Open 2nd Round of Play In Recreation Department 16 Inch League

The 16 inch League started their second round of games last Thursday. Russells defeated in a play-off by Olsons Printers will play in the championship series at the conclusion of the second round with the second round champions. Should Russells win both rounds they will automatically be declared champions. It looks as though they may repeat from the way they shellacked Fells 17-5 in a night game last week to open play in this round.

The strong V.F.W. team came right back with another great game to defeat the Ravinia Merchants 11-0. The V.F.W. last week defeated Russells 7-1 the only team to beat them this year.

The Blue Goose lost a tough game to Olsons Printers last week by a close score of 10-9. L. Herman hit a home run in the 9th to break up a tie game.

The Monarchs came back in the 8th inning with a 4 run rally to break up a tie ball game and win 9-5 against the up and coming 19th Hole.

Two Bishops Speak At Methodist Camp Sunday, July 18

With the 89th annual midsummer assembly at the Methodist Camp Ground, Des Plaines, Illinois, closing its 17-day series of programs on Sunday, July 18, two well known Bishops of the Methodist Church are to appear there as the featured speakers on that date. They are Bishop J. Ralph Magee, head of the Chicago area who will speak at 3 p.m. and Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes of the Wisconsin area; to appear at 8 p.m.

Bishop Magee was selected to head the 4-year Crusade for Christ program of the Methodist Church, a movement which has had significant influence internationally. He was called to the Chicago area from Des Moines on the death of Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf. He is one of the most active and most widely travelled Bishops and his leadership is recognized as among the foremost.

Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, in his eighties and yet considered young, had retired but was summoned to the Wisconsin area when Bishop Schuyler E. Garth met death in an airplane accident in China. He is a speaker who holds a great following wherever he appears.

Long Time Resident Is Laid to Rest

Last rites were held today (Thursday) at the Immaculate Conception church for Michael D. Lencioni, who passed away on Tuesday at his home at 394 Ravine drive, after a brief illness.

A native of Italy, he came to this country fifty years ago, at the age of six, and had been a resident of Highland Park for 35 years. During the past 15 years he had been associated with a restaurant and hotel fixture firm in Chicago. He was a member of the Holy Name society of the Immaculate Conception church, and of the Elks lodge.

He is survived by a brother, Anthony, of Highland Park.

Mrs. Riddle Represents Gold Star Mother's Club At Washington Convention

After a long ride to Washington, D. C. we arrived at the Hotel Annapolis. We were tired but happy because we all had such comfortable rooms, and in no time we were ready to be on our way to the Colonial Hotel to meet the California mothers that same evening.

and breakfast we started out to Arlington National Cemetery to the services at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Night and day, every day a lone sentry parades before the Tomb. It is carved from a block of white marble. Every President of the Gold Star Mother's Club from many states laid a beautiful wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Like spirits of their sons, these mothers in white and gold seemed like a very sacred sight, it was felt by all who saw it.

Before all Honored Guards, Vets of the Army, Navy, Marines, American Legion, Disabled Vets, War Mothers, Red Cross, Blue Star Mothers, Navy Mothers, 8 and 40, Gold Star Dads, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Presentation of the Colors took place, followed by songs and a prayer for Peace, a poem by a young man—"There is No Death", Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, the song "The Old Rugged Cross". Then President Truman spoke to us. Then the explanation of the Gold Star Bill, and awards to three Washington families of dead heroes, Navy, Army, Air Corps—the mother and father and wife of each hero being given a Gold Star pin. After Benediction and Taps we went to dinner.

Sunday afternoon we visited the White House, saw all the beautiful rooms—then a bus ride to Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, United States Capitol, Library of Congress, Thomas Jefferson Memorial, National Gallery of Art, and the Pan American Union Building.

Monday, 7:30—Went on a bus ride to Philadelphia and saw many beautiful rose gardens and pretty homes. We were on our way to Mount Vernon, Virginia, and went through George Washington's home and Martha Washington's Gardens. We also went to Christ Church where George Washington bought a Pew, a grand old church; they rang the sweet sounding bells and played a few beautiful old hymns on it for us. This church is in Alexandria, Virginia.

Then we had an old Southern dinner in George Mason's Hotel.

On the way to Valley Forge we saw many old streets, very quaint and interesting old homes. Arriving at Valley Forge, we saw old graves of "1778", the Great American Soldiers who froze, starved and died, who were an example of devotion to duty that has continued to inspire Americans of all generations. We crossed the Delaware River, saw the National Memorial Arch, a tribute to Washington and his men.

Back at the Hotel we were ready for a good sleep because we knew we must be up and ready to go again at 6 A.M. at the depot to go to Atlantic City. Some of us went to the Chelsea Hotel and others went to the Dolly Madison Hotel after a fish dinner. The five day convention opened with a Grand Reception of 2000 Gold Star Mothers. The President, Mrs. Hagerty received the Key to the City from the Mayor. It was a grand sight to see the Color Guards of Police, Firemen bringing our National Colors to the front of Westminster Hall and the Presentation of all National Officers, etc. etc. The program was a dedication in Memory of our sons—

"God hold your loving arms about him
Keep him in your tender care
Please make up for all he had to suffer
And everything that was unfair.
He little thought when leaving us
That he would return no more
That he in death so soon would sleep
And leave us here to mourn
We do not know what pain he bore
We did not see him die
We only know he passed away
And could not say Good-bye."
This is our Preamble—
"Whereas, the Mothers of sons who served and died in the Allied Cause during the Great World Wars, or died as the result of such service, in order to associate themselves together for loyal and patriotic service, do unite to establish this permanent organization.

