

Socials

By ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

MARY APPEL, A BRIDE

Trinity Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Appel and Frank Anthony Swingle on Saturday, June 26, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Zerkes read the service in the absence of the Rev. Harris. The bride is the daughter of the V. O. Appels of 181 Vine avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Walter Tennyson Swingles of Washington, D. C.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in Swiss embroidered organdy, made with a high neck, long fitted sleeves, tight bodice, full skirt and long full train. Her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Appel, sister of the bride. Her gown of yellow taffeta was complemented by a bouquet of matching carnations. The bridesmaids, the Misses Mary McCormick and Nancy Rung of Rome, New York, roommates of the bride at Wells college, Patricia D'Ancona and Mrs. Russell P. Kelly (Jennifer Turner), were gowned exactly as the maid of honor, except that their dresses and matching carnations were pale green.

Best man was Stanley Reid, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and ushers were Mason Armstrong of Highland Park, McFall Kirby, Jr., Richard Littauer, David Norris, Robert Parrot and Warner Spitz of Washington, D. C.

The bride's mother was in grey lace, as was the bridegroom's mother. Mrs. Appel's hat and accessories were green. The orchids at her shoulder were the same shade of green. Mrs. Swingle's hat and accessories were orchid and her corsage was an orchid.

About four hundred guests attended the reception at the Appel home following the ceremony.

Mr. Swingle and his bride are now in Ithaca, New York, where they will reside. A California holiday is planned for later in the summer. In September the young couple plan to return to Cornell college, she as a senior, and he, to do post graduate work toward his master's degree. He graduated from Cornell in June and she finished her junior year at Wells college.

DEBUT TEA

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Ames W. Ross of 21 Brittany road will present their daughter, Janine, to their friends at a tea at their home. Following the tea, Miss Ross' uncle and aunt, the Walter Rosses of Lake Forest will entertain at dinner and dancing for the debutante, her assistants and their escorts. Miss Ross was graduated in June from Ogontz school in Pennsylvania and is planning to specialize in art at the School of the Art Institute.

Assisting Miss Ross will be two Ogontz classmates, Miss Sally McAllister of Kansas City, Missouri, and Miss Barbara Somers of New York City and Califon, New Jersey; Miss Mary Ellen Parrish of Richmond, Virginia; the Misses Meleste Benedict and Barbara La Rochelle of Lake Forest; and the Misses Deborah Bissell and Harriet Dawes of Chicago.

TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

A surprise party was held last Friday at the Redeemer Lutheran church in honor of two couples who recently celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversaries. One of the couples, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Mager of 360 Walker avenue, lived in Highland Park for the past fifteen years. Married in Wurzburg, Germany, they came to this country twenty years ago. They have a daughter, Christine, 22.

The other couple, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hagen of Homewood avenue, has lived here for twenty-three years. Married on June 23 in Cambria, Wisconsin, they are the parents of two sons, Marcus, Jr. and Richard.

WEEK-END IN WISCONSIN

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Olson of Central avenue, their son and daughter-in-law and granddaughter, the Brandt Olsons and Barbara of S. Second street, are leaving today for a week-end visit in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, with Mr. Olson's relatives.

RUTH FLEAGER WEDS

When Miss Ruth Elise Fleager, daughter of the Samuel B. Fleagers of 336 Prospect avenue became the bride of Richard Charles Simpkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Simpkins of Kenmore, New York, she wore a wedding gown of traditional white satin made with a very long train. The full length veil she wore fell from a lace cap which has been used for three generations in the family of Mrs. Warren Lane, one of the bridesmaids. She carried white roses and stephanotis. Her father gave her in marriage. The wedding which took place at the Trinity church on Saturday, June 26, was solemnized by the Rev. Zerkes.

Miss Mary Fleager was her sister's maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Muriel Simpkins, Mrs. Lane of New York City, and Mrs. B. H. Burns of New Albany, Indiana, were bridesmaids. Miss Fleager and Miss Simpkins were gowned alike in orchid marquisette with matching poke bonnets, while Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Burns were similarly dressed in aqua colof. The nosegays they carried were of baby pink carnations and blue statice.

Best man was Roland Henri Siebens of Toledo, Ohio, and the ushers were Robert Simpkins, brother of the bridegroom, James Fleager, brother of the bride, and William Lyon of Chicago and Lake Geneva.

The bride's mother chose a rose colored gown for the occasion. Her corsage was of deep red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore aqua with white roses.

The bride is a graduate of De Pauw university and the Sorbonne in Paris. She and her husband met when both were in Berlin last year with the American occupation forces. He is a former naval intelligence officer. She is now language editor for a New York textbook publisher. Mr. Simpkins was graduated in June from Oberlin college. The couple will reside in New York where he plans to attend the graduate school of Columbia university.

About fifty guests attended the garden reception held at the Fleager home, following the ceremony. The young couple is now on a honeymoon trip to northern Wisconsin.

