DOUBLE WEDDING

The daughter and son of the Oscar Plotkins, 2751 So. Deere Park drive, were participants in an impressive double wedding ceremony held last Sunday in the garden at 225 Maple Hill road, Glencoe. Harriet Patricia Plotkin was united in marriage to Mr. David Loenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Loenberg of Chicago. The bride of Samuel Dresner Plotkin was Gail Levin, daughter of the A. N. Levins of Terre Haute, Ind. The ceremony took place at 6 p.m.

The two brides were similarly dressed in peridot gowns of white ruffled nylon net, fashioned after the Godet manner. Their loffg veils were of illusion, and they carried rosepoint fans trimmed with white baby orchids.

Serving Miss Plotkin as matron of honor was Mrs. David Nieman. Miss Levin's maid of honor was her sister, Miss Alice Levin, a student at Northwestern university. These attendants, as well as the six bridesmaids, were gowned in pink chiffon and carried bouquets of matching carnations.

Mr. Plotkin was attended by his brother Jay, while David Nieman served his brother-in-law, Mr. Loenberg, as best man. The ceremony was performed with the wedding bands used by Harriet and David's maternal grandparents, and was followed by a reception and dinner in the garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Plotkin plan to live at the Georgian Hotel in Evanston. Mr. and Mrs. Loenberg will reside at the Lake Shore Drive hotel in Chicago.

Mrs. Loenberg attended the school of speech at Northwestern university. Her husband is a graduate of the law school at Michigan. Both Mr. and Mrs. Plotkin are graduates of Northwestern university.

CHAPMAN-LANIGAN NUPTIALS

The Methodist church at Wilmette was the scene of a lovely wedding last Saturday evening, when Phyllis Snow Chapman, daughter of the Wilbert J. Chapmans of that city exchanged vows with John Whitley Lanigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Lanigan, 919 Wade, Highland Park. Rev. Charles M. Crowe heard the nuptial vows.

Wearing a trailing ivory satin gown made with yoke of seed pearls, and a fingertip veil fastened with a band of twisted satin and pearls, the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Anne Benson, and her bridesmaids, the Misses Sally Armstrong, Norma Bailey, Louise Reedy and Barbara Lanigan, sister of the bridegroom, wore turquoise blue. The maid of honor carried tea roses, and the bridesmaids yellow roses, all with streamers of ivy.

Serving his cousin as best man was Robert Duthie. Calvin Bauer, Harold Garwood, William Murphy and William Sihler acted as ushers.

A reception at Michigan Shore club followed the ceremony.

After honeymooning for a week in Wisconsin the young couple will reside at Greencastle, Ind., where both are students at De Pauw university.

MARRIED AT HOME

In a quiet home wedding on Monday, August 30, Miss Winifred Wolters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wolters, 1303 Judson, was united in marriage to Howard Cushman, son of the A. R. Cushman of Bethany, Mo. The day also marked the 25th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Wearing a simple organdy dress with shoulder length veil, the bride carried a bouquet of white gladioli. Her attendants, Miss Mary Beth Cushman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Bushey, were similarly gowned in pink lawn and carried pink glads. Miss Mary Anne Leggett played the wedding march.

The bridegroom was attended by Robert Wolters, brother of the bride. A small reception followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Cushman will live at Ames, Iowa, where both are students at Iowa State college. Mr. Cushman served for three years with the Marine corps during World War II.

GARDEN WEDDING

Saturday afternoon, in the garden of her uncle and aunt, the Ross James Beattys, 260 Ravine drive, Lucia Marilyn Lupton, daughter of the Del Luptons of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, became the bride of Howard Carleton White, son of the L. C. Whites, also of Milwaukee.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in ivory crepe, with trimming of Marquise lace, and wore a full length veil of the same material. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and gladioli.

Mrs. Harry A. Leonard of Lafayette, Indiana, the matron of honor, wore a trailing gown of watermelon pink. The bridesmaids, Christine Moodey of Muncie, Indiana, and Patricia Pike of Evanston, were gowned in jade green taffeta. All carried bouquets of Rubens lilies and stephanotis. The double ring ceremony was used. A reception in the garden followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds left for a vacation in northern Wisconsin, after which they will make their home in Milwaukee.

