ALICE PFISTER TO WED SATURDAY

St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed church, Chicago, where her late grandfather, the Rev. Jacob Pfister was pastor for almost twenty-five years, will be the scene of the wedding Saturday, October 9, of Miss Alice Dorothea Pfister, daughter of the Eugene Pfisters of Rosebrae, Mundelein, formerly of Highland Park, and Robert H. Bielenberg, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bielenberg of Elgin. The 4 p.m. ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Gerhardt Grauer.

Members of the two families will compose the bridal party. Matron of honor will be the cousin of the bride-to-be, Mrs. William Koch (Shirley Pfister) and the maid of honor will be another cousin, Miss Marjorie Pfister. Bridesmaids will be Miss Pauline Wilson, also a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Harold F. Pfister, Jr. Jennifer and Merrilee Pfister, daughters of the junior Harold Pfisters, will act as flower girls. Billy Siers, cousin of the bridegroom, will be ring bearer.

Best man will be William Koch and the ushers will be Douglas and James Bielenberg, brothers of the bridegroom, and H. F. Pfister, Jr.

Following a reception at the Union League club, the young couple will leave for a two weeks' wedding trip in the Smoky Mountains. Before they return to Rosebrae, where they will make their home, they will visit in Asheville, North Carolina, where the Kochs reside.

FERN BENCH, A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Fern Bench, daughter of the J. Daniel Benches of 637 Glenview avenue, and Robert Francis Schunne-man, son of Mrs. Julia Heit of Galina, Illinois, took place at the Wesley Methodist church on Wednesday, September 22, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Albertson heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride wore a white crepe dress and small white veiled hat. Her bouquet was of gardenias, white baby chrysanthemums, white gladioli and ivy. Her sister, Elizabeth, who attended as maid of honor, was in aqua crepe. The hat she wore matched her dress. She carried coral colored gladioli. Both the bride and her sister are graduate nurses of Henrotin hospital, Chicago.

William Golden of Galina served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride's mother was in Electric blue with matching hat and a corsage of Eucharis lilies. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua trimmed black dress complemented by a corsage of orchids.

About one hundred attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony.

After a honeymoon spent in northern Wisconsin, Mr. Schunne-man and his bride are now residing in an apartment in Melrose Park. Mr. Schunne-man is attending the Navy Pier division of the University of Illinois, where he is in his second year. During the war he served for two years in the United States Navy.
