North Shore Art League

Briggs Dyer will again conduct a class in figure painting on Tuesday evenings at the North Shore Art League studio, Winnetka Community House. The class will be for beginners as well as advanced students. Registration for the class is handled by the class monitor, Mr. Noyes Huston, 653 Blackthorn Ave., Winnetka.

Mr. Dyer was educated at the University of Georgia, Art Academy of Cincinnati, and the Chicago Art Institute. He was head instructor of fine arts at the Minneapolis School of Art. At the present time he is teaching at the Chicago Art Institute.

The children's class, which has for several years been conducted by Edna Mae Johansen, and Hope Degenhardt, is being taught this year by Kenneth Nack, who is also teaching two adult classes. Children may still be registered at any time.

Obituaries

Former Music Publisher Succumbs To Long Illness

Frank Tucker Anderson, former president of Anderson Bros. Music Publishing company in Chicago, succumbed to a year's illness on Sunday of this week at his home at 2168 Lakeside place. He was 86 years of age.

Born in Cincinnati, he lived in Chicago many years before moving to Highland Park 20 years ago. He was a member of the Lakeview Masonic lodge of Chicago.

Surviving are his widow, Anna; one daughter, Mrs. Hazel B. Sorg of Highland Park, and three grandchildren.

Rites were held at the Kelly-Spalding chapel Tuesday, with interment at Montrose cemetery, Chicago.

Rites At Grandville For Angelo Patuzzi

Funeral services were held on Tuesday of this week at Grandville, Illinois, for Angelo Patuzzi, 8 Webster avenue, Highland, who passed away last Saturday at the Highland Park hospital, at the age of 57.

A native of Italy, he had lived in Grandville for many years before coming to Highland. Unmarried, his relatives all live in Grandville. He was a landscape gardener.

Interment was made in Grandville.

Well Known Business Woman Taken By Death

Mrs. Lucile Hilborn, for 13 years the owner of a Women's Apparel shop in Highland Park, succumbed to a long illness on Thursday of last week at her home at 368 Laurel avenue.

A native of Chicago, Mrs. Hilborn had lived in Highland Park since 1924, opening her shop 11 years later. She was a member of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce.

She is survived by a son, Wallace J. and a daughter, Mrs. Muriel Pollak, both of Highland Park; a brother, Edwin W. Hirsch of Chicago, and one grandchild.

Last rites were held at the Kelly-Spalding chapel on Monday, with interment at Rosehill cemetery.

James Seney Buried With Military Honors

Last rites were held on Tuesday at the Seguin chapel on North Second street for James Seney, 60, of Oak Lawn, brother of John Seney and Mrs. Lighthall Winker, both of Highland Park. The Rev. Robert Albertson, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, conducted the ceremony.

A veteran of World War I and a member of the Green Oak post of the American Legion, he was interred with military honors at Vernon cemetery.

H. P. Music Club Begins Year With Choice Program

A delightful program marked the opening of the 21st season of the Highland Park Music Club, Wednesday, September 22, at the home of Mrs. J. Ross Beatty. The newly elected president, Mrs. Henry Clifford Hawes, welcomed the members with a graceful speech, and Richard Hagen, a music major at the University of Illinois, opened the program with a group of compositions ranging from Bach to the moderns. As much at home in Bach and Scarlatti as with the modern composers, he played the former with clarity and precision, and the latter with style. His interpretation of Chopin showed feeling unusual in so young a man.

In contrast was the harp playing of the hostess, Mrs. Beatty, playing her own arrangements of a few charming songs and other compositions written especially for the harp. She gave a delightful performance.

At the tea following, Mrs. Helen Mayer Mannings and Mrs. George Hinn were hostesses, with Mrs. Hawes and Mrs. Myles Dressler pouring.

Return of Deceased Of World War II Nearing Close

All temporary military cemeteries overseas in which have been buried World War II Armed Forces dead will be evacuated by the end of November, 1948, The Department of The Army announced today.

Caskets containing the remains of military personnel whose next of kin have directed their return to the United States for final burial will be held under military guard awaiting homeward bound shipping facilities.
