JONES-HOOVER NUPTIALS

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Carol Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Jones of 510 N. Linden avenue, and Joseph S. Hoover, son of Mrs. Daniel P. Hoover of North Canton, Ohio, and the late Mr. Hoover, on Saturday, October 9, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young read the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an Empire gown of Ivory satin and lace made with a long train. The veil she wore was full length. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and white orchids.

Mrs. Kenneth M. Jones (Elizabeth Ann Johnson) of Brookfield was matron of honor for her sister-in-law and the Misses Mary Lambert of Montclair, New Jersey and Margaret O'Rourke of New York City and Mrs. William M. Jones (Elizabeth Wampler) of Cleveland were bridesmaids. Their identical gowns were of currant colored faille. The headresses of all the attendants were low coronets of the same shade as their dresses, trimmed with matching ostrich tips. Their old fashioned bouquets of garnet sweetheart roses and shaded white carnations were also the same.

Linda and Molly Fay, daughters of the William E. Fays of Glencoe acted as flower girls. They are nieces of the bridegroom. Their dresses were of ciel blue and their small bouquets of garnet roses.

Thomas E. Hoover of New York served his brother as best man and the ushers were D. Philip Hoover, another brother; Kenneth M. Jones, brother of the bride; William E. Fay, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; H. W. Hoover, Jr., W. Henry Hoover, James Hoover, his cousins, and William W. Steele, all of Canton, Ohio.

The bride's mother chose a dress of winter navy trimmed with lace and the bridegroom's mother was in brocade lane. Their corsages were of orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Wellesley and Mr. Hoover is a graduate of Dartmouth and Babson Institute of Business.

Following a reception at the Exmoor Country club, Mr. Hoover and his bride left for a two weeks' wedding trip to Bermuda. On their return they will reside in North Canton.

Among the out-of-town guests were the following, all from North Canton:—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Connelly, Dr. and Mrs. Scott Hill, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hoover, Mrs. Frank G. Hoover, Mrs. E. P. Schiltz, Mrs. John Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gibbs, the Misses Barbara and Shirley Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Guernsey, Miss Barbara Jefferson and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Steele, Jr.

ALICE PFISTER, A BRIDE

Gowned in an ivory satin frock trimmed with seed pearls and made with a Peter Pan collar and long train, and wearing a full length veil and carrying white roses, white orchids and stephanotis Miss Alice Dorothea Pfister became the bride of Robert H. Bielenberg, Jr., on Saturday, October 9. The 4 p.m. ceremony was performed in St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed church, Chicago, where the bride's late grandfather, the Rev. Jacob Pfister, was pastor for almost twenty-five years. The Rev. Gerhardt Grauer heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Eugene Pfisters of Rosebrae, Mundelein, formerly of Highland Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bielenberg of Elgin.

The honor attendants were cousins of the bride, Mrs. William Koch (Shirley Pfister) and Miss Marjorie Pfister. Mrs. Koch wore an off-the-shoulder dress of yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow roses with touches of bittersweet. Miss Pfister was similarly gowned in amber. The bouquet she carried was the reverse of that of the matron of honor, with bittersweet predominating and a few yellow roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Pauline Wilson, also a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Harold F. Pfister, Jr. were in burnt orange gowns. Their bouquets were like that of the maid of honor. The attendants all wore touches of bittersweet on the coronet effect headresses which matched their gowns. Their accessories were gold.

Jennifer and Merrilee Pfister, daughters of the junior Harold Pfisters, were the flower girls. They were dressed in yellow taffeta made with Peter Pan collars, puff sleeves and trimmed with net. The colonial bouquets they carried were of yellow roses. Billy Siers, cousin of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer. His grey flannel cardigan suit was complemented by a yellow tie.

Best man was William Koch and the ushers were Douglas and James Bielenberg, brothers of the bridegroom, and H. F. Pfister, Jr.

The bride's mother wore a cocoa lace dress made with full skirt, long sleeves and high neckline. The tiny lace headpiece she wore was trimmed with brown feathers. Her corsage was of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother was in soft green, with matching feathers in her hair. The orchids in her corsage were brown. Each wore gold accessories. The bride's two grandmothers and the bridegroom's maternal grandmother were also present.

A reception at the Union League club, Chicago, followed the ceremony. The young couple is now on a two weeks' honeymoon trip in the Smoky Mountains. They plan to visit in Asheville, North Carolina with the Kochs before they return to Rosebrae where they will reside.

TO ATTEND WISCONSIN-YALE GAME

Dr. and Mrs. Albert J. Bushey of 632 Carol court and Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Knox of 2296 Lakeside place will attend the Wisconsin-Yale football game on Saturday at Madison. The Busheys, whose daughter, Betty, is attending Wisconsin this year, will be cheering for that team, no doubt, while the Knoxes will be hoping for a Yale victory, as Mr. Knox is a Yale man. Their daughter, Bunny, is in her third year at Western college, Oxford, Ohio.

Miss Bushey transferred this year from Mills college in Oakland, California, where she attended for two years. She is majoring in the Dance.

They were enroute to Polk, Nebraska, their home town, from Norfolk, Virginia, where Commander Lytle is presently stationed, for a few weeks' vacation.

JOHN HEATH TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, October 9, Miss Jill Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leveridge Taylor of Glencoe, and John Lee Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wendell Heath of 503 S. St. Johns avenue, were united in marriage in St. Elizabeth's church, Glencoe, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. James Golder, assisted by Dr. Killian Stimson, rector of St. Mark's church in Milwaukee and cousin of the bride, read the service.

Miss Ann Warner of Kansas City, Missouri, is maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Margaret Heath, sister of the bridegroom; Anne Curtiss of Glencoe, and Marion Durham of Winnetka. Little Terry Thomas, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Frank W. McDonald, Jr. served as best man and the ushers were John L. Taylor, brother of the bride, George Aubrey and Jerome Peter Bowes, III, of Winnetka.

Following a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Evanston, where they have taken a garage apartment.
