Illinois Bell Telephone Grants Wage Increases

With 31,000 of its 37,500 union employees demanding and receiving third round wage increases, Mr. Edward M. Knox, manager here for the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, estimated today that approximately $7,000,000 has been added to the company's annual wage and related costs bill. There are another 13,000 employees in the Company's commercial, accounting and general offices.

Punctuality is the art of guessing how late the person you are going to meet will be.

According to Gas Flame, a standard G. I. saying during the war was, "If it moves, salute it; if it doesn't move pick it up; if you can't pick it up, paint it."
Reconversion has made this read, "If it cries, change it; if it is on wheels, buy it; and if it's hollow, rent it."

Then, in a more serious vein . . . If you crave automatic heat, think of Gas and Oil. Sound silly? Well it is sound advice, now that the Twin-Fuel conversion burner is available. It burns Gas until the weather becomes too cold to permit sufficient Gas to be supplied. Then, it switches automatically to Oil. When weather warms, it goes back to Gas.

Military Rites On Saturday For Pvt. Jack Sharpless

The body of Pvt. Jack Sharpless, 22, former Highland Park youth, killed in action on Attu Island, May 20, 1943, will arrive in Highland Park this week and rest until the hour of military services at the Kelly & Spalding chapel, 27 No. Sheridan road.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emmett Sharpless, Highland Park, he was the brother of Mrs. Vey-Louise (Sharpless) Steele and Donald Sharpless, both deceased. The latter, "Don" Sharpless, was one-time golf professional at Bonnie Brook Country club, Waukegan. Mr. Charles Emmett Sharpless, Sr., will be remembered as one-time manager of the Mission Hills Country club and of the Wilmette Country club. Jack Sharpless was also the nephew of the late Attorney Willard W. Sharpless, State's attorney in Garrett, Indiana.

Born in Highland Park January 25, 1921, after the death of his parents in 1930 and 1932, respectively, Jack entered the Allendale School for Boys at Lake Villa. Proficient in art and music, he was a member of the well-known Allendale School band, and upon graduation there he attended Tri-State college, Angola, Indiana. In September, 1942, he entered service and eight months afterward was killed in action on the Island of Attu. He was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in action against the enemy.

Military rites will be conducted at 2:00 p.m. Saturday from the Kelly & Spalding chapel, with burial at Mooney cemetery.

Surviving are his sister, Mrs. Glen C. Irish, Rt. 3, Box 237 North Green Bay Road, Waukegan, Ill., and one brother, Charles E. Sharpless II of Radio Station WIMS, LaPorte, Indiana.

Friends may call at the chapel from Friday evening, October 22, until the hour of the service.

Elderly Highwood Resident Is Laid to Rest

Funeral services were held on Monday of this week at the Seguin chapel on N. Second street and St. James church, Highwood, for James Fagan, 81, who succumbed to a long illness the preceding Saturday at the Lake County hospital, Waukegan. He was a life long resident of Lake county, having been born in West Lake Forest, and prior to his retirement was employed by the North Shore line.

Unmarried, he is survived by two nephews, J. J. Flanagan of Highwood, Harry Flanagan of Waukegan, and three nieces, Mrs. James McGee of Chicago, Mrs. Elmer Mayo of Waukegan and Mrs. Arthur Jacques of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Interment was made at St. Patrick's cemetery, West Lake Forest.

Rites On Saturday For Highwood Patriarch

Rites were held on Saturday at the Zion Lutheran church, Highwood, for its oldest member, Adolph Frederick Anderson, who assisted in its construction in 1886. He succumbed to a brief illness the preceding Wednesday, at the age of 90.

Born in Sweden, Mr. Anderson came to this country in 1880. He was preceded in death by his wife, Emily, in 1926. A carpenter by trade, he retired 20 years ago.

Surviving are a son, Carl; two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Longgren and Mrs. Hilma Kiehl, with whom he made his home; 10 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, all of Highwood.

Interment was made at Oakwood cemetery, Waukegan.

Bicycle Testing Program At Elm Place School

This year 274 children of Elm Place School had their bicycles inspected, October 4-9 by the safety patrol boys under the supervision of Mr. Danakas, Patrol Sponsor. This figure shows a marked increase in number of children going through the test as last year's total number was 214, twenty-three percent less than this year's total.

A unique feature of the bicycle testing program at Elm Place is the awarding of membership cards admitting those whose bicycles pass the test to the Elm Place Bicycle Safety Club. These cards are issued by the Bicycle Institute of America, an organization interested in bicycle safety. The card has a pledge on the front side and 12 rules are listed for safe bicycling. On the reverse side of the card a picture of a bicycle is shown with directions for keeping the bicycle in good shape.

Hallowe'en Beggars Night To Share Treats With Needy

Plans are under way to have extra treats collected and shipped to needy children in England. The institution of "Beggars Night" goes with our modern day Hallowe'en celebration. Children go from door to door on the evening before Hallowe'en and ask for treats and in turn are supposed to perform some stunt for the donor.

This year the children are asked to share their treats with boys and girls in Southampton, England. This part in the south of England was heavily bombed during the war and at the present time, candy, gum and cookies are very scarce. Some parents in Highland Park made the suggestion that the extra sweets collected could be packaged and sent to these children.

The following letter from the Chief Education Officer of Southampton was read at a meeting of the Professional Workers of the Coordinating Council by Howard Copp, the local Recreation Superintendent.

"My dear Mr. Copp: It is very kind of you to suggest that children in Southampton might share in the "treats" resulting from Beggars Night, and it will be very generous indeed of your children to offer them this opportunity. I shall be highly delighted to co-operate in this matter, and if any parcels were

Final College Day At H. Park High

October 27 will be the final college day at the Highland Park High school, representatives of different colleges being present to confer with parents of students desiring to enroll in their institutions. Parents are invited to meet representatives from the following schools: Bard College, Annandale-on-the-Hudson; Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.; Wellesley Col. Wellesley, Mass.; Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N. Y.; Sweet Briar College, Sweet Briar, Va.; Brown University, Providence, R. I.; Monmouth College, Monmouth, Ill.; Stevens College, Columbia, Mo.; Catholic Schools Bureau of Chicago; Iowa State College, Ames, Ia.; Wesley Memorial Hospital, School of Nursing, Chicago; Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass.; Bryant Stratton College, Chicago; Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo.; Albion College, Albion, Mich.; Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.; California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif.; Christian College, Columbia, Mo.; Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.; Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.; Simmons College, Boston, Mass.

sent addressed to me here at the Education Department, Civic Centre, Southampton, I would see that they were distributed to suitable young people and would see that letters of thanks would be more personal in their nature if the names and address of any children concerned at your end were enclosed with the parcels, and if the ages of the children at your end were included this would be still more helpful.

Yours sincerely,
F. W. Freeman
Chief Education Officer
