VISITING HERE

Visiting here at the home of the Arthur F. Montgomerys of 320 S. Green Bay road, is Mr. Montgomery's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Montgomery, formerly of Highland Park. Mrs. Montgomery has spent the past two years with her son-in-law and daughter, the Archie Baileys of Danville, Illinois.

After a few more weeks here, she plans a visit in Minneapolis, Minnesota with her son, Carl, and his family, before she goes on to St. Cloud, Minnesota, to be with another daughter and son-in-law, the C. R. Vanderlees.

WINIFRED HUMPHREYS, A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Winifred Violet Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Humphreys of 107 S. Green Bay road, and John A. Schalbe, son of the Walter A. Schwalbes of Waukegan, took place on Saturday, July 10, in the rectory of the Immaculate Conception church. The 5:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Runkle.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin, made with a sweetheart neckline, fitted waist and full skirt. The fingertip veil she wore fell from a crown of seed pearls. The colonial bouquet she carried was of white and yellow roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Dever, was gowned in pale yellow chiffon with a matching picture hat. Though smaller, her bouquet was like the bride's.

Walter Schwalbe, Jr., served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white sheer dress with a white hat and accessories complemented by a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother chose a pale blue gown. Her hat and accessories were also white and her corsage was like the bride's mother.

A garden party for thirty-five relatives and members of the bridal party followed the ceremony in the garden of the Humphreys' home. At 8:00 p.m. about two hundred guests attended the reception held at Witten's hall.

Following a two weeks' motor trip, Mr. Schwalbe and his bride will reside in Waukegan.