MARRIED AT ST. JAMES

Last Saturday morning at the St. James church in Highwood, Miss Serena H. Segneri, daughter of the Ambrose Segneris, 218 Burchell avenue, Highwood, was united in marriage to Richard G. Bartoni, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bartoni, also of Highwood. Rev. James Gleeson officiated. Preceding the ceremony the Ave Maria was sung by Enea Picchietti.

The bride was dressed in white pique with inserts of medallion lace studded with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was fastened with a head band of the same. Gardenias and carnations with streamers of ivy made up her bouquet.

Acting as maid of honor was Lenora Parenti, who, like the bridesmaids, Mrs. Blanch Fiori, Mrs. Dorothy Bodner and Miss Delores Segneri, was dressed in white pique with balero jacket and carried gold gladioli with streamers of ivy.

The gown of the flowergirl, Darlene Lenzini, was a replica of that of the bride.

Roger Albert attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Mr. Robert Tondi and Mr. Rommy Bodner.

Breakfast for the bridal party and relatives was served at the Labor Temple, dinner and a reception following later in the day.

After a short honeymoon in Wisconsin, the couple will live at 427 Waukegan avenue, Highwood.

RETURN FROM TRIP THROUGH OZARKS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Suzzi and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ayers, returned Saturday from a week's trip through the Ozarks in Missouri and Arkansas. Enroute they visited Mr. Suzzi's sister and other relatives in Taylor Springs. While at Eureka Springs, all visited at the home of the Harvey Rebers. Mrs. Reber returned with them, for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. Stupey.

WEDDING DATE — SEPTEMBER 4

Saturday, September 4, is the date set for the wedding of Miss Nancy Nelson, daughter of the Joseph A. Nelsons, and Chauncy Osborne Frisbie, son of C. O. Frisbie, all of Highland Park.

The wedding will take place in the Presbyterian church with Dr. Louis Sherwin officiating. Jolene Nelson will serve her sister as maid of honor. Other attendants of the bride will be the Misses Georgia Braun of Fairmont, Minn., Esther Hayes and Barbara Jones of Highland Park, and Mrs. Gunter Schwandt, the former Georgianna Frisbie. Gordon Frisbie will act as best man for his brother.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the Michigan Shores Country club, Wilmette.

AUGUST WEDDING

Saturday morning at the St. James church, Highwood, Laura Louise Amedei, daughter of the Joseph Amedei of Taylor, Illinois, was united in marriage to Arnold B. Toni, of Highwood.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, with finger-tip veil. Her bridal bouquet consisted of white orchids and stephanotis. She was attended by her sister, Nellie Amedei, who wore a gold-colored dress and carried flowers of the same color. Her accessories were brown. John Toni served his brother as best man.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Arthur Grand residence 340 Oak Terrace avenue. After a honeymoon in northern Wisconsin, the couple will reside at the above address.

PLAN AUTUMN WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Mary Katherine McClure, daughter of the Lawrence F. McClures of 333

Woodland avenue, and Robert James Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, 296 Prospect avenue, whose engagement was announced recently, is planned to take place this fall.

The bride-elect studied at Monticello and MacMurray colleges. Her fiancé, who served for three years with the Army Air Forces in the last war, will be graduated from Loyola university this fall. Following their wedding next month the young couple plan to live on an avocado ranch at Vista, California.

NEWCOMERS TO OUR CITY

Dr. and Mrs. Robert V. Atz, former residents of Decatur, Ill., are now living at 690 Deerfield road. Dr. Atz is stationed at the Ft. Sheridan hospital. Their little girl, Janet Sue, is nearly three months old.

The John M. Baldaufs, now living at 917 So. St. Johns avenue, moved here from Chicago, recently. Mr. Baldauf is associated with the American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago.

Recently from Chicago are the Joe Friedmans, 926 So. Sheridan road, with their two children, Karen, 13, and Robert, aged five. Mr. Friedman is proprietor and president of the Trav-Ler Radio Corporation, Chicago.

