRIDGE

The North Shore alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta will hold a benefit dessert-bridge to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Iris Meyers in Indian Hill, to raise funds for the sorority's work for spastic children. Equipment for the Haven school in Evanston is the aim of this party.

Among Highland Parkers entertaining at the affair are Mrs. R. C. Ferguson of 608 Delta road and Mrs. Frank Peazey of Fort Sheridan, who have each taken a table, and Mrs. Walter H. Pagenkopf of 812 Waverly road, who has taken two tables.

On June 14, the final meeting of the year, the year's work will be concluded and the bridge marathon, held for the same benefit, will be ended. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Pagenkopf, retiring president.

SANDRA DAMM, A BRIDE

The Rev. Herbert Linden of the Zion Lutheran church heard the exchange of nuptial vows when Miss Sandra Damm, daughter of the Edward Damms of Glenview avenue, became the bride of Cassius Baldwin Easton, Jr., of 32 Michigan avenue, son of Cassium B. Easton of Deerfield and the late Mrs. Easton, on Sunday, May 16. The 4:00 p.m. service was read at the home of the bride's parents with only relatives and a few intimate friends in attendance.

The bride wore a white satin gown made with a train. Gardenias and white roses were in her hair and also made up the corsage pinned to her dress.

Miss Mayme Ruth Simpson of Chicago, who attended the bride, wore a light blue suit and matching hat. Her corsage was of pink roses. Lawrence Willis served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Damm wore a brown dress, complemented by a corsage of pink and white carnations, for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Allen Harder, at whose home he resides, wore a brown suit. She, too, wore a corsage of pink and white carnations. The wedding guests remained for a reception. Mr. Easton and his bride will reside in Highland Park.

BACK HOME

Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Mayo of 484 Sheridan place have returned home after spending the winter in Mount Dora, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kral of Highland Park have returned home after a three months' trailer trip to Arizona and New Mexico.

EVAUGHN HUMER WEDS

The marriage of Miss Evaughn Leona Humer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Humer of 313 McDaniels avenue, and Dudley LeRoy Clausing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Clausing of Wilmette, took place on May 15, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Nuptial vows were exchanged at the Bethany Evangelical church, with the Rev. Alvin Kniker of St. Johns Evangelical Church reading the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white summer taffeta gown made with a tight fitting bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves. Her veil fell fingertip length from a scalloped crown of beads, to follow the outline of dress. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Katherine Marie Humer, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a Nile green tissue faille gown, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations edged with split white carnations. The same flowers were worn in her hair. Miss Patricia Ann Clausing, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Muriel Ruth Hansen were bridesmaids. Their gowns, bouquets and headdresses were identical to the maid of honor's.

Zane Zaaf of Chicago served as best man, and Ferdinand Humer, brother of the bride, and Charles Mitchell, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a grey dinner dress and white flowered hat. Her corsage was of white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink-beige gown. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses with the same flowers worn in her hair.

Mrs. E. H. Amick (Audrey Wessling) sang "At Dawning" and "Song Through the Years" before the ceremony, and "Because", immediately following the marriage.

A reception for 125 guests, held at the Highland Park Woman's club, followed the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Robinson of Cynnet, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Aryl Alder of Elmhurst; Mrs. Herman Voigt of Appleton, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kersten of Rochester, Minnesota; Miss Lois Knudsen of Peoria, Illinois; Mrs. Oscar Voigt of Kiel, Wisconsin; and Arnold Weinstein, also of Kiel.

Following a ten days' honeymoon in Indiana, Mr. Clausing and his bride will reside in their boat, the Atlanta, III, anchored at Belmont Harbor, Chicago, until they find an apartment.

VISITING IN IOWA

Mrs. Wesley Crossley and son, Brian, of Ravinia are spending the ten days in Davenport, Des Moines and northern Iowa visiting relatives.

25th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

In honor of her twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, which will take place on May 24th, Mrs. W. E. Hundley of 635 Homewood avenue was guest of honor at the meeting of the Dorcas Society of the Redeemer Lutheran church, last Tuesday. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ted Balz of 232 N. Second street.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

In honor of her second birthday, little Martha Meincke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meincke of 746 Cloverdale avenue, entertained several little friends at an afternoon party on Tuesday.

Arthur J. Brown, Jr., was host to the entire first grade of the Immaculate Conception school at a hayrack party recently. The occasion was his seventh birthday. He is the son of the Arthur J. Browns of 517 W. Park avenue.

RETURN TO ALASKA

Mrs. Harry Chambers of Anchorage, Alaska, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Augusta Krueger of McDaniels avenue, for the past month has returned home. She, her husband, and son, Harry, Jr., former Highland Parkers, have been residing in Alaska for the past two years. Another son, Jerry, accompanied Mrs. Chambers on her return. Both trips were by plane.

WEDDING DATE CHOSEN

July 10 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Winifred Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Humphreys of 107 S. Green Bay road, and John A. Schwalbe, son of the Walter Schwalbes of Waukegan. The ceremony will take place at the rectory of the Immaculate Conception church at 5:30 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Dorothy Dever will attend the bride as maid of honor, and Walter Schwalbe, Jr., will serve his brother as best man.

A dinner for immediate families and bridal party will be held at the Deerpath Inn, Lake Forest, following the ceremony. A reception will be held at Witten's hall at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

VISITING WEST COAST

Mr. B. Severi, local photographer, of 571 Central avenue, is leaving this week for an extended trip to the west coast. Besides visiting Washington, Nevada and California, he plans to study color photography in San Francisco. He will be gone about three months.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Fiocchi of 373 Bloom street announce the engagement of their daughter, Elsa Louise, to Harold A. Enstrom, Jr., son of the H. A. Enstroms of 342 Ashland avenue, Highwood.

The wedding will take place early next year.

SHOWER

In honor of Mrs. Michael Hadjuk of 631 Onwentsia avenue, Mrs. Edward Olson of 330 Sunnyside avenue was hostess at a shower last Wednesday evening.

LENA SANTELLO TO MARRY

St. James church, Highwood, will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Lena Santello, daughter of the William Santellos of 435 Funston avenue, and Anthony Scopelliti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scopelliti of North avenue, on Saturday, May 22, at 9:30 a'clock in the morning, the Rev. Gleeson reading the service.

The bride, who will be gowned in a copy of the wedding dress worn by Princess Elizabeth, will be given in marriage by her father. The hand beaded gown of white slipper satin has a long train, also with hand beaded designs. The full length veil trimmed with orange blossoms, falls from a crown headdress. She will carry white roses.

The taffeta attendants' gowns made with fitted bodices, full ballerina skirts and cap sleeves and yokes of lace, were designed and made by two of the bridesmaids, the Misses Julia and Sally Ziccardelli of Chicago. Miss Nancy Cantagallo of Highwood will be the other bridesmaid, while Miss Carmella Santello, sister of the bride, will attend as maid of honor. Her gown will be pink, while the other girls will be in pale blue. They will wear lace gloves and carry sweetheart roses.

Best man will be Louis Santello, brother of the bride, and the ushers will be Joe Santello, another brother, Roy Sheryon and Domenic Nutile of Chicago.

The bride's mother has chosen a blue and pink print dress for her daughter's wedding, and an aqua gown for the reception which will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Highwood Community Center. It is hoped that the bridegroom's mother, who has been in Italy, will arrive in time for the wedding.

Miss Laura Cantagallo will sing "Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus" accompanied by The Rev. Richard Sherlock of De Paul University.

A breakfast for the immediate families and the bridal party will be held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. A dinner for sixty, also at the home, will be held in the afternoon.

After a week's honeymoon, the young couple will reside in Highwood.