SOUTH AFRICAN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor of East London, South Africa, spent two weeks of their seven month trip visiting with his brother-in-law and sister, the Fred Pugsleys, who are owners with Mrs. Davis of the Highland Park Trading Post. Mrs. Pugsley, who hadn't seen her brother in eleven years, and their sister, Mrs. Hugh Lemon of Mill Grove, Ontario, Canada, who hadn't seen him in almost thirty years, met the boat in New York.

The Taylors are now visiting in Ontario. They plan to spend some time in Quebec and Halifax before they set sail from Newfoundland for Liverpool. In a new car, purchased and waiting there for them they will drive to Scotland to visit his mother. Before they return to Africa in October, by way of the Mediterranean and Suez Canal, they will spend a month in London.

BACK HOME

Back home from a ten day visit with her parents in Polk, Nebraska, is Mrs. Ralph Anschuetz of Broadview avenue. Her brother, Ted Alfred, who just finished his junior year at Doane college, returned with her for a visit.

Mrs. Anschuetz accompanied her niece, Elizabeth Dunlap, from Chicago to Nebraska for a few weeks' stay with her grandparents there. Elizabeth's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dunlap of New Orleans, plan to drive to Nebraska soon to take her with them for a vacation in the Ozarks and back to Louisiana for the rest of the summer, before she returns to school in Boston in the fall.

Mrs. Philip Schreiber of 520 Glencoe avenue returned home this week from a two weeks' visit in Washington, D. C. with Mrs. George Vetter, formerly of Highland Park, who is now making her home in Silver Springs, Md., with her son-in-law and daughter, the Arthur Johnsons.

GALITZ-DELANEY NUPTIALS

The Rev. O'Connell heard the exchange of nuptial vows on Saturday, June 26 at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Immaculate Conception church, when Miss Ruth Jane Galitz became the bride of John L. Delaney. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Galitz of Northmoor road and the bridegroom is the son of the James L. Delaneys of Mason City, Iowa.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown made with a lace bodice and full marquisette skirt. The bouquet she carried was of white roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Galitz, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Francis Modra of Mason City, Iowa, acted as matron of honor. Their gowns were of yellow taf-

For the first time in many years, our baseball team won the Illinois State high school district tournament, at Waukegan. Going into the tournament with 4 wins and 14 losses, the "Little Giants" beat Waukegan by a score of 5 to 4 for their first win. The next day, the "Little Giants" defeated Zion-Benton, 6 to 0.

In the district final, the team took on a strong aggregation from Dundee, whom they beat in a twelve inning struggle by a score of 4 to 3. Bob Flammer struck out 12 batters and scored the winning run. The highlight of the game was a perfect throw by Jim McDermott, left fielder for Highland Park, in the tenth inning to cut down the winning run at the plate after a catch. In the first game of the sectional tournament, the "Little Giants" lost to a strong East Rockford team by a score of 4 to 2 in an extra inning game.

FIRST ROW—left to right—Heimerlinger, D. Therrien, Allen, Piacentini, Greco, Peters, Sordyl, and DeBartolo. SECOND ROW—Spahr, Magnani, E. Therrien, Newcomb, McDermott, Gooseman, Armstrong, Plummer, and Pettis. THIRD ROW—Coach Grover, Siegle, Notz, Zenzola, Thom, O'Connor, Sheahan, Harris, and Strom (Manager).

—Photo by Henry X. Arenberg

Highland Park High Baseball Squad

feta and they carried yellow roses. Judy Ulrich, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She, too, was in yellow taffeta. On her head was a halo of yellow roses and she carried a basket of the same petals.

Best man was Gene O'Brien of Mason City and the ushers were Harold Carlson of Highland Park and Francis Modra of Mason City.

The bride's mother wore a grey print dress with a white hat and accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in pink with a navy blue hat and accessories. Each wore a gardenia corsage.

A reception followed at the Highland Park Woman's club. About one hundred and fifty attended.

Both Mr. Delaney and his bride attended Iowa State university, from which he was graduated this past month. During the war he served for five years with the army, most of that time in the Pacific theatre.

Following a two weeks' honeymoon at Colorado Springs, Colorado, the young couple will reside in Artee, New Mexico.

IN NEW HOMES

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Vetter (Helen Kee) and baby daughter, Marsha Louise, born on June 6, have moved into the home they recently built in Northfield.

Also in their recently completed home at 94 Elmwood drive, are the Milo D. Larsons and their sons, Dean and Denny. Mrs. Larson's mother, Mrs. E. Fulkerson, resides with them.

FOURTH OF JULY WEEK-END

Mr. and Mrs. John Nizzi and son-in-law and daughter, the Sylvester Reitmeyers and their infant son, Stephen, of 230 McDaniels avenue, are leaving to-morrow to spend the Fourth of July week-end in Whitelaw, Wisconsin, visiting with Mr. Reitmeyer's parents, the Fred Reitmeyers, and his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Reitmeyer, who will have her first glimpse of her great grandson.