This was a beautiful sight, most Mothers in White Formals. We met mothers from all over the states.

Next day: We had a bus ride to Ocean City, New Jersey, a two hour ride, saw a Wayside Shrine, a pretty park in memory of the Atlantic fallen heroes. A tree was planted and a bronze plaque and small flag was at the foot of each tree, with a boys name on it—a very grand thing to do, to remember their boys that gave their lives so they can enjoy themselves in America.

We visited a pet cemetery—Rep. the Wonder Dog was buried there and many other war dogs. We saw Millionaires Row, Jack Dempsey's home and other famous people's homes. We visited St. Peter's church, an early Spanish Mission.

Next day: Session at 9:30 A.M. I walked the Broadwalk three times that one day because our hotel was 14 blocks from where the Convention was held. We saw the world's largest convention hall. We also saw the Memorial Steel Pier.

Friday morning the Elections were held, and Mrs. W. H. Boyd of Long Beach, California is our newly elected National President. Her message to us was—"Be good Mothers, radiate love and understanding within your own homes and community and you will reduce the causes of juvenile delinquency, live together in peace and friendship. If the rest of the world will adopt that as an example, we can be assured of a lasting peace."

The Gold Star Mothers donated three Iron Lungs and a number of collapsible wheel chairs to the Veterans Hospital.

After a Memorial breakfast on Saturday morning and Gold Star Mother's tea in the afternoon, we had a very full week. There were 2000 delegates, representing 70,000 members.

In Philadelphia a memorial chapel is being built as a memorial to four men of God of 3 faiths, 4 young Chaplains who on the nights of February 2nd and 3rd, 1943 in the iceberg water of the North Atlantic, when the Transport Dorchester was torpedoed and went down under enemy action, gave their life belts, and gave away their chance to live. Standing with arms linked, bracing themselves against the waves which were drenching the deck, they offered each in the words of his own faith, a prayer for the safety of the men. The waves came up high and the Dorchester slid under and the four young Chaplains were never seen again. One of our speakers at the convention was the father of one of these men, a Gold Star Father, Dr. Daniel Poling.

With the song "Now Is the Hour", our great Convention came to an end.

Masterpieces of European Art Institute

The events of the last war have made possible the impressive exhibition of 150 of the best paintings from the Kaiser Friedrich Museum, Berlin, to be seen in Chicago for a period of only eighteen days. From 12 o'clock noon of July 17th through August 3rd, Chicago will have the opportunity to see in its Art Institute the cream of a European museum collection. Discovered in 1945 by the advancing American Army, in the salt mines of Merkers, these invaluable masterpieces of European painting were shipped to the United States for safe-keeping.

Hours every day from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., except Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, 12 noon to 5 p.m.

World-Famous and Rare Collection

One whole gallery of thirteen paintings is given over to Rembrandt, including the celebrated "Man with a Golden Helmet" and "Moses Breaking the Tablets"; Botticelli's portrait of Simonetta Vespucci and the famous "Venus"; Vermeer's "Lady and Gentleman Drinking Wine"; and his exquisite "Young Lady with a Pearl Necklace", each of which is reputed to be worth a million dollars. Five renowned canvases by Titian include his sensuously painted "Venus with the Organ Player", a portrait of his daughter, Lavinia, and "Self-Portrait of the Artist", painted with he was ninety-nine years old.

Others are the fanciful and superbly painted "Burial of Christ", by Carpaccio; the brilliant Castagno "Assumption of the Virgin"; the mythological interpretation of "Leda and the Swan" by Correggio; the great Rubens "Landscape with the Shipwreck of Aeneas"; and his forceful figure, "Andromeda", as well as paintings by Altdorfer, Hans Baldung, Mabuse, Sassetta and Giovanni di Paolo (the last named artist is familiar to Art Institute visitors who are acquainted with the celebrated six panels depicting the "Beheading of St. John", in its permanent collection).

The exhibit represents a unique opportunity for Chicagoans to see works which only a few travelers to Europe have hitherto enjoyed.

DESSERTS

Frozen and chilled desserts that have the family calling for more are easily prepared with the aid of your Servel.

There is a trick in making refrigerator ice creams that are soft and smooth—fast freezing. To insure delicious, smooth-frozen desserts use the following guides:

- Keep refrigerator free from frost.
- Set control dial to lowest temperature.
- Do not freeze ice cubes or chill warm foods when freezing mixtures.
- Chill all ingredients before mixing.
- Chill bowls and beater.
- Use two trays, filling each half full of mixture.
- Moisten underside of tray with water to insure contact.
- Place trays on lowest shelf of the freezing compartment. It's coldest.
- Keep the refrigerator door closed.
- When mushy, beat until light and fluffy. Work fast—stop beating before mixture starts to melt. This step is unnecessary in sherbets using beaten egg white.
- Scoop mixture into one tray and place in freezing compartment again.
- Turn control back to a little colder than normal to keep mixture from freezing solid.
