JOAN WALLACH WEDS

The Marvin Wallachs' garden was the setting for a very lovely wedding on Saturday, September 18, when their daughter, Joan, became the bride of Richard Stockton Shoemaker at 4: o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Shoemaker is the son of Mrs. Davis Shoemaker of Lake Forest, formerly of Greenwich, Connecticut, and Winter Park, Florida, and the late Mr. Shoemaker. The bride's parents reside at 817 N. St. Johns avenue. The Rev. Robert G. Andrus of the Lake Forest Presbyterian church heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in traditional white satin with brocaded trim and scalloped neckline. The fingertip veil she wore hung from a seed pearl trimmed Juliet cap. Her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William C. Buttner, Jr. of Northbrook, cousin of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Davis Shoemaker, sister of the bridegroom, who attended as junior bridesmaid, were gowned alike in powder blue. They carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

James Mitchell Shoemaker served his brother as best man and James C. Buttner, Jr. of Northbrook and Frank Vaillant of New York City ushered.

Miss Rosalind Wallach, of Des Plaines, aunt of the bride, violinist and Mrs. Earl Heverly, Jr., pianist, provided the music before the ceremony and during the service.

The bride's mother chose a grey dress, complemented by a corsage of deep red roses. The bridegroom's mother was in powder blue. She, too, wore a corsage of similar roses.

The bride, who is a graduate of the Highland Park high school, will be returning this fall to Lake Forest college where she will enter her senior year. Mr. Shoemaker, who transferred last year to Lake Forest college from the University of Florida, will also be a senior at Lake Forest this fall.

Following a reception, the young couple left for a short northern honeymoon. They will live in Libertyville, on their return.

PHYLLIS COPP HOME FROM EUROPEAN TRIP
Miss Phyllis Copp, daughter of the Howard F. Cops of Sunnyside lane, returned last week from a six months' tour of Europe. She, accompanied by a Northwestern University student and three graduates of the University of Montana, visited England, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland and Italy.

Enroute home the girls spent a week in Canada. A senior in the School of Education at Northwestern university, Miss Copp will return to her studies there this week.

SURPRISE PARTY
In honor of Miss Marcia Riggs, who will be leaving today for Wellesley, Massachusetts, where she is enrolled at Dana Hall, Lynn Ahrens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Ahrens of 920 S. Sheridan road, was hostess last evening at an informal dinner at her home at 6:30. Marcia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Riggs of 2165 Lakeside place.

Marcia's sister, Nancy, left last week for Colorado University at Boulder, where she is a sophomore. She attended Western college in Oxford, Ohio, last year.

EVANS-BURNS NUPTIALS
The North Shore Methodist church, Glencoe, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Dulcie Joyce Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Evans of 1636 Dean avenue, and Jay Burns, III, son of Mrs. J. R. Bradley of Judson avenue and Florida, on Saturday, September 18, at 4:30 p.m., the Rev. Robert Pierce hearing the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a heavy white satin gown made with an illusion neckline and long train. Seed pearls trimmed the Bertha collar on the dress. She wore a lace mantilla which had been in the Redfield family for one hundred and sixty-five years. A bit of blue ribbon sent by the bride's grandfather, William H. Evans of Harrow, England, was worked into the bridal bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis which the bride carried.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in forest green taffeta. The trailing bouquets they carried were of white chrysanthemums and ivy. Their headresses, too, were of baby white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Duane Redfield of Evanston, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, Miss Rosemary Kropke was maid of honor, and Miss Hester Atteridge of Lake Bluff and Miss Joann Baker of Rockford attended as bridesmaids. Miss Atteridge is a former roommate of the bride at Illinois college.

August Nordmark, a family friend, sang "O Promise Me" and "Because".

Robert Burns served his brother as best man and Robert Christensen of Chicago, Robert Elkin of Springfield and William Roseberry, Jr. of Hinsdale, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose dinner gown for the occasion. Her corsage was of white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother was in royal blue and her corsage was of pink gladioli.

Mr. Burns, a student at the University of Chicago, is working on his master's degree in Physics.

About one hundred attended the buffet supper at the Sunset Valley club, which followed the ceremony. After a two weeks' honeymoon in Wisconsin, Mr. Burns and his bride will live on Judson avenue, Ravinia.

Miss Vetter graduated last June from the Highland Park high school and her fiancé, a graduate of Wheeling high school, served for thirteen months in the army air corps during the war. Both are now employed at the Public Service company.

RETURNS HOME
Here to attend the wedding of her brother, Harold Allen, and Miss Kathryn Mae Snyder, which took place on Saturday, September 11, in Milwaukee, was Mrs. Frank Marasco (Patricia Allen) and young son, Frank, Jr., of New York. After a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dale Patrick (Alice Allen), they have returned East.

FRANK MILLER, JR. TO TAKE BRIDE
On Saturday, September 25, Miss Louise Caroline Gowers, daughter of Harold Gowers of Lake Bluff and Frank Miller, Jr., son of Frank Miller of 623 Home-wood avenue, will be united in marriage at the Bethany Evangelical church, at 4:00 p.m., the Rev. Lester Laubenstein reading the service.

Mrs. C. E. Hawthorne (Louise Miller) sister of the bridegroom, will attend as matron of honor. Her daughter, Sandra Lee, 4, will be flower girl. Merrill Miller will serve his brother as best man and Harold Gowers Jr., brother of the bride, will usher.