MARY EMERSON WEDS

Miss Mary Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harold of Covington, Kentucky, and Daniel C. Nanni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nanni of 118 North avenue, Highland, were united in marriage on Saturday, June 26, at 11:00 o'clock in the morning, the Rev. Kuehn of the Church of the Covenant, Lake Forest, officiating.

The bride, who wore a two piece white pique suit, and a corsage of yellow and red roses and white carnations, carried a white Bible.

Miss Elizabeth Patrick attended the bride as maid of honor. Her gown was pink and her corsage was of red roses and white carnations. Mrs. Harold Montecchi, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Her gown was of beige, and her corsage like that of the maid of honor.

Harold Montecchi served his brother-in-law as best man.

Since the bride's mother was unable to attend, Mrs. Floyd Patrick, at whose home the bride resided, took her place. She was in aqua with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Nanni chose a white dress for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

A wedding supper for twenty-two members of the immediate families, was held at the church in the evening.

Mr. Nanni and his bride are now in Kentucky visiting with the the little flower girl, was in pale green dotted swiss, and on her head was a crown of daisies. The basket she carried was filled with the same flowers.

Robert Sumeriski, brother of the bride, served as best man, and James Minorini and Donald Gieser, ushers.

A reception was held at the Young Men's club, Lake Forest, following the ceremony. The wedding date was also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents and the birthday of her grandfather, George Kneib, of Lake Forest.

The bride's mother was in pale blue complemented by a white hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white print dress. Her corsage, also, was of carnations.

After a two weeks' honeymoon, Mr. Minorini and his bride will reside in Lake Forest.

TO NEW YORK FOR SUMMER

Mrs. F. D. Austin of Ravinia is leaving today for her summer home in Calicoon, New York, where she will spend the next few months.

IRENE SIENSA MARRIES

The wedding of Miss Irene Siensa, daughter of Victor Siensa of 614 Railway avenue, Highwood, and Mario Nannini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nannini of North avenue, took place at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, on Saturday, June 26.

The bride was lovely in a long white dress made with a cuffed hipline and draped sleeves. On her head was a half halo of white net. Her fingerless gloves were with lily petal wrists. At her shoulder she wore a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Harold Henry of Wheeling, maid of honor, wore pink marquisette, and her corsage was of white carnations. Victor Siensa, brother of the bride, served as best man.

A reception for two hundred people was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, the Peter Pilicrinis of 615 Railway avenue.

After a two weeks' vacation at the Dells, Wisconsin, Mr. Nannini and his bride will reside at 614 Railway avenue.

IN WISCONSIN

Visiting in Ellison Bay, Wisconsin, is Mrs. E. Fulkerson of 94 Elmwood drive. She will spend most of the summer there visiting with her daughter, Mertha. She recently returned from South Bend, Indiana, where she went to attend the funeral of her sister.

PHILIP MINORINI TAKES A BRIDE

The First Presbyterian church of Lake Forest was the scene of the wedding of Miss Beverly Sumeriska, daughter of the Harold Sumeriskis of Lake Forest, and T. Philip Minorini, son of Mrs. Josephine Minorini of 1036 Fort Sheridan avenue, on Saturday evening June 26.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown made with a long train. Rows of ruffles were revealed where the skirt was caught up in two places. The fingertip veil she wore fell from a coronet headdress. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The attendants of the bride were all gowned alike in yellow dotted swiss, and the bouquets they carried were of peach gladioli and daisies. Miss Marjorie Benson of Lake Forest was maid of honor, and Mrs. James Minorini, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Betty Lunsted of Lake Forest were bridesmaids. Dorothy Nicoll, Abrahams of 2301 South Sheridan road.

VISITING IN INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tippey with their children, Susan and Stefan, of 310 Egandale road left last Saturday for Logansport, Indiana, visiting his mother's farm at the edge of town. The Tippey's older daughter, Marilyn, left a week earlier for Indiana.

"500" CLUB TO MEET

The "500" Club will meet Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Larson of 133 S. Green Bay road.

ATTENDS WELLESLEY REUNION

Mrs. Frank B. Wales of 538 Forest avenue was among the 1300 alumnae attending reunions at Wellesley college from Sunday, June 13, to Tuesday, June 15.

HIGHLAND PARK GIRLS TO ATTEND SMITH COLLEGE

Among the North Shore girls who have received notification that they have been accepted as freshmen at Smith College for the coming school year are: Eunice Helmsold, 2524 North Memorial chapel was Bertram

(Continued on page 6)

Cream in ev'ry drop of
BOWMAN
HOMOGENIZED, VITAMIN D
MILK
COUNTRY FRESH...
10 TIMES TESTED

BOWMAN MILK IS WHOLE MILK
nothing taken out... only vitamin D added

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES DAILY

WE SERVE
Country Clubs, Institutions, Restaurants, Churches,
Schools and Stores

DAILY DELIVERY

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
DEERFIELD PRODUCE CO.
WHALESALE

228 North St. Johns Highland Park
4405 — Phone — 4406