Notes From Here And There

Well, it was a fine Home Show!

A slap on the back to Highland Park's Chamber of Commerce, and all participants, for the grand job they

The show in every way was professionally done against the background of beautiful Moraine-on-the-Lake and its lovely landscaping.

We got many good ideas about how to build and decorate that home of ours we hope to have someday.

Infant Welfare "Who's Who"

Providing lunch for 75 busy members of the Highland Park-Ravinia Infant Welfare Juniors is the job of luncheon chairman Mrs. Warner G. Smoot. With the help of monthly chairman and a committee, many delicious luncheons have been served.

The aim of holding down the cost is in keeping with the kind of work the organization is doing. Helping others less fortunate is the aim of Infant Welfare, and costly luncheons are not necessary. Mrs. Smoot finds her job fun and an inspiration. Member cooperation is splendid, not only in doing kitchen duty, but in contributing original and tasty dishes for the pleasure of the members at the short but pleasant luncheon recess at the regular all-day sewing meet-

Mrs. Charles E. Close is chairman of a committee for keeping earned by each member, which is her specific responsibility. Points are given for the work and service done by each of the active members during the year. Each member is required to make a minimum of 100 points a year, but the majority of members make! many more. Last year the top ten members had over 400 points to their credit.
