

Let's Take a Look

WHITT NORTHMORE SCHULTZ

(SPECIAL TO THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS)

Thanks, Kiwanians, For A Fine Home Show!

What's more important than a happy home?
I know of nothing.

If all homes were happy over the world, peace would be here always.

Highland Park's capable Kiwanians deserve great credit for bringing their positive Home Show to Highland Park—our first, by the way.

It was a good show and it was fine seeing all you Highland Parkers there looking over the attractive exhibits of our merchants, listening while they explained how you could make your home prettier, more liveable, happier.

So, Kiwanians, thanks again for showing us newlyweds how we can make our home even happier.

REMEMBER . . .

Thanks to my new Dad-in-law, the Reverend Benjamin M. Will, pastor of the beautiful "Country Church in the City," who so vividly told us last Sunday how important all of us are to one another.

"We need God," Rev. Will said, adding, "and God needs us; He needs us just as much as we need one another."

There's great wisdom in those words, Highland Parkers.

Mull them over.

Isn't it really true how much we need God and one another?

DO YOU FORGET? . . .

If you're like I am, you've got to remember a lot of little things—and some big ones, too!—everyday.

And, if you're human, you often find yourself forgetting these things, too.

Like, for example, making a reservation; or calling a friend about that golf date you made last week; paying a bill; buying ice cream before you come home; taking the laundry up—or picking it up; buying gas for your car; ordering oil (a wise move, by the way); writing a "thank-you" note; and so on.

Well, thanks to my Dad, I've adopted this method of remembering. It's passed on to you without charge.

I hope it helps you as much as it has helped me.

Dad writes himself notes.

Remembering is as simple as that.

TYPICAL NOTES . . .

Dad's typical notes, put in places where you either see them constantly or step on them often until the job is accomplished, are:

"Shirts" — meaning to buy shirts.

"Oil" — meaning to order oil.

"Tickets" — meaning to order tickets for the theater.

"Fred" — meaning to call our gardener to ask him to come down and cut the grass.

And so on.

Small slips of paper, put in strategic spots, often seen, often passed during the day, keep reminding my Dad of things he wants to remember.

REMARKABLE MEMORY . . .

Dad's memory is remarkable—thanks to the help of these helpful notes.

During the past 27 years I don't know of one time my Dad has forgotten to do something I've asked him to do.

A real record, I think!

Try this note-remembering-system, Highland Parkers.

It'll help you.

WE CAN DO WITHOUT DEPT.

Glancing back over columns of one year ago, I note it's time once again to write my annual "We - Can - Do-Without-It-And-Them Department."

This, you'll remember, is a bit we dedicate each year to our few (thank goodness!) negativists out front to let them know there are a few things we DON'T like. . . .

To begin with, we can get awfully angry at those careless folks who:

1. Park too close to our car and then. . . .

2. Proceed to push open their car doors with such force that large, expensive-to-repair nicks result in our fenders.

DISLIKES MODERN FURNITURE . . .

And we don't like modern furniture at all.

Nor do we like: Chocolate-covered cherries . . . Chicago streets . . . Folks who chain smoke and leave their ashes and cigarette butts all over . . . Rhubarb pie . . .

Swearing—anytime, anywhere . . . Esquire magazine, most of the time . . . Uncomfortable movie seats . . . And, yes, those folks who chatter while a movie flickers.

And while we're on this subject, we detest card games—a stupid waste of time when there are so many good books to read . . . so many important things to accomplish.

IMPOLITENESS . . .

And we don't like parents who shout at their children . . . or discourteous children . . . or impolite grownups, for that matter.

And, finally, we don't like to hear baseball on the radio or Phil Harris, either.

And that's enough negative copy for all of 1948. . . .

Robbie Lou Schneider Weds At Ripon, Wis.

Ripon, Wis.—Miss Robbie Lou Schneider, Highland Park, Ill., became the bride of Albert W. H. Ashworth, Des Moines, Ia., in a quiet ceremony at 8:45 a.m. Saturday, June 5. Dr. Frederick D. Butler, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, Ripon, read the nuptials.

Attendants for the couple were Dr. Ruth Staley and Dr. J. B. Priestley of the Ripon college faculty. The bride is a member of the staff of the mathematics department at Iowa State Teachers College, and the groom is a history instructor at Ripon College.

The couple left shortly after the ceremonies for a wedding trip to Massachusetts and Nova Scotia.

Alice Rossiter, 1871 Lyman Court, and Jane Straub, 2360 Lakeside Place, were among the 175 Lawrence college students who received bachelor's degrees at the end of the college's 101st year on June 13.

Receiving the B.A. degree, Alice is a member of the Kappa Alpha Thets sorority and of the Spanish club. She has been an active participant in women's athletics.

Also receiving the B.A. degree, Jane is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, serving as their rushing chairman, as well as a member of the Spanish club, treasurer of the Lawrence Women's Association and publicity chairman of the Women's Recreational Association.
