

Let's Take a Look

A Fine Movie!

And Notes At Random

I've just seen the movie, "Apartment for Peggy". Without doubt it's the finest movie I've ever seen.

I recommend it strongly to you Highland Parkers . . .

In my opinion, "Apartment for Peggy" should win an Aacdmev Award.

It's simple; yet deep.

It's realistic; yet it is idealistic, too.

Great wisdom, springing from a positive philosophy, is sprinkled throughout this excellent, Technicolor picture.

It's warm, human—solid entertainment.

Gwenn, Crain, Holden . . .

From start to finish, it's Edmund Gwenn's picture.

He's one of the finest actors living.

And he plays his role of a retired professor of philosophy with restraint and deep understanding.

Jeanne Crain—the kind of gal every man wants for a wife—plays the lead.

This is her finest work to date; and each picture she has been in is better than the last.

Jeanne's superb portrayal of an expectant mother and wife of a GI student trying to get along on the pittance our government gives its deserving vets is far ahead of Hollywood's best.

She plays her role straight. Her frank comments on her approach to motherhood might raise some eyebrows.

But it's done so skillfully and in such good taste, it's in no way offensive.

YOU KNOW THE STORY . . .

You folks know the theme and plot of the movie, directed and written for the screen by able George Seaton.

It's not necessary to re-tell the story here.

But it's mighty important to mention Bill Holden, Peggy's conscientious husband, who turns in another splendid performance.

When I lived in San Marino, California, back in the 30's, two of my best friends were Bob and Bill Beedle.

Bill Beedle is now one of the most convincing young actors in unpredictable Hollywood.

Bill Beedle is Bill Holden.

He was always a most likeable fellow, kinda dreamy, a good athlete and talented along theatrical lines.

Bill's being groomed for top stardom.

He deserves it.

His work in "Apartment for Peggy" convinced me; it'll convince you, too, I'll wager.

GOOD FOR WHOLE FAMILY . . .

Here's a good movie for each family member.

Its affirmative approach will lodge itself in the minds of World War II GIs now fighting college campus battles for good housing, good grades and bright futures.

The movie hits home—and hard. Its sincerity, its forthright, yet unobtrusive preaching of uncommon common sense will nudge the thinking of many and make others want to build a better world.

Hollywood has proved once again it can turn out a top movie when it has a positive script, based on a real and timely situation and acted by talented men and women who are totally convincing.

See "Apartment for Peggy", Highland Parkers!

I'm going to see it again . . . and I'm going to write 20th Century Fox for the script.

I want to read it . . . over and over . . . particularly those pertinent, hard-hitting parts where today's challenges are met with an idealistic approach . . .

POST-ELECTION COMMENT . . .

After being parked, unknowingly, in an "Absolutely No Parking At Any Time" zone for 45 minutes at Chicago's Union Station, I returned to my car and found a smiling policeman standing by.

I gulped.

"Here's a ticket," I thought. "You know," the short, spectacled cop said, "there are two surprised men in our nation: Dewey and Truman."

With that, he walked away! . . .

CATCHY TUNE . . .

Best tune to come out of Tin Pan Alley (whatever that is) recently is "Slow Boat to China."

This corner prefers Kay Kayser's peppy rendition.

Watch and see, "Slow Boat" will be tops on the hit parades soon . . .

A BIT ON TELEVISION . . .

They say they only thing wrong about getting a television set now-times they're not welcome.

adays is that when you do you always have guests . . . and sometimes they're not always welcome.

PARTING THOUGHT . . .

There's nothing more important than a happy home!

H. Park Women Voters To Discuss Tax Dollar At Nov. 17 Meeting

"What is your local tax dollar buying?"
"What determines your tax bill?"
"How can you control your tax dollar?"

These are some of the questions that will be discussed at the November group meetings of the Highland Park League of Women Voters to be held Wednesday, November 17.

Mrs. Lester Ball and Mrs. Irving Goldberg are chairmen for the League's workshop on Local Tax Structure and Local Tax Problems. "The League feels that a thorough understanding of the tax situation in our town and county is extremely important for all of us in Highland Park," Mrs. Ball said. "Members of our workshop have talked to the County Clerk and Tax Collector in Waukegan to get information. Our workshop members will lead the discussion and we look forward to having non-members as well as League members at the meetings."

The groups will meet next Wednesday from 1:30 until 3 p.m. in the homes assigned as meeting places. Anyone interested in attending one may do so by calling one of the following chairmen:

Mrs. Robert Metzberg, Mrs. D. L. Clinton, Mrs. Carl Holzheimer, Mrs. Louis Haller, Mrs. Frank Trangmar, Mrs. Albert Ramond, Mrs. Alfred B. Gardner and Mrs. Homer Rosenberg.

