School Board Seeks Housing For Teachers

One of the major problems in attracting teachers to Highland Park is the lack of housing facilities to teachers new to our community. While housing problem is difficult for all persons, teachers coming from other communities and strangers to our community have a particularly difficult problem in becoming settled and finding suitable quarters.

The major need is for small, inexpensive one to four room apartments suitable for small families or for two teachers. There is also a need for rooms, particularly where cooking privileges are available. However, the major need is for small apartments that might be available in the community.

One of the best ways in which the residents of the district can help schools to attract outstanding teachers is to let the Board of Education know of any facilities that might be available to teachers for the coming school year. The Board would appreciate it if you would call the Board Office, Highland Park 1062, or if you would send a note to the Board of Education, giving details or any information about places that might be available.

Telephone Office To Close On Saturdays
At Noon

Hours for transacting business with the company on other days will remain the same; Eight in the morning to 5:00 in the afternoon Mondays through Fridays. There is an after-hour depository at the front door of the Business Office available for public use at all times, Knox said.

Chicago Railroad Fair
Announces Essay Contest

If you can write essays you stand a good chance to pick up some extra money this summer in connection with the Santa Fe Railway's Indian Village exhibit at the first Chicago Railroad Fair, according to Lee Lyles, assistant to the president of the Railway.

In announcing the contest recently, Lyles stated the contest is open to high school students within a radius of 50 miles of Chicago. The theme of the essay will be "The Southwestern Indians — Their Customs and Habits" as portrayed in the Santa Fe Indian Village exhibit.

The winner of the first prize will receive a $500 U. S. Saving Bond; second place a $100 U. S. Saving Bond; third place a $75 U. S. Saving Bond; and fourth place a $50 U. S. Saving Bond. A $25 bond each will be given for the twenty next best entries.

Judging will be done by Herold C. Hunt, general superintendent of schools, Chicago; Ray A. Billington, professor history, Northwestern University, and Avery O. Craven, professor of American history, University of Chicago, Lyles added.

The Indian Village will consist of about 15 authentically reproduced reservation buildings in which Indians of the Jemez, Zuni, Laguna, Hopi, and Navajo and Apache tribes will live. They will prepare their meals and carry on their daily living on the exhibit grounds which will consist of approximately three acres.

Included in the exhibit will be an arts and crafts building in which will be located a number of Indians engaged in their arts and crafts work. A comprehensive collection of Indian arts and crafts, one of the finest collections in existence, loaned to the Santa Fe by the Museum of Anthropology of Santa Fe, N. Mex., will also be on display.
