KELLY-DIGANI NUPTIALS

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday, May 15, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the Immaculate Conception church, when Miss Josephine Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kelly of Fall City, Nebraska, and Oswald Digani, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Digani of Highwood, were united in marriage. The Rev. O'Connell heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride's brother, John Kelly, a student at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, gave his sister in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a princess style satin gown, made with a long train. Buttons trimmed the full length sleeves. Her veil hung floor length from a crown headdress. The bouquet she carried was of white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

The bride's sisters, Miss Rita of Joliet attended as maid of honor, and Miss Jean of Fall City and Miss Margaret of Highland Park, as bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in powder blue with matching organdy picture hats. They carried pink roses.

Sargo Digani served his brother as best man and Richard Bartoni and Primo Cabbri ushered.

The bride's mother was in grey with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue print dress. Her accessories were also navy blue, and she, too, wore a gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy in Fall City and attended Nebraska State Teachers' college for three years. She is a member of Gamma Chi Gamma sorority. She is now employed at the Florence Beach Candy Shop. Mr. Digani is a graduate of the Highland Park high school and is now in Civil Service at Fort Sheridan.

A reception was held at the Sunset Valley club for the immediate families and a very few friends.

After a wedding trip to the Ozarks, Mr. Digani and his bride are now residing at 313 Grove avenue, Highwood.