Duffys And Lincoln Retain League Lead

Lincoln and Duffys played to a 6 to 6 tie last Thursday in a thrilling game at Sunset Park. Lincoln scored first on a touchdown pass to Ed Dostalek in the first half. Late in the last half a 35 yard pass to Ernie Weider followed by a 50 yard sprint tied the score. In the final moments Herman intercepted a pass and sprinted for a touchdown. The score was called back because Herman stepped out of bounds on the 23 yard line.

In the Russell-Kiwanis game the teams played to a scoreless tie. Three pass interceptions by the fleet footed Bonamarte stopped Russells drive. Scasseletti intercepted two potential touchdowns passes, but dropped the ball.

The 19th Hole minus the services of Capt. Greco scored a touchdown on the Evans Feed, giving their team the first win of the season.

The games this week will be well worth while from the spectators standpoint with Kiwanis, Russells, Duffys or Lincoln playing for the League lead, under the lights at Sunset Park tonight.

H. Park Legion Officers Attend Annual Conference

Over 500 American Legion officers attended the two day session of the 25th Annual Conference of Commanders and Adjutants held Nov. 6-7 at the state headquarters of The American Legion, Department of Illinois, in Bloomington. Leonard W. Moody, Arkansas, national vice commander, spoke at the Sunday session.

Local representatives to the conference were J. C. Leaming, commander; W. R. Sigler, adjutant, and DeWitt Manasse, service officer. They are members of Highland Park Post No. 145, Highland Park, Ill.

Boy Slightly Injured By Pellet From BB Gun

Saturday noon Donald Goring, 9, of 17 North Second street, was slightly injured by a pellet from a BB gun fired by a playmate while playing in the yard of his home. Fortunately the pellet failed to penetrate the skin near the boy's eye. It is the second time Donald has recently stopped a BB pellet.

The air rifle is in the possession of the police.

Little Giants Close Grid Season By Tying Waukegan 0 to 0

By Will Schlichting

Highland Park's "Little Giants" and the Waukegan "Bulldogs" battled to a scoreless tie last Saturday in a Suburban Conference contest played on the former's field.

This is the second year in a row that these two teams have played each other in a stalemate contest, last year's score being 6 to 6.

Fourteen End Careers

For fourteen of Coach Dave Floyd's boys this was the last game in their high school career and they did themselves proud in the fact that the game was a hard fought battle from the starting gun to the end.

Larry Berube, regular quarterback, who was injured in the New Trier game was the only one of the regular Senior players that was unable to see action as his injury still kept him on the sidelines.

Other senior players in their last game were: Gene Tagliapietra, Gus Martin, John Finch, Jim Knowlton, Gene Melchiorre, Walter Chaffee, Bob Weddell, Welton Mansfield, "Goppe" Pasquesi, Dan Coleman, Dirk Young, Leo Ferrari and Charles Heimerdinger.

Highland Park Best On Offense.

The Little Giants seemed to be a little sharper on the offense throughout the game. However, when the chips were down they could not muster that added ounce of drive to make the yardage for a score.

Twice during the game Highland Park was on the Waukegan 5 yard stripe but they could not push across into pay dirt. The Waukegan team did not work down very close to the Blue and White goal line during the game.

The work of Young, Dan Coleman, Heimerdinger and Ferrari was outstanding for the Blue and White while the spark plug of Waukegan proved to be Jerdee. Daniel Coles, brother of orchestra leader "King" Cole, played good ball in the fullback slot for the visitors.

Moose Lodge No. 446 Donates $100 Toward Church At Mooseheart

In the not too far distant future the compelling notes of the Carillon Bells will be heard over the verdant acres at Mooseheart. Up and down the beautiful Fox River Valley the sound will be carried—and to the far reaches of the Moose domain, with the message: "Suffer little children to come unto me."

Since the inception of Mooseheart a need for the House of God has existed. But lack of funds, shortage of materials and other obstacles have precluded the fulfillment of the dream. Today, however, the House of God is being built. The donation of Highland Park L.O.O.M. toward this project is $100.

Within the walls of the handsome edifice will be two chapels: Protestant and Catholic. Thus Mooseheart children of all faiths will receive the comforts of the Faith which guided their parents before entrance into the Child City.

Governments are not apt to exceed the collective wisdom of the voters.

We know people who are so selfish they are stingy with other people's money.
