

Josephine Altman Case Guest Of Ravinia Women
 "If you are of Swedish ancestry, you're lucky!" That's one way of summing up an interview with vivacious Josephine Altman Case of Evanston, who on October 13th will be the guest of Ravinia Woman's club at the opening luncheon to be held at the Village house.

Mrs. Case will speak on "Swedish Interlude" and illustrate her talk with costumes, textiles, engraved glass and other examples of Swedish arts and crafts.

On June 23 of each year since pre-Christian times, Swedes have gathered to dance around the maypole and to celebrate the advent of summer. For this they wear picturesque costumes.

So fascinated was Mrs. Case with these costumes that she brought home a trunk full. Among those she will show at the luncheon are examples from Leksand, Floda and Mora, the latter being the home of Andrew Zorn, Sweden's most versatile and famous artist.

Mrs. Albert Bushey, president of Ravinia Woman's club, will welcome all new members to this opening meeting of the year.

Ice Follies of 1949

"The World's most distinguished ice show"—and that can only mean the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1949—will be presented for 25 days at the Chicago Arena starting Thursday night, October 21, and running through Sunday, November 14.

Rasmussen and Cameron

The engagement will include Saturday and Sunday matinees at 2:30 throughout, in addition to the performance each night at 8:00. The opening night again will be a lavish benefit performance sponsored by the Service Club of Chicago and presented in dazzling Hollywood premiere style.

A dozen years of entertainment excellence enhances the creation of the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1949, the all-new 13th annual edition of the spectacular skating extravaganza. Not only is the current edition the best in its field, but it is the greatest ever produced by the three wizards of the skating blades.

A dozen or more production numbers present costumes more dazzling and colorful than ever before, skating patterns packed with sheer beauty, spectacular lighting and scenic effects never before seen on ice. The large and brilliant all-star cast includes such favorites as Roy Shipstad, Hazel Franklin, Frick and Frack, Phyllis and Harris Legg, Schramm Twins, Monica Moran, Carlos Romero, Hamilton & Morrison, Mae Ross, Bill Stine, Marilyn Take, Ericson & Mulvey, Scotvold Twins, Betty Schalow, Hugh Hendrickson, Rasmussen & Cameron, Narena and Norris, Ed Dunigan, the Silver Blade Four, and, of course, the delightful Ice Follies of the ballet ensembles and precision lines.

The Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1949 has reached the pinnacle in its field and become a tradition in the entertainment industry. When any theatrical enterprise can attract 30 million patrons—and Ice Follies has in the past 12 years—it becomes an institution. The thirteenth annual edition of Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies is even more pretentious, elaborate and colorful than its twelve predecessors.

Tickets for the entire Arena engagement are on sale at the Arena box office and also at Lytton's, State and Jackson. Mail orders also are being accepted at the Arena.

Landlord Services Continue

Landlord services to tenants of controlled rentals—including decorating—if listed as regular services in the official registration of the house or apartment with the area rent office, are expected to continue, or a landlord risks a rent office order to decrease the rent he collects, it was stated today by Norman B. Shogren, Chicago area rent director.

The rent director explained that his office reviews complaints of reduced decorating services and, after a reasonable time is given a landlord to reinstate a lapsed service, and he has not done so, the office orders a reduction in rent.