Former Evanstonians are Mr. and Mrs. Bill O'Connor, who moved last month to the apartments at 2416 Blackhawk. Mr. O'Connor is a radio announcer over Station WGN. They have a son, William Kerry, aged 2½ and a daughter, Kathleen Dee, nearly one year old.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Fielder Jr., who now live at 143 So. Second street are not, in a sense, newcomers. During the war Mr. Fielder was stationed at Ft. Sheridan, and it was at that time that their son, Johnny, now 2½, was born. Living later in Detroit and Chicago, they returned to Highland Park in July. Mr. Fielder is Service Director of the Clary Multiplier Corporation of Chicago.

August newcomers to the city are Dr. and Mrs. Henry Kahn, 2214 Dell Lane, and their two daughters, Rebecca, 7, and Linda, aged two.

They are former residents of Chicago, where Dr. Kahn, a dentist, maintains his dental office.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Slater moved to 511 Glencoe avenue last May. Mr. Slater is a Chicago attorney. Their two small children, Jan and Paul, are aged 5 and 3, respectively.

Deerfield Woman's Club Takes Steps To Incorporate

The Deerfield Woman's club has been meeting from time to time this summer inquiring into the business of incorporating the club. This step is necessary if at any time the club should wish to hold property, or any legal step should be necessary. Mr. Erwin Seago has been acting as legal advisor to the club, without charge.

If the club decides to incorporate it will include only 10 officers. When or if the necessary papers are drawn up there will be a special meeting of the club to act upon the motion.

Mrs. Walter Wecker, chairman of the Garden department, is planning for a Garden Walk to be held sometime in September, the date to be announced later. Other activities of the club will be announced at future dates.

Mrs. W. W. Goodpasture, a past president of the club, is now serving as President of the Lake County Federation. Mrs. Paul Paget has been elected secretary-treasurer of the same organization.

Highland Parkers Win High Honors At Purdue U.

Included in the honor winners on the distinguished student list at Purdue university last year, are two Highland Park young men. They are Robert M. Wolters, son of A. E. Wolters, principal of Highland Park high, 1303 Judson, and Harry B. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest West, 381 Elm Place.

Mr. Wolters is a member of two national honorary engineering fraternities, the Eta Kappa Nu and the Tau Beta Pi. He served in the army during the recent war.

West, who spent three years in the army, completed one year of study at Purdue before entering the armed forces.

Barbara Doty Chosen Queen of Beauty At Ravinia Garden Show

From a bevy of pretty contestants competing for the honor of reigning as beauty queen last Saturday at Ravinia Park, Barbara Doty was chosen for the honor.

A graduate of the June graduating class at Highland Park high, Miss Doty is 17, of medium height and build, and describes herself, impersonally, as "a strawberry blonde with blue eyes." She plans to attend Miss Anderson's secretarial school in Winnetka, next year. She is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild Doty, 360 Park avenue.

The Garden show, with its beautiful setting was a delightful affair. Much credit is due Mr. Bruce Krasberg, president of the Ravinia Garden club, Mort Shamberg, general manager of the affair, and their assistants.

Deerfield Stagers Plan Entertainment For Coming Year

The Deerfield Stagers, headed by Mrs. F. C. Ritter, are planning some top entertainment during the coming winter and spring. Three plays have been selected—State of the Union, to be given November 12, 13; Laura, for February 18, 19, and My Sister Eileen for April 29, 30. An amateur musical production for next winter is under consideration. The committee consists of Miss Jane Ashman, James Russel and James Tibbetts.

Organized in 1936, the Stagers have been presenting four plays a season, including one Christmas holiday production for children and parents.

The Forrest Roses Meet With Mishap On Vacation Trip

Forrest D. Rose, of 717 Glencoe avenue, is still hospitalized while recuperating from injuries received last week at Crystal Lake, where his car was crashed and wrecked by a station wagon.

Mrs. Rose escaped with bruises and shock. Her husband suffered two breaks of the right arm, injuries to the back, body bruises and severe shock.

The Roses were returning from a vacation trip to Yellowstone Park in their new car. Taken first to a hospital in Woodstock, Mr. Rose was later moved to the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Rose is staying with her son's family on Pleasant avenue.