The bridal party, immediate families and a few close friends will attend a dinner at Phil Johnson's following the ceremony. A reception will be held at the Miller home at 7:00 p.m.

Following a two weeks' honeymoon, Mr. Miller and his bride will reside in Lake Bluff.

SURPRISE SHOWER
Mrs. Carol Baker Summers of 633 Crofton avenue was hostess on Thursday evening at a surprise shower in honor of Mrs. Vincent J. Viczbicki of 1317 Broadway avenue.

PASQUESI-MURPHY WEDDING SATURDAY
The marriage of Miss Carol Pasquesi, daughter of the Silvio Pasquesi of Fort Sheridan avenue, and Daniel Michael Murphy, son of Lyman Murphy of Highland Park, will take place on Saturday, September 25, at 11:30 a.m. at St. James church, Highwood. The Rev. Gleson will hear the exchange of nuptial vows.

Mrs. C. W. Konsler (Lucy Pasquesi) will attend her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Myrtle Mariferen of Park Ridge, North Dakota, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, Miss Joan Pasquesi, cousin of the bride elect, and Miss Helen Picchietti, cousin of the bridegroom.

Louis Picchietti will serve his cousin as best man, and Casper Pasquesi, brother of the bride, Carl Konsler and Robert Morley will usher.

Enea Picchietti, uncle of the bridegroom, will sing, accompanied by the organ by Alma Galassini. The bride's father will give her in marriage.

Dinner for the bridal party, relatives and a few close friends will be held in the afternoon at Mrs. Fabbri's, and a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents will be held at 8:00 o'clock in the evening.

Miss Pasquesi and Mr. Murphy are graduates of Highland Park high school. He attended Illinois State Normal at Bloomington, Illinois.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip to the Dakotas, Mr. Murphy and his bride will reside on Fort Sheridan avenue.

BRIDAL SHOWERS
Miss Hester Atteridge of Lake Forest, Miss Rosemary Kropke of Ravinia and Mrs. Daniel Vetter (Helen Kee) of Northbrook, were co-hostesses recently at a miscellaneous shower given at Mrs. Vetter's home, honoring Miss Dulcie Evans. Her wedding to Jay Burns, III, was an event of last Saturday.

In honor of Miss Louise Gowers, whose wedding to Frank Miller, Jr. will take place on Saturday, co-workers at the Cyclone Fence company, Waukegan, gave a miscellaneous shower and dinner at Hank's recently.

LORNA JOHNSON, A BRIDE
The wedding of Miss Lorna Charlotte Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnard Johnson of County Line road, and Robert W. Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs of Otsego, Michigan, took place on Saturday, September 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the First United Evangelical church, the Rev. Robert Wilson performing the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown made with a long train, lace trimmed the shoulders. Her veil was full length. She carried white roses and white gladioli. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Douglas Carlson (Alice Johnson) of Stambaugh, Michigan, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an apple green moire gown and carried Picardy gladioli. The bridesmaids, Miss Harriet Olson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Anna Marie Lindblom of Evanston, were in mustard yellow. They, too, carried Picardy gladioli. The attendants all wore bands of the same material as their dresses, in their hair, and matching gloves.

Andrew Jacobs of Chicago, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and Richard Jacobs, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert Healy of Otsego, ushered. Norene Harrison sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly". She was accompanied at the organ by Harold Turner, organist for radio station "W.G.N."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson wore turquoise crepe, and the bridegroom's mother was in royal blue. Each wore a corsage of baby orchids.

The bride was graduated this past spring from Northwestern University, and the bridegroom, who served as a marine sergeant for four years during the war, is now employed at the Chicago Tribune.

Following a two weeks' trip to Muskegon, Michigan, Mr. Jacobs and his bride will reside in Highland Park.

175 Children Receive Reading Awards
Every seat in the Public Library Auditorium was filled last Saturday morning by an enthusiastic crowd gathered for the summer reading award ceremony. More than 130 people, young and old, chuckled as David and Betsy Phelps presented two marionette shows, complete with animals, songs, and puppet toys.

Following this entertainment Mrs. Inger Boye, the children's librarian, told of the summer reading. Encouraging the children of Highland Park to discover more in the world of books, the library this summer sponsored a plan where each child could report on books he had read and a record was in turn kept by Mrs. Boye. There were 359 children registered for the program and a total of 2,201 book reports were taken.

When the diplomas were awarded, 102 children received gold stars, signifying that they had read and reported on twelve or more books, and 73 children received blue stars for seven books read and reported on. Parents and friends were present to watch the youngsters receive their awards.

Mrs. Boye also announced that the weekly story hour will be resumed on Saturday, October 2.

Recreation Department Organizes Touch Football League
The organization meeting of the Touch Football League for Highland Park will be held at the Community Center, Monday, October 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Play will begin Thursday evening, October 7, at Sunset Park under the lights.

Local groups wishing to enter a seven man team in this League should get a team sponsor and have the sponsor and manager attend the organization meeting. The first six teams submitting their entry list and sponsorship fee of ten dollars to the Playground and Recreation office will be scheduled to play. The entry fee will help defray expenses of lights, officials and trophies for the League.
